CAMDEN, S. C., APRIL 20, 1906

Visitors say that nowhere in their travels have they found a more beautiful little city than Camden.

The enterprising merchants here who are printing talk liberally and gradually extending Camden's trading area and helping new buyers to their stores.

San Francisco has suffered one of the most dramatic reversals in American history. The city which was once a great center of wealth and power is now a city of poverty and despair.

It is a knock-out blow to the pride of the city and to the pride of the people. The city which was once a great center of wealth and power is now a city of poverty and despair.

From Our Correspondents

Mr. Editor—As it has been quite a while since I have seen any news from this community in your paper, though I would send you a few lines.

The farmers are busy at work planting their crops. I am sure that they are planting later than usual this year.

Miss Alice Dean and Mr. Joe White of the Bell are visiting at the home of Mrs. J. N. Dean.
