Sure Road to Success

Here is one business man's New Year's resolution which will undoubtedly lead to success:

Early to bed, early to rise-Work like thunder and advertise -Ex.

Sweet Old Age

The aweetest thing in the world is a grandfather or a grandmother who has come into the sunset land unembittered. The man or woman who has passed through the furnace fires of life and emerged into the cool of the evening unsoured and still attuned to optimism and gladness, has made a success of living. He or she has not lost faith in mankind nor confidence in the upward trend of humanity. To sit sat the feet of such an individual and drink in phylosophy is a pleasure that only those appreciate who have been forced into the companionship of the disgruntled and the pessimistic. Nothing is quite so sweet as sweet old age - Sel.

Waste Wood to be Utilized

The discovery has been made that the best of alcohol can be made from saw dust and other waste wood. This is described as a "revolutionary discovery" in view of the enormous use of alcohol.

For lighting purposes it is admit. ted to be brighter, sefer, cleaner and more desirable in every way than kerosene as a fuel it competes successfully with garmine. coal, wood or any present known in the kitchen cooking stove and in the locomotive tender; it lights drawing rooms and drives automo-
