Calling for General Floyd
Mr. Editor:—An onlooker wishes to ask if the right man is out for the Legislature yet? Where is General Floyd? Onlooker.

New Announcements.
The following new announcements appear in the Chronicle today:
J. B. Munn—Magistrate Buffalo Township.
Dr. E. F. Horton—Commissioner Flat Rock Township.

Graduated.
It is with most sincere and hearty congratulations to Miss Elizabeth Trantham, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. J. S. Trantham, that we announce her graduation at Winthrop this week. Winthrop is one of the best schools in the land and a diploma from that institution stands for something. Winthrop is doing a great work. The good it does every year through the young ladies sent out to bless, brighten and uplift, the world is inestimable.

To The R. E. D. Carriers of Kershaw County
The R. E. D. carriers of Kershaw County are requested to meet at the Chronicle office on Saturday night the 25th inst., at 9 o'clock for the transaction of business pertaining to the good of the R. E. D. Association. This call is made at the instance of Mr. D. R. Fletcher, of Kershaw, and it is earnestly requested that every carrier without a single exception be on hand.

Entertainment by Blind Young Ladies
In the Sunday School room of the Baptist Church last night there was an entertainment of more than ordinary interest which consisted of music and recitations by three blind ladies—Miss Copeland and the Misses Baker. Their performance was simply remarkable. Quite a good crowd was present and the contributions amounted to something over $20.00. These are splendid young ladies and they deserve all the encouragement and aid they can get as they are making an honest effort to complete their education. We wish them Godspeed.

MEETING OF D. A. R.
The Daughters of the American Revolution held their June meeting with the Regent, Mrs. H. G. Carrison, on Broad Street.
After the usual routine business, committees were formed for the work during the new chapter year; and Mrs. S. R. Adams and Mrs. M. A. Shannon appointed to compile the year books.
The Regent read an address by the State Regent Mrs. Mayes of Greenville, S. C., written after the session of the Continental Congress at Washington, D. C. in April, which proved both interesting and helpful, as it told of the changes in the Constitution, and new enactments which are made each year. The Chapter regrets exceedingly that in regard to the membership roll, it was decided at this Congress, that no one could be a member of a Chapter if the lives fifty miles distant.
The Registrars of the different Chapters will take this work up immediately and notify Associate members.
Mrs. M. A. Shannon was unanimously elected Corresponding Secretary for the Chapter.
Dainty refreshments were served after which the meeting adjourned until Sept. 1st, 1910.

Wilds-McCreight.
Our highly esteemed friend and former fellow-townsman, Mr. Harry McCreight, was married on Wednesday last week in Columbia where he is now residing. From the State of last Sunday we take the following notice:
At noon on Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wilder, in Eau Claire, was solemnized the marriage of their daughter, Miss Anna Taylor Wilder, to Harry Whitely McCreight, Dr. G. A. Blackburn, pastor of the Arsenal Hill Presbyterian Church, officiating. The wedding was characterized by simplicity in all its details, the bride being attended only by a maid of honor, her sister, Miss Mamie Wilder, who was gowned in white lingerie, carrying sweet peas, and entered the drawing room immediately preceding the bride and groom who came in together. The bride was charming in a modish traveling suit of natural colored rajah silk, with touches of gold and blue, worn with a straw hat trimmed with a dash of blue. The house was decorated in masses of white and pale pink oleanders, two drawing rooms and the hall being thrown open to the hundred guests present for the ceremony and the informal reception following. Fees were handed after the young couple had received the congratulations of the guests.
Mr. and Mrs. McCreight left on the afternoon train for Asheville, where they are spending a week at the Battery Park hotel before coming to Columbia to make their home. Mr. McCreight is a member of the business staff of The State, and is held in high esteem by his office associates and by his many friends in Columbia. The bride is a charming, cultured young woman, the center of a wide circle of friends and admirers. Two brothers of the bride—Dr. Harry Wilder of New York and Rev. Louis Wilder, a recent graduate of the Theological Seminary in this city—were here for the wedding.—State 1210.

