Screen Door Paint makes old doors look new. Smith & Beattie.
Make yourself comfortable these hot evenings.—Hammocks all prices. Smith & Beattie.

A few days ago a passenger train from Charleston to Columbia was stopped at St. Matthews because the engineer was drunk and running recklessly.

A Philadelphia concern has written Commissioner of Immigration Watson proposing to establish a number of small factories in this State to manufacture products from sweet potatoes.

The following problem is said to have demoralized a part of West Virginia. "A train 1 mile long starts from the station. The engine leaves and the conductor waits until the caboose comes, when he jumps on the caboose and walks forward over the train. When the engine arrives at the next station, four miles distant, the conductor stops the engine. How far does the conductor ride and how far does he walk?"

Letter to Mr. Henry Savage.

Dear Sir: What is lumber worth? "Depends on the lumber," you say—"what sort do you want?"

That's how some people talk about paint. They ask: "What'll you paint my house for?"

The Yankee answer is: "How do you want it painted? One coat? two coats? three coats? first-class or cheap?"

The proper answer is: "I want the best paint put on as it ought to be."

That's Devco; but the usual answer is: "I want a good job; but I want it cheap." Which means: "I want you to paint it for nothing. I want to be fooled."

Lead-and-oil is the costliest paint there is; not the best; it used to be best. Devco is best, since zinc came in: Devco lead-and-zinc.

Zinc toughens the lead and doubles its wear.
Zinc costs no more than lead; and we grind by machinery.
We have no patent on zinc; but nobody else is treating it right. Devco is your paint.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devco & Co.

Marriage of Dr. S. C. Zemp.

On Wednesday evening, May 17, 1905, there was a pretty home wedding on Fair street at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mitcham when their lovely young daughter, Miss Gertrude, was married to Dr. Sydney C. Zemp of Camden. Only the immediate family on both sides were present, making the ceremony all the more sacred, beautiful and impressive while the two young people go forth with the best wishes and congratulations of a host of friends. They have taken possession of their pretty new home on Boundary street where everything bright, attractive and convenient had been arranged by loving hands for their reception.
Dr. Zemp is a popular practicing physician and has for several years been Captain of the Kershaw Guards, whose record under his zealous care has been high and full of activity; Miss Mitcham a sweet, attractive young girl just budding into womanhood. As Dr. and Mrs. Zemp they take a prominent place in the community, and are members of one of the largest and best industrial family circles in Camden.

The Rev. C. C. Herbert, pastor of the Lytleton street Methodist Episcopal Church officiated at the beautiful marriage ceremony.
The home was tastefully decorated in palms and ferns, lilies and roses which were also beautifully displayed on the refreshment table around which the happy young couple's health and happiness was drunk.

Death of Mrs. J. W. McKain.
Mrs. J. W. McKain, of Columbia, died at the residence of Mr. F. D. Campbell, a few miles east of Camden, last Monday morning. She had not been well for a long time and came over about two weeks ago hoping that the change would do her good. Mrs. McKain was a sister of Mrs. F. D. Campbell. She was married in 1893 at Fort Mills and for one year after their marriage she and her husband lived in Richmond, Va., after which time they moved to Columbia, S. C., where they have resided ever since. Mrs. McKain leaves four children the youngest of whom is only 10 months old. Her remains were taken to Columbia on Tuesday morning for interment.

Death of Mrs. A. A. Moore, Jr., in New York City.

The sympathy of the entire community has been deeply touched during the past week when hearing of the critical illness of Dr. A. A. Moore's, Jr., young wife in New York and when the end of that beautiful life closed on Tuesday morning, the voice of the people was with one accord heard to express the sorrow which was universal here. Not only on account of the bereaved and devoted husband, not only grief at the cutting off of this happy, pure young life, but also for the beloved physician, Dr. A. A. Moore, Sr., and his wife, the tender mother, who has devoted her whole life in loving care of her children who has been as "the apple of her eye."
Dr. Albertus Moore was married only eight months ago to Miss Agnes Von Vredeburg, of Freehold, N. J. Together they had a most ideal wedding tour abroad and returned in time to spend the Thanksgiving season with their family here. Everyone was charmed with the grace, beauty and dignified cordiality of the charming young woman and she left behind the sweetest impression on all who met her.
Dr. Moore, Jr., was born and reared in our town and has the highest esteem of the community and the love of his manifold friends here. To each member of the afflicted family the sympathetic sorrow of all is offered with heartfelt sincerity.

From the New York Herald of Wednesday we take the following notice:
MOORE—In New York City, Tuesday, May 16, Agnes Ransome, wife of Dr. A. A. Moore, of New York City, and daughter of William H. and Bessie H. Vredeburg. Funeral from St. Peter's Church, Freehold, N. J., on Friday at 10 o'clock P. M. Interment at cemetery of Freehold.

Social Dots.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Mary Cauty entertained the Agoré Club on Kirkwood Heights at her parents' home with Miss Bessie Steedman of Hendersonville, N. C., as guest of honor. Miss Clara Krumbholz who is visiting Miss Cauty shared the honor of the evening and assisted in receiving the numerous guests. Six handed Euchre was enthusiastically enjoyed, Miss Bessie Jordan receiving the best prize. The evening was warm enough to make the delicious ices and other refreshments especially refreshing and delightful.
Mrs. Richard Y. Steedman gave a charming Euchre party on Wednesday afternoon assisted by her sister, Mrs. C. H. Zemp, with Miss Bessie Steedman as guest of honor. The color scheme was beautifully carried out in white, the score cards being decorated with hand painted fern and tied with green ribbons. The house was a mass of potted plants, ferns prevailing everywhere, while all the sweet white flowers of the season lent their fragrance and beauty to the scene.
