Saddle Pony For Sale.

One bay saddle pony for sale five years old and thoroughly sound. Can be seen at Little's stables to-morrow, Saturday April 4th.

Gold Ring Lost.
 A gold ring with garnet setting was lost on Wednesday last between Main street and the S. A. L. passenger depot. Finder will be rewarded if returned to A. L. Burnet.

Off Again.
 The old hustler, Mr. M. Baum, will leave tomorrow night for another trip to the northern markets. Goods are going with almost incredible rapidity at his store, hence his frequent trips north. He has been in the business so long he knows exactly what the people want, and he knows how to buy it, and herein lies the secret of his success. When you need ANY-THING give Mr. Baum a call.

Whitaker & Burnet's Millinery Opening.
 We direct your attention to the advertisement of these progressive young merchants, Messrs. Whitaker & Burnet, to be found in another column of The Chronicle to-day.
 They are advertising their millinery opening which will take place next Wednesday and Thursday, April 8th and 9th. "Come one, come all" is the warm welcome they extend, and none should miss it.
 Their well worded advertisement is worthy of a careful perusal. See it.

Death of Mr. Hershman.
 Mr. J. T. Hershman who for many years was editor and proprietor of the old Camden Journal, died in New York city on the 23rd

Death of Capt. H. E. Haisell.
 It is with deep regret that we announce the death of Capt. Henry E.
 Haisell which occurred at his home on Lytleton street yesterday morning at 20 minutes after 1 o'clock after a painful illness of about one month. Capt. Haisell was born in Charleston on the 19th of November, 1861, and was therefore in the 42nd year of his age. Before coming to Camden Capt. Haisell engaged in the railroad business and for quite a while ran as conductor on the Camden branch of the old S. C. R. R.
 In 1887 he married Miss Maggie Smyrl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
 John McSmyrl, of our town, who survives him with four children.
 Since leaving the railroad he has successfully engaged in the merchandise business here. For a number of years he carried the town as a merchandiser from his ward. In all transactions both public and private he has discharged his duties faithfully and will always be remembered as an able high-toned gentleman.
 The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Baptist church, and the interment will be at the Camden cemetery.
 The bereaved family consists of Mrs. Haisell and three children.
 Mr. Haisell was a member of the Camden Lodge, No. 115, I. O. O. F., and the Camden Chapter, No. 115, R. A. M.

Social Dots.

The polo and golf matches played here last Friday closed the season and were very largely attended and were most exciting games. Camden was victorious at golf, and the Blues won the polo contest for the empires presented by Messrs. T. Edmund Krumbholz, W. M. Kerr and C. L.
 Hall.
 The Blues were, Jas. Team, R. L.
 Burstow and H. T. King. The Whites, E. S. Vaux, A. D. Kennedy and W. C. Salmood. Both teams played well. The Blues were in the driver's seat and the enthusiastic crowd of more than a thousand people were evidence of the interest taken this season in the game of polo which becomes more popular each year.
 At the Club House on Saturday afternoon was given the largest and gayest of the polo teas as all the ladies of the Country Club joined and were a very merry hostesses to all their numerous friends. This being the last public entertainment of the season at that attractive resort all united to make it also the most delightful. We only need mention a few of the charming women presiding over the tea cups to convince all who were not happy enough to be the guests of the evening, what a treat they missed. Mesdames Whistler, Kerr, Savage, Corbett, Eldredge, Shannon, von Tresckow, Johnson and Kirkland.
 Cards of invitation are out to the marriage of our popular young townsman, Mr. John J. Workman to Miss Martha R. Boykin. The ceremony will take place on the 12th at Grace Episcopal Church. Miss Boykin is a sister of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boykin, all of whom, being among our most genial and popular society young people makes it an affair of special interest and calls forth the well wishes and Godspeeds of our entire community.

Compositions From the Camden Graded School.

THE AMERICAN BOY.
 The American boys have as many good opportunities to become famous as any other people in the world.
 The reasons for this are because their country has a government that is not oppressive, and because their natural and artificial advantages are very great.

In Russia and the other absolute governments of the world, the people are deprived of many advantages, by the absolute rulers. The people in Africa have very few advantages, because there are no good harbors on the coast, and the greater part of the island is full of jungles and wild beasts.

