PERSONAL

Misses J. D. Percival and C. A. Bowen, of Blaney, were in Camden this week and paid us a pleasant call.

Mr. F. B. Alexander spent several days in Bishopville this week with a view of establishing a branch of his bottling factory there.

At a meeting of the county pension board held last week Judge W. F. Russell was re-elected chairman and pension commissioner and Mr. Allen Deas was re-elected clerk.

Mrs. H. Kaminski and her little son Richard have come to spend Christmas with Mrs. Kaminski's mother Mrs. M. Baum. Mr. Kaminski will also be here in a few days.

We were glad to meet our old friend, Mr. J. S. Moroney, on the street one day this week. He has been quite sick recently and this was his first trip to town in forty days.

Mr. W. H. Halle has been elected a policeman to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Thorn. The city council made a happy selection. Mr. Halle will fill the position admirably.

Mr. J. T. C. Hopkins, of Bel Air, Md., has been spending a week or two in Camden. Mr. Hopkins' many friends here would be glad if he could be induced to make his home here altogether.

Mr. J. L. Z. Mr.

Social Dots.

Misses Nan Withers and Emma Shannon were the hostess on Tuesday afternoon to the "Acorn Club" which was a most delightful entertainment and one of the largest of the season as the invitations included all the young matrons complimentary to Mrs. F. B. Grier who was the guest of honor. The principal game of six handed euchre was enthusiastically enjoyed. The score cards were decorated with pretty Dutch scenes and the best prize—a lovely Dutch work basket—was won by Miss Clara Krumboltz. The delicious refreshments were a splendid course and coffee.

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock there was a most entertaining meeting of the U. D. O. at the residence of Mrs. H. G. Garrison. A large number of ladies were present. Mrs. W. D. Trantham, president of the local Chapter, and all of the delegates who had attended the charming convention in Orangeburg gave most glowing accounts of their visit to that flourishing city and the harmonious meeting of the State convention. A plan of work was laid out for the coming year, reports read and after the usual routine of work refreshments were served and an invitation extended by Mrs. Gus Hirsch for the Chapter to meet with her on the first Monday evening in January, 1905.

On Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the Camden Historical Society held its regular monthly meeting at the High School building in the reception room of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and was a most instructive and intellectual entertainment. Papers of great interest had been carefully prepared by Mr. E. O. von Treuschow on the history of "La Fayette Hall," and by Mr. E. P. Mills on the historical places of interest in and around Camden and the benefit to the records of our town to preserve and mark these places. It is to be hoped that at the next meeting on the evening of the 2nd Monday in January we will have a larger attendance. It is an occasion of great intellectual benefit and enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Whistler entertained most charmingly at the Country Club House on Tuesday evening. Their guests included their young friends, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who are their guests on the road. The evening was enjoyed by the social set and all the guests returned to their homes very happily.

Began Monday With a Rush.

The big clothing sale of Mr. M. Baum began on Monday morning last, with more buyers present and greater enthusiasm, we are informed, than any previous sale that has yet been conducted there. If it is clothing you want, you should see Mr. Baum. See his ad.

Has Bought An X Ray Machine.

Dr. S. F. Brasington has recently purchased and now has in his office over Zemp & DePass' drug store an X Ray machine. It is indeed a wonderful apparatus and to those who have never seen one of the machines it would be well worth a visit to Dr. Brasington's office to see it.

Don't fail to read the new advertisement of the Gilt Edge Store.

Snow accompanied with a good deal of sleet fell in Camden on Wednesday night last. This is considerably earlier than snow has been seen here for several years.

Neurology.

On Dec. 9, 1904, at the home of her father, Capt. J. C. Nicholas, near Bethune, S. C., Mrs. Nettie, wife of Mr. A. P. McCalhitt, passed away. God in His wisdom "does all things well." One so useful, loving and kind doth heed the call of her Savior divine, who by obedience and love has prepared a place above, who says to His children whom He loves come dwell with Me, Mr. Kingdon is love.

The young husband and aged father and mother and relatives have the sympathy of our community.
