YOURS FOR A CLEAN NEW YEAR!

It is our province to make the home sanitary, wholesome, sweet and clean in so far as we care for its plumbing by modern methods. We bespeak your orders during 1905, knowing full well that we can second you full measure of satisfaction—even as to price. Glad to estimate on any job, no matter how small.

Winter tourist rates are now in effect to all Florida points. For full information as to rates, routes, etc., consult nearest Southern Railway ticket agent, or, R. W. Hunt, Division Passenger Agent, Charleston, S. C.

Married.

Among the most beautiful marriages and home weddings that took place in the circles of high society was the wedding of Mr. Geo. W. McLain, a popular young gentleman of Camden, and Miss Ester E. Palmer, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Palmer, and one of the efficient teachers of the Browning Home Institute in Camden.—Columbia Sun.

The groom is one of Camden's most accomplished barbers who is held in the highest esteem by our entire community, and to whom The Chronicle extends hearty congratulations.

MAUD HULLER To Return

Mrs. Maud Huller, who will be the guest of the Club House on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, was a great success and a most brilliant and entertaining. The Ladies have been working faithfully for many weeks and it is indeed gratifying to know that their efforts have been so abundantly rewarded. The Bazaar is quite the occasion of the season. More than three hundred dollars were realized in the first evening.

No More Shooting in Town.

Mayor C. H. Yates has ordered that the shooting of slugs, shotguns, pistols and guns within the corporate limits of the town shall cease. This order from the Mayor is just and proper one for there has recently been a great deal of reckless shooting and wanton destruction of birds. Those who have been violating this ordinance should desist at once. Their attention is called to the notice from Chief Benj. Haile in another column.

Church Officers Ordained and Installed.

Last Sunday morning Messrs. S. M. C. Moore and E. C. DuBose were ordained Elders of the Camden Presbyterian church, and Messrs. W. D. Barrett, J. B. Wallace, Benj. Haile, L. T. Mills, J. B. Careton and Dr. W. J. Dunn were ordained Deacons. Messrs. J. L. Gettys and John T. Mackey were installed Elder and Deacon respectively, they having previously received the ordination as such officers at other churches. The services were very impressive and deeply interesting throughout.

Mr. T. B. McCaslin was elected an Elder but on account of his absence from home he was not ordained.

Deaths.

After only a few days' illness of pneumonia Mr. B. A. Clanton, who was engaged in the dray business in Camden, died at an early hour yesterday morning at his home at the corner of Rutledge and Lytleton streets. Mr. Clanton was 42 years of age and was born in Chesterfield county. During his several years residence here he has impressed everyone with his promptness and reliability in his business. In his death the dependence of a wife and six little children, the youngest of whom is only a few months old, is taken away. The burial will take place to-day at Mydens church about three miles east of Camden.

Mr. C. V. Smith, formerly of Smithville but recently engaged in business with the American Bridge Work Co. of New York, was found dead at Austin, N. C., yesterday morning. He was 26 years of age. The remains were brought to Camden this morning over the Seaboard accompanied by his brother, Mr. Connor Smith, and from here were carried to Smithville for interment to-day.

Mrs. Mary Love died yesterday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Kohler, on Mill street, aged about 80 years. The remains will be interred to-day at the family burying ground a few miles above DeKalb.

Miss Louise Allan of Virginia is visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Williams at Bloomsbury Hall.

Miss Cora Carrison has returned from a visit of a month to the delightful Land of Flowers where she was the guest of her friends Mr. and Mrs. Laurens Alexander and family of St. Augustine.

Mrs. Potter of New York is visiting her son Mr. Charles Potter at his cottage on Fair street.

Mrs. Campbell Bissell of Charleston who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gantley's family on Kirkwood Heights has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Monck of Canada and their charming little family who have made so many friends in Camden during their protracted sojourn at Mrs. G. H. Lenoir's left on Thursday for Charleston where they expect to remain for the rest of the season.

Miss Myrtle Lee of Virginia is visiting her friend Mrs. J. H. Burns on Lytleton street.

Mr. Harrington Godfrey of South Carolina and Mr. Holland of New York after a visit of some weeks to Camden combining work and pleasure have left for their other fields of business.

The regular weekly dance at the Country Club House on Tuesday night was a particularly charming affair. An unusually large number of Camden society people attended. Of course there were large crowds of tourists present.

Mrs. E. E. Manderville has offered her beautiful home for Monday afternoon for a musical for the entertainment of the public and the benefit of the Episcopal church. Mrs. Manderville is always a charming hostess and being an accomplished musician with a fine contralto voice all who attend will be sure to have a musical treat.

Mrs. A. Weinberg and son are visiting relatives in Florence.

Mrs. G. G. Young has returned from a month's visit to relatives in Florida much improved by her trip.

Miss Blanche Moore who has been visiting Miss Honor Lang has returned to her home in Lancaster.

Mrs. Stewart Heath and family are visiting Mrs. James M. Heath.

Mrs. Mahler of St. Paul is visiting her sister Mrs. S. R. Adams.

Miss Sadie Anorm is spending a week with her family and will return to Columbia on Saturday.

The Episcopal Bazaar.

The Episcopal Bazaar which was held at the Country Club House on Wednesday and Thursday of this week was a great success and a most brilliant and entertaining. The Ladies have been working faithfully for many weeks and it is indeed gratifying to know that their efforts have been so abundantly rewarded. The Bazaar is quite the occasion of the season. More than three hundred dollars were realized in the first evening.

Free Life Insurance Policy for One Thousand Dollars.

The State Life Insurance Company of Indianapolis, is offering a policy for one thousand dollars absolutely free. Read their ad, in to-day's Chronicle and find out the particulars, fill out the blank and send to Mr. D. Sam Cox, general agent. This is one of the strongest and best companies in the world and Mr. Cox is a polished, christian gentleman, being perfectly reliable in every particular. We take pleasure in recommending both the company and the agent. Fill out that blank to-day; there is nothing to lose and you may get a policy for one thousand dollars free. Try it.

Letter to C. H. Yates.

Dear Sir: It costs two or three times as much to put paint on us to buy it. A gallon of poor paint costs much as a gallon of good, for the work; and a gallon of poor don't go half as far. Poor paint lasts half or a third or a quarter as long as good; and protects wood and iron a half or a third or a quarter as well as good.

Do you buy good paint or poor? You don't know any more? Why, the market is full of it.

All Devco agents have a state chemist's certificate which tells just what is in Devco.

Go by the name; the one safe name: Devco lead and zinc.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devco & Co.
P. S.—Springs & Shannon sell our paint 75.

NOTICE.

The Mayor has ordered a rigid enforcement of the ordinance against shooting within the corporate limits of the town. This ordinance will be strictly enforced, so govern yourself accordingly.

BENJ. HAILE,
Chief of Police.
Mar. 3rd, 1905.

Citation.

By J. B. Phelps, Probate Judge. Whereas, Martha J. Morrison and W. T. Castles made suit to me, to grant them Letters of Administration of the Estate of and effects of John T. Morrison.

These are therefore to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said John T. Morrison deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Camden, S. C., on Saturday, March 18th, next after publication thereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon to show cause, if any they have, why the said administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand this 1st day of March, A. D., 1905.

J. B. PHELPS,
Judge of Probate.