But in the United States, there are many large and navigable rivers, many fine harbors on the coast, many domestic animals, many railroads, and many schools and universities are all over the country. The boys of the United States therefore have many advantages to be thankful for.
 There is West Point Military Academy where many of our great men took their first step towards fame.
 Another great college is at Annapolis, where our young men are trained for the naval service. Other great schools are Harvard, Yale and Washington Colleges. The last named was afterwards entitled "Washington and Lee University." In order to become useful citizens, the boys of our country should take advantage of their opportunities, and not throw them away as many have foolishly done.

Clarence Trautman
 Age 13—Grade VII.

THE AMERICAN GIRL.
 The girls and boys of America has every opportunity that they should wish for. They have private schools and free schools of every kind, and they have colleges all over the United States too.

The savages have no opportunity of any kind. Some children in the world have never seen a school, while in America, when the children are not able to buy their books and clothes, the town or city furnishes them and send a wagon around to their house for them if it is raining or snowing.

Some girls of America will not go to school if they have a chance, but they had better go, because, if they have an education, they support themselves by teaching school and clerking and there are many other things they can do to support themselves.

The girls of America are generally very pretty and strongly built. Pictures are put in papers of American girls and they are called "The American Beauty."

Colored People's Entertainment.
 Miss Katherine Hibb, a first class elocutionist, who is traveling in the interest of the Orphanage at Columbia, of which Rev. R. Carroll is its founder and president, will give an entertainment and up-to-date concert at the opera house Friday night, April 10th.
 Miss Hibb will be assisted by the best local talent of the city. Messrs.
 Smith and Timbers string band will furnish music.
 The public is asked to attend and assist in this worthy object.
 Special space and reserved seats will be furnished our white friends whose patronage we earnestly solicit. Reserved seats 25 cents. It

PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. T. Hay is on a visit to her relatives here.
 Miss Lottie Doss is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. D. Boykin.
 Capt. Moody Hough of Timrod, was in Camden this week.
 Mr. Henry Carrison, Jr., has gone to Philadelphia to attend a business college.

Dr. Kollock the celebrated specialist of Charleston was in Camden Friday last.

Mrs. Joseph Danlap of Columbia, is spending a few days with relatives in Camden.

Mr. H. I. DePass returned this morning from a trip to Richmond and Baltimore.

Dr. C. S. Britton of Smithville, was in Camden yesterday and paid a pleasant call.

Dr. Barnard B. Baker, of Charleston, was with Dr. J. W. Corbett on Wednesday last.

Mr. Athal Miller of Columbia has been for several days at the "Kirkwood on Camden Heights."

Miss Annie Leo Alexander has returned from Columbia after a delicious visit to friends there.

Dr. A. W. Burnet went to New York last Saturday on business. He will be at home again on Saturday.

Mr. Edwin F. Kendall, the accomplished musician of the Hoel Kirk wood, will furnish some beautiful music at Whitaker & Burnet's on their opening days—Wednesday and Thursday.

Among the visitors to our gay little city were Messrs. John C. Simmonds, Dwight, Gardner, Rogers, Guillard, Frost, Mayberry, Kollock and others, all of Charleston, who came up to witness the golf and polo tournaments.

Mrs. Stanhope Sams of New York who has spent the winter here with Capt. and Mrs. W. M. Shannon left on Wednesday for Charleston accompanying Mrs. A. M. Shannon.
 After a visit to the "City by the Sea" Mrs. Sams will return to her northern home and Mrs. Shannon will return to hers in the far West. They have both been so greatly benefited by a winter in Camden that we feel that it will not be good-bye but "au revoir."

Miss Lula Perkins with a party of friends is at Glenoak. Miss Perkins is a sister of our late highly esteemed friend Mrs. Caroline J. Perkins who so dearly loved old Camden and did so much for its progress.
 She first conceived the idea of a northern tourists southern winter home at Upton Court where she presided as such a charming and beloved hostess until her death. Miss Perkins endowed our Camden Library with the beautiful collection of handsome books known as the "Caroline J. Perkins Memorial." It is truly a pleasure to greet such kindly northern visitors in our midst.

Camden The Coming Winter Resort of the South.

"Camden," recently remarked a Bostonian who has wintered at the Hobkirk Inn for the last eight or nine seasons, "is the coming winter resort of the south. Florida is too enervating. Camden's climate is mild, but at the same time bracing, and an ideal one."

Our climate and surroundings certainly seem to cast a spell on those who once visit this quaint old town, with its broad streets and typical southern residences, for they return year after year, bringing friends with them, who in their turn become faithful adherents, and go home spreading far and wide the name and fame of Camden, S. C.

