 Died in Jacksonville Fla. Aug.
 17th, at the home of her sister, of Camden. For three years she had taught in the Graded School of that place and by her strength of character and sweetness of disposition won the love and admiration of all who knew her. Last Spring her health became so bad that she was compelled to resign her position and went to Florida in the hope that she might be benefited, but death had marked her for his own, and surrounded by her devoted mother, sister and brother, she peacefully passed away in the bloom of young womanhood, loved and mourned by all who knew her. To the stricken family we tender sin-

A Plan For Our Beautiful Shade Trees
 Editor Chronicle—
 Dear Sir—Please allow me space in your column to call attention to a plan in which the beautiful shade trees are being damaged and destroyed by the cutting of the roots and supporting roots in laying out connections.
 I have recently witnessed the cutting of all roots on one side of a beautiful tree. This tree will be completely dead in a few weeks and will be replaced by a tree of a different kind.
 It is our duty to allow our beautiful shade trees to be destroyed. I feel sure that the proper authorities will properly protect these trees and the purpose of this is to call attention to it and thereby secure the needed protection.

 The meeting at Abney was held

 All listened attentively and every introduction and hearing. The meeting was presided over by Judge H. W. Sutton and Mr. Elmore Brown jointly.

At Bethune.
 The campaign was at Bethune yesterday. This beautiful tained her reputation as being one of the very best places in the county. The comfort and pleasure of each candidate was carefully looked after and every one made to feel at home. Places were provided for their entertainment and all came away feeling glad that they had been to Bethune. The candidates for Congress were present and spoke in the afternoon.

There will be a meeting to night near the Pine Creek Mill, one at the Court house tomorrow and one
