CAMDEN. S. C., NOV. 6, 1903

At a meeting of the John D. Kennedy Chapter U. D. C., at the redicence of Dr. A. A. Moore last Menday evening the following ladies were elected to represent Camden in the State Convention: Mrs. H. S. Burnet, Mrs. Geo. Young, Miss Louise Nettles and Miss Leila Shannon.

The Christian who is after a place in heaven for himself merely and is willing to step on his neighbor to climb in, who saves his soul with the hope of a beautiful mansion in the skies while he lets his helpless brother wallow in a pigsty here below-I wouldn't give a cent lowed the regular exercises, such as for his Christianity or for his chances in the other life either. THE OPENING OF THE HIGH SCHOOL, OCT 12th, 1903.

On last Monday the opening of the Apply to W. H. Tiller or 'phone High School took place, and I am sure every one who attended it thoroughly Oct. 23-1m.

The classes from the Graded School were stationed on each side of the path, and the High School boys and girls marched up and arganged thamselves about the steps.

There were recitations from every grade, which made the exercises very pleasing. The reciters stood on the porch and faced the crows.

Hy was also Arbor Day. The High School girls sang a song, on the steps, and afterwards assembled in a semi-circle around the tree that was planted and rang "Woodman Spare That Tree," which was very appropriate for the oc-

The visitors were invited to go through the building. The rooms are large and roomy, and have been repainted so that they are very handsome. After the exercises, there were races and a foot-ball game, which excited enthusiam among the crowd. Nan Tranham

SCHOOL. The opening of the High School was interisting, not only to the scholars, but to the whole town, because I think any town should be proud of the advances of her schools, and take an interest in them. Ar For Day was chosen to be the day of the opening, so that it might be celebrated in a manner betitting the occasion.

This Arbor Day was different, and more enjoyable than any we have ever celebrated before. Before begining, there was a prayer for the wellfare of the school, the teachers and pupile, by the Rev. Mr. Earle. Then folwe have always had: singing by the different grades, recitations, and the planting of the tree. The tree, which was a cedar, was planted in honor of Mr. Thomas J. Kirkland, one of the trustees and one who has done much toward securing the school. After this followed the athletic sports—foot-racing, and foot- Claims will not be approved us ball.
