CAMDEN, S. C., SEP. 23, 1904

Judge, R. O Purdy has rendered his decision in the case of W. H. Seale, et al, vs. J. O. Durant, et al and has issued the writ of mandamus to compel Supervisor J. O. Durant, of Lee county to pay over to Supervisor W. H. Seale, of Somter county the amount due by Lee county to Sumter county.

Hop. M. L. Smith, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was unopposed for re-election in his county in the recent primary. It is a natural presumption that he will be a candidate for re-election was Speaker, and if precedent is followed he will be re-elected there without opposition.

On a recent trip to Columbia in company with a member of the last House, he remarked to us that Mr. Smith was one of the beninical tire State, and his name has altendy been mentioned several times as a probable candidate to succeed Governor Heyward at the expiration of his second term. Should be deather to enter the race as a candidate for governor he will be a very hard man to beat .- Kershaw Era.

The South's Prospects.

prosperity bids fair to continue without interuption.

Taught by the hard experience of a low price cotton lasting several years, diversified farming became general and while cotton remaining "King" increased crops of corn were grown, cattle and hogs were raised, fruit and vegetables became a great source of revenue.

Now with a great cetton crop in greater quantity than ever before, Murket and see me,- I will do you the price will not sink to the low good. level prevailing a few years ago, and the other great crops were never large and are bringing prices that mean prosperity to the raiser.

In a territory as large as that of the south, here and there the conditions may be unfavorable but as a whole the south's prospects were never better, and the eyes of the world are turned to the fair and fertile land "flowing with milk and honey" with a climate so mild and even that work is a pleasure in all seasons, and with a soil so rich Jno Whiteker, Jr., taying consolidatthat work brings a rich reward.

No wonder the people of the north and west are turning toward the south where cheap and fertile lands can be had in communities Filish (Lives GROUGRY AND already supplied with schools, MARKEL. churches and transportation facilities, and better than all, with a peo- ing up the stock to write a long ad ple who have shown within the versionent to day but will ask you past thirty years a power to wrest victory from adverse conditions WATKINS, WHITAKER & CO. that has never been equaled .-Rome and Farm.

⇒ Opera House Store. ≥

We desire to make an announcement and at the same time issuf an invitation. We believe that we have secured the most attractive collection of choice and serviceable Autumn and Winter fabrics, dress goods and accessories, household furnishings, novelties, high and medium grades of clothing, gents furnishings, and in fact, merchandise of every discription, ever brought to this section of the South. We have exercised our energies to this end, spending no little time and thought in the selection of these goods in the northern markets. This card is to cordially invite you to come and look at them whether you wish to buy or not. Our prices are reasonable and popular; in fact, every sale for this House will mean a safe investment for the purchaser: it will please both the taste and the picket. If our goods, our prices and our attention please you, kindly tell your friends and acquaintances; if they do not, tell us.

We thank our patrons for their past favors and solicit their future business and the patronage of the general public.

Respectfully,

L. Schenk And Company, OPERA HOUSE STORE.
