Death of Mrs. C. U. Myers.
 Mrs. C. U. Myers died at her home a few miles east of Camden last Sunday night about eleven o'clock after an illness of only a few days of pneumonia. Mrs. Myers was a most excellent christian woman and leaves a husband and a large number of other relatives to mourn her death. The funeral took place on Monday and was conducted by Rev. Jabez Ferris.

J. C. Cureton & Co.
 It affords us much pleasure to present to our readers the advertisement of Messrs. J. C. Cureton & Co. They have a nice and large stock of white goods, gingham, shirts, underwear and shoes. And their goods are remarkably cheap. A lady customer remarked last week after finding at this store a certain piece of goods she could not find elsewhere that she "had no idea such a nice stock of goods was kept by this firm and some articles so much cheaper than she had been paying elsewhere." Their stock is alright. Take our advice and go and inspect it. Their store is one door north of Mr. M. Baum's.

The Famous Gilt Edge Store.
 This popular and up-to-date dry goods emporium has a new advertisement in The Chronicle to-day to which we invite your special attention. Always abreast of the times and ever looking to the interest of the trading public Mr. Villepique is continually adding new features and attractions to his business. His bargain counters and spot cash slaughter days are the latest attractions. In order that his friends from the country may have a better opportunity to secure their share of special bargains Mr. Villepique will make Tuesday of each week a Special Salesday. The bargain counters are always filled with the cream of bargains. Bear these facts in mind and for the best bargains of the season visit the Gilt Edge Store.

The Camden Casket & Coffin Factory.
 A local industrial enterprise started a little over a year ago is one of the prominent features of Camden to-day. Our first visit to the little casket factory about this time last year never suggested to us that a visit to-day would be the revelation that it has been. From a little shed it has grown into a series of buildings and every one crowded that by reference to another column of this paper the intention of the promoters of this industry will be seen. Messrs Miller Boykin and C. P. Rosignol deserve credit for the manner in which they have wrought the full growth of the infant industry in scarcely a year. Not only were we surprised at the magnitude which the plant has assumed, but were particularly struck with the beauty of the work and the varied finishes. In addition to making the various styles and finishes of coffins they are now making a casket finished in five styles of cloth and two varnish stains. We are pleased to say that work seems to be fully up and everything moves with an evenness and precision which indicates order and experience. South Carolinians, and particularly Camdenians, should be proud of this enterprise. It is with much pleasure that we note the intention of Messrs. Boykin & Rosignol to increase their capital stock, and interest every body in Camden, and put in a large and imposing factory. All of these things tend to build up Camden, and our people should aid in the building of our city. If our city were to have the Messrs. Boykin & Rosignol on the same scale as the Camden Casket & Coffin Factory, we would have a better opportunity to secure their share of special bargains Mr. Villepique will make Tuesday of each week a Special Salesday. The bargain counters are always filled with the cream of bargains. Bear these facts in mind and for the best bargains of the season visit the Gilt Edge Store.

Social Dots.
 The dance given by Miss Margaret Eldredge and Mr. Inman Eldredge at Goodie Castle on Tuesday night was a charming affair. All of the young society people and their guests were in evidence and with a good band of music and delicious refreshments it was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season.
 The young men of Camden are to have a large German to night at the Club House complimentary to Miss Krumboltz. The invitations are very pretty gotten up for the occasion.

The Easter services at Grace church on Sunday last were the most impressive and elaborate for many years. Mr. Gordon preached a fine sermon. The church could not seat the immense crowd, many of whom stood during the entire service. The flowers were most beautiful and the music the finest ever had in a Camden church. As some gentleman of culture remarked "it would have been fine even in the largest city churches." The entire body of the church was festooned with trailing vines of smilax.
 To the orchestra, to whose sweet strains of music every heart responded, we cannot sufficiently express the appreciation of the community.

On Monday night at the residence of Mrs. Frank M. Zemp was held a large meeting of the U. D. C's. Misses Louise and Etta Zemp were also hostesses. Arrangements were made for the entertainment of the delegates to the convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy which is to meet in Camden next November. The banquet is to be given then at the Kirkwood Hotel on Camden Heights, and other entertainments both public and private are to be extended to them during their stay in our city.
 Mrs. Zemp's beautiful home on Monday night was elaborately decorated with red and white in cut flowers, potted plants, flags, etc. A handsome engraving of our fallen flag was draped in exquisite wreaths of immortelles and a portrait of Gen. John D. Kennedy for whom our chapter is called, was conspicuously placed and decorated with the colors of our lost cause.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

 John Kershaw, M. K. Shannon, H. K. Lang, and J. K. DeLoach, to W. G. Wilson 1 lot on Lyttleton street $700.
 F. W. Wagner and Geo. A. Wagner to C. C. Scott 1 house and lot on DeKalb street next west of jail lot, $700.
 Wm J. Motley to James B. Cooper, 1-2 acre in No. 17, $12.

Eclipse of the Moon.
 The Luna eclipse which came on us "like a thief in the night," was witnessed by a number of Camdenians Saturday night. It was a surprise to a good many as there had been hardly any warning of an approaching eclipse which proved to be almost total. A similar eclipse to this one occurred on March 30th 1885, and it will be 18 years before it will be seen again at this time of the year. The eclipse was visible in the eastern portion of the United States.

