No Smallpox.

A report was current on Wednesday that two cases of smallpox had developed in Camden, having been brought here by the carnival people. Inquiring at police headquarters elicited the information that the report was utterly unfounded.

Ten Days Longer.

Owing to the wonderful success which has attended the graduate sale at the store of Hirsch Bros. & Co., the sale will be extended ten days longer. This will be good news for the purchasing public who will make good use of the remaining ten days in which to secure bargains.

A Suggestion For Alderman.

Mr. Editor:—We wish to suggest Mr. E. C. von Tresekow for Alderman from Ward 6, that place having been made vacant by the resignation of Senator W. R. Hough. Mr. von Tresekow is progressive and we trust he will consent to run Taxpayer.

Rev. Mr. Cooper Becomes State Evangelist.

Special to The State.
Johnston, Jan. 25.—Rev. L. A. Cooper has resigned his position as pastor of the Baptist church, to take effect Feb. 15. Mr. Cooper now becomes the State evangelist for South Carolina. Although he is no longer in active work here yet he will not remove his family.

AN INVALUABLE WORK.

"Life and Sayings of Sam Jones," Edited by His Widow.

The people of the United States, who knew the late Sam Jones as an unexcelled evangelist and pulpit orator, will be glad to learn that his life and sayings are to be made imperishable in the form of a volume that will be published by J. L. Nichols & Co., of Atlanta early in December.

A few days after the funeral of the great evangelist Mr. A. N. Jenkins, president of Nichols & Co., in company with Mr. J. L. Turner, of the Turner-Franklin Printing Company, went to Cartersville and a contract was entered into to push the work to completion at the earliest practical moment. The work is under the supervision of Mrs. Jones, who is assisted by the Rev. Walt Holcome, the evangelist's co-worker for a number of years and closest friend, together with a corps of trained writers and compilers.

We are giving free $7.50 worth of ware at our store next week. See advertisement in this paper.

2nd grade.—Gertrude Kason.
3rd grade.—Sallie Belle Gardner, Louie Whittaker.
4th grade.—Mary Roshorough, Edward Roshorough, Karl Roshorough, Lawrence Whittaker, Willie Gardner.

PERSONAL.

We are sorry to learn that Rev. W. G. Cabot is quite sick.

Miss Mary Cantey is visiting Mrs. Edwin Heyward in Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Belton Boykin, of Charleston, are visiting friends in Camden.

Miss Ida DeLoache, of Yorkville, is spending the winter with Mrs. Bratton DeLoache.

Mrs. G. E. Bateman, of Camden, is visiting her parents, Col. and Mrs. L. C. Hough, at Kershaw, S. C.

Mrs. Shipley with her son and daughter and Miss Barry, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. Robert Kennedy.

Mr. Gus Hirsch will leave next Sunday for the Northern markets for the purchase of his spring and summer goods.

Miss Callie Garetton, who has been connected with the uptown offices of the Seaboard as stenographer for some time, has given up her position and gone to Atlanta.—State.

The many friends of Mr. A. D. Kennedy are delighted to see him at home again and to know that he was greatly benefited by his recent trip to Florida.