"A Great Convention."
Under the above caption the Anderson Daily Mail gives a very interesting account of the Convention of the South Carolina League of Building & Loan Associations held at Anderson, S. C., on the 8th and 9th of June, 1910. The opening session of the Convention was held at Bessie Vista Park and addresses of welcome were made by Mr. Ligon, President of one of Anderson's local Building & Loan Associations, and by Mr. Sherard, Mayor of the City. These addresses of welcome were responded to by Mr. F. H. McMaster of Columbia, S. C. The regular business meetings of the League were held in the County Court House and were presided over by Mr. Wm. Barnwell of Columbia, President of the League, assisted by Mr. G. O. Sullivan of Anderson, acting Secretary. Mr. Barnwell's annual address was a carefully prepared and interesting paper and full of valuable suggestions.
Many subjects of concern to Building & Loan Associations were discussed during the Convention and many strong papers were read by those especially assigned to this task. Among the regular speakers were S. Wittkowsky of Charlotte, N. C., John P. Thomas, of Columbia, W. M. Shannon, of Camden, B. M. Spratt of Chester, T. T. Hyde of Charleston and William Goldsmith of Greenville.
The social functions consisted of a reception at Rose Hill Club by the Ladies of Anderson on Wednesday afternoon and an automobile drive around the City on Thursday afternoon and a smoker at Rose Hill Club on Thursday night. All of which were greatly enjoyed by visitors and residents.
Among the important steps taken by the South Carolina League at the convention was its joining the United States League of Building & Loan Associations, which will hold its next annual Convention at Grand Rapids, Mich., in July 1911. Delegates to this Convention will be elected later on by the Executive Committee of the State League. From the report of Convention by the Anderson Daily Mail we copy the following paragraph: "One of the most interesting features of the Convention was the report of Mr. W. M. Shannon, of Camden who attended the National Convention of Building & Loan Leagues recently held at Charlotte, N. C. His address shows the wonderful scope of the Associations of the United States and he took up in detail and analyzed the many splendid addresses delivered at Charlotte.

The next annual Convention of the State Building & Loan Association League will be held at Chester, S. C. in May, 1911.
The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, B. M. Spratt, Chester; 1st Vice President, G. O. Sullivan, Anderson; 2nd Vice President, T. T. Hyde, Charleston; Secretary and Treasurer, John T. Matton, Columbia; Committee on Legislation—W. M. Shannon, Camden; John P. Thomas, Columbia; F. H. McMaster, Columbia; C. H. Cooper, Laurens; and R. W. Slaughter, J. M. J. Executive Committee—E. D. Blakeney, Kershaw; L. W. Bowman, Orangeburg; O. F. Hard, Greenville; William Barnwell, Columbia; J. S. Moore, Abbeville.

Children's Day at Mt. Olivet and Beulah.
It was a special pleasure to the writer to have the privilege of being among the good people of Mt. Olivet and Beulah at the rendering of their interesting Children's Day exercises on Sunday June 12th. These two churches, Baptist and Methodist are situated in eight of each other about five miles southeast of Camden.
The exercises were begun at Mt. Olivet about 11:00 A. M. when the school under the efficient leadership of their instructor, Miss Laura McCaskill, marched into the church in accompaniment to music from the organ by Miss Agnes Dabney, quietly taking their places in the pews reserved for them at the right of the pulpit.
Next was a short prayer by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Carnes.
After this there were some interesting recitations by Misses Eva and Ebel Bruce, Nap and Agnes Dabney, Lottie Dixon, Maurie McCaskill, Kate Moseley, Olga and Mal Rush, and Little Masters DeWitt Rush, Troy West and Calvin McCaskill.
Instrumental music was furnished by the Misses Dabney who also sang a very sweet duet, "The Two Little Orphans."
Among the hymns sung by the school were "The Banner of the Cross," Little Sunbeams, "The Gospel Banner" and the appropriate closing hymn "Glory To His Name."
The exercises were a credit to all who had taken any part in preparing them.
It thrilled our hearts to hear the voices of these innocent children raised in praise of their master and our thoughts drifted to the future that awaits them and the good that they may be the means of rendering for God and the uplift of humanity May each of them accept Him as their guide along the rugged path of life.
Rev. Mr. Cole now delivered an interesting discourse on the threefold nature of the child—moral, intellectual and physical. Bro. Cole is not unknown to the people of this community and it is only necessary to say that as usual his whole heart was on his subject.
Hon. W. B. deLoach of Camden was now introduced by the Supt. Mr. J. O. Moseley. Missionary Baptists was such as to inspire greater efforts for the Christianization of all nations.
Rev. Mr. Carnes, pastor of the church now spoke a few closing words of appreciation and encouragement and the congregation was dismissed with a benediction by Rev. Cole.
In the afternoon we were present at the exercises at Beulah.
Because of lack of information we are giving only a few principal features.
Supt. Humphries conducted the exercises assisted by instrumental music by Mr. Alra Humphries.
After recitations and music by the school Mr. C. W. Birchmore, who was recently a delegate to the World's S. S. Convention at Washington, D. C., gave an interesting account of the work done there.
Rev. Sharp pastor of the Church now delivered the closing address and the congregation left for their homes feeling that it was indeed a blessing to have been present at these two services on the same day.
We shall do with interest the future progress of these bright young people. Carrie Gaskin.