A Beautiful Wedding.
 On Tuesday morning at 8:30 while Grace church was still brilliant and beautiful with floral decorations, the sun burst out in his splendor on a happy expectant crowd awaiting the "coming of the bride." Miss Martha Rives Boykin, one of our sweetest young ladies was about to plight her troth to one of our most popular young men, Mr. John J. Workman. At the sweet strains of Lohengrin Wedding March with Miss Susie Young at the organ, Dr. Jno. W. Corbett and Mr. J. B. Wallace with cornets and Mr. Ed. Truacdel on the violins, the bridal party entered. First the ushers, Messrs. W. S. Burnet, L. T. Mills, J. H. Burns and Jos. K. Workman. Then Miss Leila Boykin as maid of honor, beautifully gowned in white Etimine trimmed elaborately with satin ribbon and chiffon.
 Then the lovely bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Douglas A. Boykin who also gave her away.
 The groom and his best man, Mr. Robert C. Workman, entered from the vestry room and here awaiting them at the altar the Rev. Mr. Gordon in a most impressive manner officiated.
 The bride's dress of pale grey chiffon over silk was a creation of tasteful beauty. Her hat to match was most becoming and handsome and we rarely have the pleasure of witnessing a sweeter or prettier wedding.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boykin had a most attractive reception to the immediate family of the wedding party the night before.
 The numerous and handsome array of presents attested the popularity of both the bride and groom.

Perpetual Motion Machine Patented.
 Mr. D. G. Zeigler, the architect who has done a good deal of work in Camden but who resides in Sumter, has secured a patent on a perpetual motion machine. A special from Sumter to the State, says:
 "Mr. D. G. Zeigler, an architect of this city, has invented a machine for perpetual motion which he thinks has solved the problem which has puzzled the world up to this time. It is the first perpetual motion invention that the United States government has allowed a patent for in 40 years. It has also been patented in every foreign country. Mr. Zeigler would not make his invention public until he had it covered by patents in every country. In the near future Mr. Zeigler will use this machine for practical work."

PERSONAL.
 Rev. W. Ferris spent yesterday in Columbia.
 Capt. J. A. Beason was in Clarendon county this week.
 Mr. John Croxton of Kershaw was in Camden last Thursday.
 Capt. M. L. Smith will deliver the Memorial address here this year.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Moore returned from New York on Tuesday last.
 We are glad to note the return of Dr. A. R. DePass to his native state.
 Messrs. M. M. DePass and Frank Zemp of Kershaw spent Sunday at home.
 Miss Bet McDowell came over from Columbia to spend the Easter vacation with her family.
 Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Bakes of Lancaster, spent Easter in the city with Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Lang.
 Dr. E. M. Boykin, who is attending the Medical College in Charleston is at home for his vacation.
 Messrs. R. M. Kennedy and L. T. Mills attended the teachers convention held in Columbia last Saturday.
 We regret greatly to hear of the illness of our fellow-citizen, Mr. Henry Salmon, at his home in Kirkwood.
 Messrs. Gus Sanders and A. G. Hartness of Hagood were in the city last Thursday. They both rode the K. of P., goat Thursday night.
 Mr. W. C. Thomson, of Lancaster, surprised and delighted a good many of his friends in Camden last Sunday by an unexpected visit. He spent the day here returning to Lancaster Sunday night.
 Mr. Thomas Lang of the U. S. A., who has been stationed in Florida and was quite ill with typhoid fever some weeks since, we are glad to see is on a visit to his parents here and is almost himself again.
 Miss Carrie Girardeau of Columbia visited her aunt Mrs. G. G. Young last week. She with Miss Berlie Trenholm and Misses Marie and Bessie Zemp returned to their colleges on Wednesday last.
 The many friends of Dr. E. C. Brasington will leap with delight that he has decided to remain in Camden. During his stay in Camden the Doctor has made many warm friends and is a most excellent citizen.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jennings and their little daughter of Columbia accompanied by Miss Annie Workman came over to attend the Workman-Boykin wedding this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. Richards of Liberty Hill also were here for the wedding.
 Mrs. W. G. Grambrell of Greenwood, came last week for a visit to her mother, Mrs. N. S. Withers. She returned on Wednesday to her home, carrying with her Miss Nan Withers who will spend some time with Mrs. F. B. Grier and Mrs. Grambrell who have beautiful homes in progressive Greenwood.

Miss Charlotte D. Kershaw after quite an extensive visit to her sister, Mrs. Bratton DeLoach of Early Branch, and to her brother, Rev. John Kershaw, Rector of St. Michaels church Charleston, has returned to Camden, her home, where she has a host of devoted friends not only on account of her own personality, but as a representative of her beloved parents. Her father, Gen. J. B. Kershaw, will ever hold the first place in Camden's devotion to her heroes.

We take the following from the Greenwood Journal of the 8th inst: Several persons were baptised at the Baptist church last Sunday morning after the sermon. The ordinance was administered by Rev. A. T. Jamison who baptised his little daughter, Sarah. It was a graceful thing in the past to have Mr. Jamison administer the ordinance as his own daughter was among the number baptised, and the others were from the orphanage.
 Miss Bessie Young, of Camden, and Miss Lydia Schneider, a charming young lady from Columbus, Ohio, who has been spending the winter in Camden, came up to Kershaw Tuesday to spend the day and were registered at the Benton hotel. They also visited the Halle Gold Mine. Miss Schneider was charmed with Kershaw and enjoyed her brief visit here very much. We will be delighted to have her return at any time and bring her friends with her.—Kershaw Era.
