CAMDEN, S. C., APRIL 25, 1907

Appeal for China

President R. Roosevelt has expressed his profound sympathy for the 15,000,000 famine sufferers in China, and has invited the American people to contribute a fund to be applied to relief work.

There is an appeal for famine in China. The famine is a terrible thing, and it is a terrible thing to see 15,000,000 people suffering from lack of food.
