PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

W. L. MODOWELI

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One year, $1.50, six months, 75 cents; three months, 40 cents. Business locals, 5 cents per line each in Oandidates' Cards for County offices $5.00. Congressional $10.00. Communications will be published when of interest to the general public and not of a defamatory nature. No responsibility will be assumed for the views of correspondents.

Newspapers the Best Protection the People Have.

A correspondent of the New York mand for what is lawful and just partment for 1906; and thus creating public opinion and the people of a city could friend an honest, true, upright man County. has is an honest, true, upright newspaper .- Ohio State Journal.

Goodbye.

Goodbye is a hard word to speak. Some may laugh that it should be, ed many an utterance, and started we are out on the ocean of timewe go to meet again, where? God only knows. It may be soon, it may be never. Take care that your goodbye be not a cold one-it may be the last one you can give.

Capt Smith For Governor

Among the political predictions made in Columbia last week was brilliant doctors. date in 1910 for Governor on the prohibition ticket.

country is a queer one.

GOOD ROADS CONVENTION.

Richards And Smith.

that if we were honored by the three of Weilington's generals. Democratic voters with the nomina | Mrs. Reid's early days were passed tion for the House of Represents tives, we would issue a call for a personages. mass meeting of our white citizens and formulating some plan whereby in our public highways and the Gerald Reid, recently deceased. present system of maintaining the nomination, for which we not only ing not only beautiful, but culturfeel deeply grateful, but shall earn had every school advantage procurestly and conscientionsly endeavor able at that time and place, also to show our gratitude by our works the opportunities of new York. She and loyalty to the peoples' interest, was specially noted for her delicate, we hereby call a convention of our exquisite complexion, and for that Supervisor, Township Commission. reason on one occasion, when she class and all other persons who are n the least interested in the sub the Casket." Another time the late the Casket." Another time the late county Treasurer from October 18th, 1908, to he held in the county Treasurer from October 18th, 1908, to March 18th, 1908

The Camden Chronicle this time. Nothing can more defi a cousin, a general in the Northern informed and has made a careful study of the subject, says:

"The construction of good roads eading from a market town has practically the same effect as bringng the farms nearer to the town. It extends by several miles in every direction the area of territory in which farmers can profitably engage in mar ket gardening and dairying. That EATES FOR ADVERTISING:—Ordinary this is true has been effectively demonstrated in those localities in the Southern States and in other section 50 cents per square. tions of the country where road improvements have been carried out intelligently and systematically.

The cost to the farmer of hauling his products over poor roads is not A correspondent of the New 1 of always appreciated, for the reason years she was a successful teacher, that it is rare that a farmer pays for and received a fisttering offer from imposition, noise and failure of the baying his hauling done. The Uni- the Moravian College at Salem. city government to do its full duty ted States Department of Agricul- which declining health prevented by the people, closes his letter with ture has made an investigation of her accepting. But she then sacrithese words: "Decent, law abid this matter, however, and the results fixed like other noble ones, all pering people would hardly have the to be an average rate of twenty sevpriviledge of existing here if it en cents per ton per mile for an avwere not for the newspapers." That crage haul of 11.8 miles. That road points, but the lofty, fine effort is doubtless true. The newspapers improvement would materially reduce this cost is shown by the folare in advance of the government, lowing striking statement in the national, state or city, in their de Year book of the Agricultural De-

'If it were possible to increase the have been enabled to secure for the cotton in the United States from sterotyped conventionalism when people more blessings than they three bales, as it now is, to four occasion arose, for she was a true would otherwise enjoy. The news bales, without increasing the cost of papers have their faults; but count hanling the load, the saving on a ing all these in, they are the best would amount to $2,000,000; and if protection the people have. They the average load of wheat, now 55 are a police force, medical corps, bushels, were increased by 20 bushpublic service board, city council, els, the saving effected in hauling a board of education, all combined, than $8,000,000 " its success will depend largely upon a happier world. There is no vanity about this its representative currector. If you whatever. There is logic all have a plan, or have given the mat. phere, between her church and through it. The press leads, in ter any consideration, come and give God Sawith heart-breakings from forms, inspires public opinion, and us the benefit of your ideas. Your the human side, tempered by a dewithout this invigorating influence plan may be the very thing we want. sire to be reconciled to the will of back of authority it wouldn't a Though you live in the remote parts the Creator, her loved ones have mount to punk. It is not a news of the County you will only lose one laid her to rest believing that "lenpaper that says decent, law abid-day. In view of the importance of gthesed breath is not the sweetest ing people could hardly exist if it the occasion and its intense interest, that sometimes the sable pall of were not for the newspapers-it is we hope to see one of the largest, death conceals the fairest bloom an intelligent citizen who sees and most representative and public spir His love can send," but on her knows what is going on. The best ited gatherings in the history of our grave, and in memory, they will

Jno. G. Richards, Jr. Mendel L Smith.

