Congratulations are "in order" to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Workman. Their home is brightened by the advent of a lovely little daughter, Elizabeth Brisbane. Truly a "baby in the house is a well spring of joy." The festivities of Camden are greatly enhanced by the exciting games of base ball every Tuesday afternoon between the regular team and the married men. As it is always a "house divided against itself" that falls so always somebody is hurt for the mothers are invariably "whooping up" their sons and the young ladies are always for the single men and it is only when a mother's sons all hapwives who have no sons are present that the married men have a fair degree of shoours gement.