Those who scoffed a few years ago at the idea of Camden's developing along this line have now been effectually silenced, for all intelligent and practical observers unite in saying that it is but a question of time, and that not in a distant future, when numerous large hotels, boarding houses and cottages will have arisen to accommodate the ever increasing crowds of visitors. The demand by northern guests for building sites and for winter cottages grows each year, and the number of cottage owners and renters rise steadily season by season.

An abundance of sunshine and outdoor life or sport is what the average sojourner wants, and that he can easily procure in Camden, be it golf, polo, hunting, riding or driving.—Camden Cor. to Columbia State, March 28th.

Cheap Rates to Baptist Convention in Savannah.

For the above occasion the Seaboard Air Line and connections will sell excursion tickets to Savannah, Ga., from May 4th to 7th, inclusive, at rate of one fare plus 95 cents for the round trip, the first

Spring Millinery Opening.

Beginning Wednesday & Thursday April 8th & 9th.

Our efforts have always been to establish a reputation for both style and quality, and at the same time give our customers the best values for their money. We have been very successful in the past, and on WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY we will be better prepared than ever to convince the most critical buyers that we are abreast of the times. On this occasion there will be displayed styles from the most authentic Parisian dealers and Fifth Avenue Hatters. Those who are familiar with New York will be delighted to know that WHITAKER & BURNET handle the most up to date Millinery, as the name BURGESSER of New York City is a guarantee which can be relied upon.

Dress Goods.

Our line of DRESS GOODS are without doubt as stylish as any house in this State can boast of. We will make special prices for opening days. We cordially invite our friends and patrons to call and inspect our Dress Goods, all the latest shades in Voile, Etamne, Crepe de chene, Gingham, Chambric, &c. Also a beautiful line of White Goods, Embroideries, Insertings, Ribbons and Laces.

Dress Making.

This Department is a perfect success. Have your Clothes made by one that understands her business. Come one, come all and have your work put in with our Dressmaker as our rules are attention first come first served. Have your work booked now, that it may be done neat. Mr. Kendall from the Kirkwood will furnish you in and home of the latest popular selections of sheet music will be played over and you will be thoroughly entertained while with us on those days, also you can buy any piece of the latest sheet music at popular prices and this is the only place in the city that latest songs and instrumental music can be bought. We have spared neither time nor money to make this opening especially attractive, and will be delighted to welcome those who have already purchased their Spring Hats as well as those who have not.
 Thanking you for your past patronage and soliciting a continuance of the same we are Very Respectfully,

Whitaker And Burnet.

At The Famous Gilt Edge Store

You Will Find A Car Load Of

SPRING GOODS.

Stylish, Up-to-date &c., —AND FRESH FROM THE—

NORTHERN MAR-KETS.

To mention all that we could interest you in would be a fruitless attempt, so will call special attention to only such articles as are in great demand just now.

Our line of Gingham was never more complete, the attractiveness of which is evinced by the liberal way in which the scissors are used in distributing them among our numerous customers.

A beautiful and an extensive assortment of Percaloes, ranging in prices from 6 1-4 to 12 1-2 cents per yard. Must be seen to be appreciated.

See our Oxfords in Black, White and colors. They are among the "Tips" this season, and though you may have everything else, you cannot very well afford to be without some of these.

An abundant supply of Marsailles in Black, White and colors; also fleeced Marsailles, in Black and White, and so popular are they, that the quantity in stock grows smaller every day.

In India Linens, French Lawns, Persian Mulls, Organdies, Batistes, Mouslines, &c., &c., our stock is, of course, as complete, and in fact more complete than ever before, and we will call special attention to this department as the season advances.

Our stock of Laces and Embroideries is all that could be desired, as the extensive line, excellence of quality and beauty of designs coupled with the very low prices of these goods, make it intensely interesting for the buyer. Don't fail to see them.

We still have some of those "SPOT CASH SLAUGHTER BARGAINS, and if you would like to make a very profitable investment don't fail to give us a call.

Come to see us, a warm welcome awaits you; and assuring you that we will make your visit both pleasant and profitable, we are yours,

Very Respectfully and Truly,

The Gilt Edge Store,
P. T. Villepigue, Prop't.

P. S.—A beautiful solid silver Spoon for every Kershaw County, less than twelve months ago, was made at the Gilt Edge Store. Call and see them.
