Commencement Exercises Cam den Graded Schools

The commencement exercises were held in the opera house Wedread by Superintendent R. M. Kennedy, was an extremely gratifying one. There were six graduates, Misses Nannie Hough, Nan Trantham, Elizabeth DuBose and Helen Phelps and Messrs Paul Schenk, James Blakeney and Dorts Mitcham The commencement address, which was an excellent one, was delivered by the Rev. H. H. Covington, of Sumter.

The final exercises were held last night. The first part of the program was the debate by Paul Schenk, Doris Mitcham, James Blakeney and Robt Pinckney. The medal was awarded the latter.

The songs and recitations by the smaller ones were especially pretty and showed careful training. The entertainment was more than good.
