Death of Mrs. W. Brunner, of New York.
A telegram received in Camden on Tuesday last announced the death, by pneumonia, in New York city, of Mrs. W. Brunner, sister of Mrs. Mannes Baum, of our city. Mrs. Baum left immediately for New York. Words are inadequate to express the deep sorrow felt by our entire community for Mrs. Baum and the other members of the family in this, their great bereavement. May He who has afflicted them comfort and sustain them.

Free Life Insurance Policy for One Thousand Dollars.
The State Life Insurance Company, of Indianapolis, is offering a policy for one thousand dollars absolutely free. For full particulars, fill out the blank and send to Mr. D. Sam Cox, general agent. This is one of the strongest and best companies in the world and Mr. Cox is a pronounced, Christian gentleman, being perfectly reliable in every particular. We take pleasure in recommending both the company and the agent. Fill out that blank today; there is nothing to lose and you may get a policy for one thousand dollars free. Fill it.

Failure of Mr. M. Baum.

We regret exceedingly to learn that Mr. M. Baum is embarrassed financially and that proceedings in bankruptcy have been taken against him. A half century ago he came into our business world rich, full of pluck, energy and enterprise. Success crowned his efforts and he was for a number of years one of the wealthiest men in Camden. During his career there have been numerous failures here in Camden. In fact, he has been successful in avoiding disaster for a greater number of years than any merchant who has been engaged in business in Camden since the war. Pity it is that trouble should meet him when his hair is silvered by the hand of time, and when the magnificent energy of his youth coupled with the strenuous efforts of his manhood entitle him to an old age of peace and quiet. The people of Camden sympathize deeply with Mr. Baum and trust that his creditors will deal gently with him. His public spirit, liberality and patriotism has endeared him to the people among whom he has lived. His life, however, has not been a failure. It was an illustration of how a boy with industry and energy for his capital, in times of depression and gloom, could still succeed. He has for many years been a prominent citizen of the city, and though financially he has been crippled we trust that he may be spared to live long among us, using, as he has always done, that prominence and influence for the best interests of Camden, his adopted home.

Milk Cow Wanted.
Anyone having a good milk cow to dispose of can find a purchaser for same by applying at this office.

Found.

Preaching in the Baptist Church Sunday.
Rev. J. D. Moore, of Barwell, S. C., will preach in the Camden Baptist Church Sunday the 12th inst. at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.

A Disappointment.
The failure of the "Maud Muller" Opera Co. to appear at the Opera House last Wednesday evening was a great disappointment to a large number of our theatregoers. Their non appearance was caused by the failure to make proper railway connections.

The Camden Historical Society.
The program for the meeting of the Historical Society which will be held Tuesday evening, March 14th, is as follows: 1. "Camden Sixty Years Ago" (from conversation with old citizens), by Miss Leila Shannon. 2. "Slavery as I knew it," by Miss Lila Davis. All members are urged to be present. Visitors will be welcomed.
R. M. Kennedy, Sec'y.

Mr. Russell Takes Charge.
Mr. W. F. Russell the recently appointed Auditor of Kershaw county took formal charge of that office on Tuesday last. Mr. Russell is no stranger in the Auditor's office and the County's welfare there will be in safe and competent hands.

Mr. J. J. Goodale the retiring Auditor has discharged his duties well and efficiently and in leaving the office he does so with the consciousness of having filled it to the entire satisfaction of everyone who had business there.

Fires.
On Sunday night last about 10 o'clock Mr. D. E. Hinson's store was discovered to be on fire. A prompt response by the fire company soon had the fire under control but not before considerable damage was done both by fire and water. The loss is estimated at about $800 which we are glad to learn was covered by insurance.

On Tuesday night two cotton seed houses at the old Southern depot together with the large shed at the north end of the depot were destroyed by fire.

PERSONAL.

Mr. G. S. King, of Bethune, was in Camden yesterday.

Miss Rosa Lee Hayman, of Chester, is the guest of her sister Mrs. E. H. Baum.

Mrs. Wm. Rosenbaum, of New York city, is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. B. H. Baum.