Nominces House of Representatives

Tribute to Mrs. J S. Meroney.

Holly Hill, Oct. 31 .- Mrs. John but let them. Icy hearts are never S. Meroney, whose maiden name kind. It is a word that has chok. was Katherine E. Reid, was born 19, 1838, and [died at "Holly Hill," her home, near Chieng. many a tear. The hand is clasped, Camden, October 21, 1908; was the word is spoken, we part, and buried in Golumbia on the 23:d. On every side she was of genuine aristocratic lineage ... ntirely European-all branches of her ancestry bore a coat of arms, as the "College of Heraldry" shows.

Her father, who had tuled relatives, left his beloved Ireland for political reasons in the early part of the last century. The Ladwich branch of his family is epocially distinguished for generations of The "Ledwich one to the effect that Mr. M. L. Medical co lege" of Dublin was es Smith of Camden would be a caudi- tablished 100 years ago, having at one time more medical sindence present it is known as the 'Royal In the election on Tuesday Taft College of Surgross, Carm, he's and was elected, of course—a ventable Ledwich Schools ' His wife, Mes landslide for the Republicans, This C. E. Rent, an Episcopalian convert to Catho icism, was born in 1819 at "Cratletown House," Col. Office of Treasurer of Kershaw County bridge, the superb home of Lady Laure Lonnox Conclive daughter of the Duke of Rich-Call Issued By Representatives ters, Caroline, first Lade Helland, and Emily, Dutchess of Lein-To The People of Kershaw County: Pet family was Law Small Lunex. In the recent compaign in this make Queen of England. She af-County we stated at each meeting terwards became the mother of among these and even more noted

She and her bushand finally set. tled in Charleston long before the Railroad taxes who were interested in good roads. Civil war, were slave owners and in with a view of having a full and free sympathy with their adopted home, discussion of this great question giving two sons to the "Lost Cause," Oscar John Daly Reid, who went we hoped to work an improvement the last battles, and Walter Fitz-

Mrs. Meroney was their eldest child, and when young was a popu-Having been honored with the lar society belle to Charleston, bewas chosen to christen a gunboat, tion of our people can be called at Onto relatives. Two prothers and nitely contribute to their industrial army, fought against him. His onand social welfare than good roads | Iv relatives in South Carolina well In a recent communication to one the wife of Dr. Augustus Fitch in of our papers in this state, Mr. W. Charlescon. Mrs. Pulmer, after-W. Finley, President of the South- wards Mrs. Meroney, devoted her ern Railway Company, who is well mind, time and pures to the cause, and no lady in Charleston gave more freely of berself at the hospit-

Her second marriage was to Mr. Jno. S Meroney, son of Cal John Alexander Meroney of North Caroling, whose direct line is a long oue, besides the authentic history of the O'Meroney clan and territory that dates as far back as the year 1014

Like hosts through the South, Mrs. Meroney, and others very dear to her, experienced reverses after the war. She bore them bravely, B H Baum, sup though pufitted by nature, desire J M Carson Co., sup and a frail constitution to cope with the world; fortunately she had little of this to do. For some show the cost for cotton, for instance sonal feelings and made, a public but successful venture totally unsuited to her from all standaised ber as it will any woman, to the pedestal of a beroine in the minds of all who are really worth while. To her generous and sympathetic heart a number of poor girls owe their happiness in tife. ard broad woman-not a superfi cial character obstructing the Di darkness of earth, waiting only for mediums

Many acts of noble charity are to her credit. This, with the patient suffering through long, weary years of invalidism and the intense agony We want everybody who can to of the past two months, have gainbetter lose these than the namepa be present at the meeting because ed for her a glorious awakening in

Her body lies in an hely atmoskeep blooming forget-me-nots and immortelles to speak to her and to them in symbolic language until shortly at heat, they will see her dear, dear face-

"Not changed, but glorified!" Mrs. Meroney is survived by her husband, one brother and five child ren, Clinton Ward Palmer, of South America, two sone and two daughters by the second marriage; also a grandson, Dr. Palmer Keller, of 5,000 Acres Of Land For Sale.

