Rev. F. A. Holtzhausen
The above named gentleman has been in Camden for about two weeks and has preached several sermons which were highly elevating and instructive. He has also delivered several lectures. His lecture on Martin Luther at the Court House last night was a gem and pity it is that so many more were not present. Mr. Holtzhausen will always find a warm welcome in Camden for him.

The Great Disaster in San Francisco Prof. Buckley will appear at the Opera House in Camden on July 4th with his moving pictures, showing San Francisco before the earthquake and also showing the city while it was burning. The pictures were taken during the fire and show vividly the scenes that were enacted during that awful period.

The moving pictures will be followed with a vaudeville exhibition that captures the audience. The sitting of Miss Pearl Prescott attracts every one.

Corner Stone To Be Laid
The corner stone of the new Bethel Church at Antioch is to be laid some time within the next few weeks, the exact date of which will be given later. Mt. Zion, Cedar Creek, Mt. Olivet and other Churches which have sprung from Antioch will be requested to deposit their contributions in the corner stone.
The stone will be laid with masonic ceremonies and the lodges from Camden, Bishopville, Manville and Smithville will be invited to be present. On the same day of the laying of the corner stone the monument to the memory of Rev. J. E.
Edgers will be unveiled, and altogether it will be a great day in the history of Antioch. The people of Antioch deserve great credit for the advancement they have made.

Wanted His Three Square Meals I was talking some time ago with a well-armed ex-Confederate soldier of Chester county. He had said that day about seventy halves of cotton and was very "flush" and in a talkative humor. He related some of his thrilling war experiences related at length how he suffered for want of food three or four days once. "Was nearly starved." "And," said he with emphasis, "the checks I had with me were raised, and I promised my God if ever I got over this starvation, if ever I lived and prospered." (Here I anticipated what was coming, that he would support an orphanage, or give so much a year to the poor and needy, or endow an institution of the church, but so.) "I promised my God if ever I lived and got home and prospered I would always have my three square meals a day till I died."

Colored Base Ball
June 22 and 23 Camden played Railroad Base Ball. Score 1st day 10 to 5 in favor of Camden; 2nd day 7 to 4 in favor of visitors. It was published in the State that Railroad Base Ball won both games and to rule out some of our bats, but the above score will show that they didn't win both games, neither did they rule out any bats—they were glad to use ours as they had nothing but one old mask and breast protector. Camden has played Columbia 7 games and won 5—5—house