Mrs. J. B. Holley is visiting her mother Mrs. M. S. Sowell. Her many friends here are delighted to see her again.

Dr. Simon Barnab, of New York city, came down and spent a day or two this week with his old friend Mr. M. Baum.

Mr. G. Hirsch, of the firm of Hirsch, Pass and Co., after spending about two weeks in the northern markets has returned to Camden. His spring stock is particularly attractive. See his ad.

We received a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. Paul Pinkerton, traveling freight agent of the Southern Railway. The Southern always has general offices (not the least among them is our Mr. Cooper) and it is always a pleasure to come in contact with them.

Social Dots.

The numerous Social Dots functions that have been graciously given the last week before the Lenten Season by our friends have kept the community very busy and festive.

The Episcopal Bazaar which closed on Thursday afternoon, left the Club House to the younger members of the Social set and to the tourists in our midst who gather there two or three times a week for music and other amusements.

The Matrons Club was entertained most pleasantly on Tuesday afternoon with six handed English by Mrs. C. H. Yates when a lovely Japanese tea was served. The Score cards, the decorations and prizes all carried out the pretty conception Mrs. P. T. Villegaigne and Mrs. W. D. Boykin being the fortunate possessors of the attractive Japanese ware offered by the Hostess as premiums.

The 500 Club was also delightfully entertained in the morning of the same day by Mrs. J. T. Hay when Mrs. P. T. Villegaigne was again the winner of the best prize. Of course the carefully prepared and beautifully served refreshments add greatly to the enjoyment of these charming entertainments.

On Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock a most highly artistic musical treat was given to the people of Camden and Kirkwood at Mrs. Manville's beautiful home when a number of her friends kindly lent their talents for the entertainment of the crowd. The program which was selected most charmingly was enjoyed by all and many thanks extended to those who so kindly took part in this unusually fine musical concert. The proceeds of which were generously contributed to the organ fund for Grace Episcopal Church.

On Tuesday night of this week the last dance before Lent at the Club House was very largely attended and a most joyous evening was spent.

The Polo games have been very exciting during the past week. That of Wednesday between the Blues and the Reds who were represented by Messrs. Barstow, Bull, Boykin and Smith for the Blues, and Russell, Ely, Cameron and Goodwin for the Reds resulted in favor of the latter. And again on Friday the Special Polo match for the "Ladies' Cup" presented by Messames Cameron, Shipman, Russell and Barstow was a most exciting game and was won by the Reds.

Mr. Krimmbholz acted as referee and the line up was as follows Blues—Borlin, Smith, Kennedy and Whisler, Reds—Cammoren, Ely, Russell and Barstow.

The paper chase this week had about twenty participants and was led by Miss Bull and Mr. Samuel Russell.

Mrs. Walker, of Charleston who is visiting Mrs. C. H. Yates was guest of honor at the Card Club on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. George McCutchen, of Columbia so popularly known in Camden as Miss Leila Johnstone, of Newberry is visiting her sister Mrs. Laurrens Mills.

Mr. William M. Shannon, of Columbia who has been quite ill at his home in Columbia with grippe has been recuperating at his father's home here on Haile Street.

$1,000 Policy Free.

Mr. Public:—
If your life is worth living, it is worth insuring. If it is worth insuring, it is worth insuring in the company that offers the safest insurance and the largest dividends. That means that you want a policy in the State Life Insurance Company, of Indianapolis. "The Woman In The Case" will tell you all the whys. Fill out the coupon below and return to this office. If you are the ninety-ninth man to do this, you will be given a policy for a thousand dollars, premium paid for a year provided you are a good risk. If you are not, the next good risk will get it. Better fill it out at once.

D. Sam Cox, General Agent,
Columbia, S. C.

Dear Sir:—
Please send me a copy of "The Woman In The Case," and an illustration showing cost and values of a State Life Policy at my age. If this coupon is the ninety-ninth one you receive, I understand that you are to present me with a policy for $1,000 paid for a year, provided I successfully stand the examination.