Five thousand acres of land for aale four miles South of the town of Kershaw From Southern Railroad East to Lynches Creek; from Lynch es Creek on both sides of the Lock heart Road to the Lockboort old field Will sell from (100) one hun dred acres up to suit purchasers

L L CLYBURN. Oct. 30th. Kaib. S C

In accordance with the Act to raise supplies for the fiscal year commencing January 1st, 1908, notice is hereby given org State, county and school taxes from October 15, 1908, to March 15th, 1909. A all taxes unpaid by January 1st, 1909. A penalty of two per cent on all unpaid by Feb. 1st. 1909. A penalty of seven per cent will be added on all unpaid March 15th, 1909 county is as follows 5 1-2 3 1-4 Court House Bo

14 3-4 The tollowing special levies have been Special School tax, District No. 1. for interest on School Bonds Graded School Building. M

The road tax of two

SUPERVISOR'S MONTH-LY REPORT

The following is a list of claims approv ed and ordered paid at the regular month y meeting held Monday, Nov. 2, 1908:

L Williams, work at c h

W Dabney, supt roor house Schrock, adv, and sta, abon, supplies South, supplier lenry Savag , sup C Gos Co., tents L Hinson, supplies H L Schloshbug, sup 1. Mohr & Sons, convict clothing. Lorick & Lowrance, sup D Kennedy, sup E Alford road work Fred Eli, road word ames Duren, road work 4 50 141 10 E Muon, Supt chain gang 82 45 D M McCaskill, salary and post Richard Price, salary D P C Murchison, salary 12 50 W B Turner, sal and postage M C West, sal and postage ewis & Christmas, supplies

O M Fort, building flat M. C. WEST. Supervisor Kershaw County.

Burns & Barrett, sup

L Smyrl, rd wk

L M Stokes, election boxes

D J Graham, building bridge

pringe & Shannon, supplies John Mickle, lumber

Leslie Zemp, medicine

For Rent.

Three furnished rooms-bed oom, kitchen and dining room. Apply to Camden Store.

JEWELRY,

WATCHES. DIAMONDS, STERLING SILVER,

CUT GLASS,

in all the lines, of all new and absolutely beautiful goods Come in whenever you have an opportunity, and take a look at the new designs in all lines, and remember we only handle solid and genuine goods If not convenient to come in, send us your mail or der, which always has our per sonal attention, with a guarantee to please. Always glad 57 00 to see you at SYLVAN BROS, Jewelers, Silversmiths And Opticions, Corner Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia, S. C.

Colored State Fair.

67 16 To the Colored Farmers of South Carolina: We invite you to the Colored Fair which meets in Columbia, Morday, Nov. 9th to Friday Nov. 13th Phere will be special lectures at the grounds each day by prominent white and colored citizens, including the Governor of South Carolina. There will be side shows and the like. There will be exhibits of farm products, cattle, hogs, poul try, etc. Come to the Fair. Re duced rates will be granted on a railroads in South Carolina leading to Columbia. Ask of your agent a Colored State Fair Ticket.

Richard Carroll, President.

Our stocks are now complete

The Atlanta Journal's

Hirsch Brothers & Co. are preparing to slaughter the biggest stock of Merchandise ever thrown on a Camden market. Beginning November 12th and continuing to November 25th. We will establish a new low level of prices. If you don't get your share of these bargains it will be your own fault. COME!

HIRSCH BROS & CO.

Are You One of the 215 to Share In The Magnificient Prizes?

$30,000 Prize Contest

In addition to the Capital Prizes of $3,500 in gold and $1,500.00 in gold offered for the person who receives the highest and next highest votes in The Atlanta Journal Contest, the following prizes are offered in this district.

KNOWN AS GRAND PRIZE DISTRICT, D.

The states of Alabama, Florida, South Carolina and North Carolina.

A Magnificient Automobile Touring Car

And in this district exclusively, composed of the following territory, known in the Contest as:

Sub District D, No. 3 South Carolina

The Following Prizes 1st. An Upright Piano.

2nd. A Business College Scholarship in any of Draughon's Colleges.

3rd. A Beautiful Art Lamp. 4th. A Game Set of Dishes. 5th. A Fish Set of Dishes.

write

In addition, Diamond Rings, and Solid Gold Watches are offered as special prizes during the Contest.

Any, or all, of these can be had in this District. If you would enter the Contest at once, and

The Atlanta Journal

Contest Department For full particulars, do this right now!