A Great Improvement.
 The public road from Camden to Holly Hill is being graded. This road is known to be one of the worst in the county, and the work being done there is a wonderful improvement.

May be Bought at a Bargain
 There is advertised in the Chronicle to-day a fine tract of land five miles south of Bethune for sale. The party owning it wants to dispose of it right away and the first applicant may get a great bargain. See ad.

Letter to Mr. W. E. Johnson.
 Dear Sir: There is endless discussion about barytes in paint. Perhaps this settles the question. Two houses exactly alike at Delhi N. Y. the owner of both is Mr. N. Avery. One was recently painted Devco; the other with a barytes paint; same painter did both jobs; his name is George Gilbert.

Quite a Success.
 The Japanese Tea given by the New Church Workers of the Baptist church at the residence of Mrs. F. S. Nettles, Jr., on Lytleton St. on the evening of the 19th, was quite a success, financially and socially. The Japanese scheme was carried out in costumes and decorations including the symbolic tea table. The large crowd in attendance enjoyed very much the amusements provided for their entertainment. The candy table presented quite an attractive appearance, presided over by Mrs. A. E. Crane and little Miss Julia Crane, a veritable Jap; both wore the Japanese costume and the lovely baskets of homemade candy were quickly sold. The "Famous Soenoe" a tasteful entertained booth presided over by Mrs. E. S. Nettles was very extensively patronized and was a source of great enjoyment. The grand time was much in evidence and the younger portion of the crowd seemed as eager for the second part as the first; all seemed delighted with their success at grabbing the delicious, the successful contest was awarded a handsome prize. As the evening wore on, the tea cream was served, and all seemed to enjoy it. The ladies were very much interested in their success at grabbing the delicious...

Social Dots.

The gaiety of the past week has been almost entirely monopolized by the College girls and boys who are returning this week to their duties elsewhere. One of the most delightful meets of the Riding Club was held by flashlight on Friday evening when twenty-four young people with their chaperones all mounted on horseback enjoyed a two hours race to Point Hill and through the woods to Mulberry and up again through Main street and all around town and Kirkwood. They then adjourned to the hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. Corbett where Miss Alice Corbett was hostess to her young friends. Ice cream and other dainties were very refreshing to the joyous crowd.

Miss Honor Lang who is with her relatives in Kirkwood on a visit, is receiving a cordial welcome from her many friends here.
 Mr. J. Blakeney Zemp left on Tuesday for Virginia to attend a course of study at the Bethel Military Institute.
 Mr. Sidney Smith of the Charleston Baseball team is in Camden with his family here.
 Mr. John Stevens of Kershaw spent several days this week here.

Mr. E. M. Hendrix.
 See the ad. of Mr. E. M. Hendrix in another column of the Chronicle to-day. Mr. Hendrix occupies a store opposite Mr. Joe Sheheen's and carries a nice line of groceries, etc. Call and see him.

A New Business For Camden.
 The Diamond Fruit and Produce Company (wholesale and retail) has opened up a line of goods in the building just north of the Dispensary. They will sell you 5 cts worth or one hundred dollars worth.

Whitaker & Burnett.
 Your attention is called to the advertisement in this issue of The Chronicle of Whitaker & Burnett. These progressive young men are fully abreast of the times, and to be "in it," you will have to trade with Whitaker & Burnett.

Escape And Capture of a Convict.
 Frank Cauthen, colored, escaped from the chain gang near Green's bridge early yesterday morning. As soon as the fact became known a search was commenced and before midday he was captured a few miles above Camden.

Bought The Bakery Also.
 Mr. John K. McDowell announces today that he has bought out the bakery as well as the grocery business of Mr. W. M. Young. Mr. McDowell will have an experienced baker and he will give his customers unsurpassed service in this line.

Library Meeting.
 On Monday, Oct. 2, there will be a meeting of Board of Directors for the Camden Library. At this meeting the resignation of the present librarian will be tendered, and a new librarian elected. Anyone desiring this position will please send in a written application. Remember the meeting, Oct. 2, 5 P. M. at the Camden Library. The new librarian will take charge about the 15th of October.

Returned to Camden.
 Mr. and Mrs. Mannes Baum who have been spending the summer in New York returned home last Friday and are receiving the cordial greetings of their many friends here who are delighted to see them again. The trip has been very beneficial to them both. We are glad to note that our highly esteemed old friend, Mr. Baum, is looking as well as he did fifteen years ago, he having gained ten pounds during his recent absence.

A Loss to Camden.
 As will be seen by a notice elsewhere in The Chronicle to-day a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Camden Library will be held on Oct. 2 for the purpose of electing a new librarian. This is made necessary by the recent decision of Miss Louise Nettles to make her home in Chester. No librarian has ever been more devoted to the work, or rendered more faithful service than Miss Nettles, and her going to Chester is a distinct loss to Camden.

Miss Sarah Wolfe Entertains.
 Little Miss Sarah Wolfe was "at home" to a large number of her little friends on last Monday afternoon from 4 to 7. The occasion was in honor of her birthday, though coming a little late, as she with her parents was north at that time. The amusements were varied and the children enjoyed them to the fullest extent. Little Miss Nancy Lindsey winning the prize for "spinning on the donkey stall." The table was beautiful laden with every delicacy—the handsome birthday cake brilliantly lighted with six candles was a beautiful feature of the occasion.

Mrs. Bertha Kohn, of Orangeburg, spent Saturday here with her sister, Mrs. Gus Hirsch.
 Mr. R. K. Tenant has recently paid a very pleasant visit to his son at Birmingham, Ala.
 Mrs. Chas. Shannon returned to Camden Tuesday night after a stay at Clifton Springs, N. Y.

Miss Cora Carrison, after an extended visit to Europe, returned to Camden Thursday morning.
Rev. J. B. Holly Called to Church.
 Augusta Chronicle, 18th inst.
 Rev. J. B. Holly, of Bamberg, S. C., was last night unanimously called by the Second Baptist church to fill the vacancy in its pastorate caused by the resignation of Rev. O. P. Gilbert, who left Sept. 1st to take charge of the First Baptist church at Americus, Ga.

Since the resignation of Mr. Gilbert the officials of the church have been quietly seeking a worthy successor to the former pastor and one who would be entirely satisfactory to the people. They have been very deliberate about the matter, considering the names of many good men but the many flattering reports about Mr. Holly finally led them to invite him to make them a visit and preach for them.

The gentleman from Bamberg came to the city last Sunday and delivered two able and eloquent sermons. So favorable was the impression created on the congregation by him and his wife, who is pronounced a most charming woman, that at the conference called last night especially for that purpose, he was unanimously and enthusiastically named as pastor of the church.

It was practically certain beforehand that Mr. Holly would accept the nomination which would be tendered him and he will come to this city as soon as he can arrange his affairs at Bamberg, although so great is his popularity with his present charge that they have steadfastly decided they will not give him up.

Mr. Holly is still a young man, although he is married and has a family. Already he is known as one of the strongest and most consecrated young ministers of the Baptist church in South Carolina. He has been connected with a number of religious periodicals, having formerly edited a Baptist paper in Jacksonville, Fla. He is a college graduate and a man of wide information, as well as an able pulpit orator. The people of the Second Baptist church are...
