To Add Business Course To High School.

The propriety of adding a business course to the Camden High School is being considered. The idea is an excellent one and we hope to see it safely carried through.

Bell-Smith

Special to The State. Camden, Oct. 27.—Thursday evening, October 24, at the home of the bride's mother, in Kershaw county, Capt. Joseph J. Bell and Miss Mary Ella Smith were united in marriage, Rev. C. C. Herbert of Camden officiating. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was becomingly decorated in wild and cultivated smilax. A most sumptuous wedding supper was served. The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. Henry Smith, whose hospitable home is near Ebenzer Methodist church

At The Presbyterian Church.

For several days this week services have been held at the Camden Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. Keff Smith, of Georgia. Mr Smith was invited here with the view of extending to him a call to the pastorate of the Church. It is not yet known whether the church will extend the call or not. Mr. Smith is an excellent preacher and made a most favorable impression upon all who heard him.

Rev. Mr. Hope, of Chester, will preach in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, the 3rd. Mr. Hope is a missionary to Japan.

The new pews in the Presbyterian church add much to the comfort and appearance of the church.

Death of Mr. Paul McDowell.

After a long illness Mr. Paul McDowell died last Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock. Mr. McDowell was a most excellent young man and the end of his life was as peaceful as a Summer day. Not for him be our tears, but rather let us crown his grave with flowers, for he gave to his loved ones the comforting assurance that with him "all was well." Deceased was a son of the late Mr. J. E. G. McDowell and leaves surviving him four sisters and one brother—Mrs. V. D. Campbell, Mrs. H. Tidwell, Mrs. John Lewis, of Camden, Mrs. M. McCarry, of ... C. ...

James McDowell, of Camden. The funeral services were conducted at Malvern Church at 11 o'clock on Sunday by Rev. J. J. Workman.

The streets of Camden presented this week quite a deserted appearance. Cause—everybody gone to the State fair.

Kershaw County Baptist Association.

Bethune, Oct. 28th, 1907.

The Kershaw County Baptist Association held its eighth annual session with the Bethany Baptist Church of Westville on the 18th, 19th and 20th of October. Eighteen churches compose this body and sixteen of them were represented by delegates or letters.

Furman University was represented by Dr. E. M. Potest; the Orphanage, A. T. Jamison; State Missions, W. T. Daireux, and the Baptist Courier by J. K. Hair. All these representatives made fine speeches and added much to the interest of the Association.

This was one of the best of all the Associations we have ever attended. The ministers of our Association turned out in full force and took a great deal of interest in the discussions of the various subjects. I must say that the good people of Westville opened their hospitable homes to us and made us feel as though we were leaving a better home than this. To attend an Association at Westville seems to me to be most desirable. Your writer spent one night in the beautiful home of our Mother-in-law, Mrs. J. K. Hair, and the gracious
