Primary Election Notice.

With approval of such members of the County Executive Committee as could be reached on short notice, a primary election for the selection of a candidate for Probate Judge of Kershaw County, is hereby ordered to be held on Thursday the 21st day of March, 1907. Candidates must file a pledge and Five ($5.00) Dollars assessment with the County Chairman not later than a o'clock P. M. Saturday, March 16th inst. The Executive Committee will also meet at Camden on Saturday, March 23rd to canvass returns. The managers who served in the General Primary last Summer are requested to act in this election. List of same will be published next week.

Thos. J. Kirkland, Chairman Co. Dem. Com.

Unless you advertise how do the people know that you are in business and want their trade? Most people make up their minds where they are going to trade before they leave home. Had you ever thought of this?

John D. Rockett, the old man who, it is said, is the oldest man in the world, passed through Columbia on the Southern railroad on Tuesday. He was on his way to visit his daughter in Augusta, Ga.

The dispensary was reopened as business yesterday.

Woman's Handwork

As District Superintendent of the State Federation of Women's Clubs I have been requested to receive specimens of women's handwork from the following churches: St. Peter, Chesterfield, Church of the Epiphany, Lancaster, Kershaw and York, to an exhibit at the State Federation and later to be sent to the S. C. exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition. I shall be glad to communicate with ladies from said churches having such articles.

Mrs. J. S. Boyd, Chester, S. C.

AN INVALUABLE WORK.

"Life and Savings of Sam Jones," Edited by His Widow.

The people of the United States who knew the late Sam Jones as an unexcelled evangelist and pulpit orator, will be glad to learn that his life and sayings are to be made imperishable in the form of a volume that will be published by J. L. Nichols & Co., of Atlanta, early in December.

A few days after the funeral of the great evangelist Mr. A. N. Jenkins, president of Nichols & Co., in company with Mr. J. L. Nichols, of the Turner-Franklin Printing Company, went to Cambridge and a contract was entered into to prepare the work to completion at the best practical moment. This work is under the supervision of Mr. Sam Jones, who is assisted by the Rev. Walt Holcomb, the evangelist's co-worker for a number of years and closest friend, together with a group of trained writers and compositors.

"The Life and Savings of Sam Jones" contains over 100 pages, with fifty full page illustrations. Half morocco $3.50; cloth, $2.50; edition de luxe, $5.00. Express prepaid. Agents everywhere.
