

TREMENDOUS SACRIFICE SALE

$38,000.00 Worth of High-Grade Merchandise to be Disposed of Regardless of Cost or Value

H. L. Schlosberg, the progressive Camden merchant has succeeded in purchasing the entire stock of A. Rosenberg, of Greenwood, S. C., one of Greenwood's leading merchants, who retired from business on account of ill health. This immense stock consists of the most choice Merchandise that the Foreign and Domestic Markets could produce in the following lines: Dress Goods, Silks, Linen, Laces, Embroideries, Fancy and Staple Cotton Goods, Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Garments, Notions, Furnishings and a complete Line of High-Grade Shoes, comprising the most representative and reliable brands.

THIS SALE BEGINS ON FRIDAY, JULY 1 PROMPTLY AT 9 A. M.

AND WILL POSITIVELY CONTINUE NO LONGER THAN 15 DAYS

This is a Sale without a parallel in the history of the town of Camden, or Kershaw County. The low prices at which I purchased this stock and in consideration of the fact that I have more goods than the capacity of my buildings will permit and must dispose of these goods for want of room. Thus it enables me to offer to the public the most attractive values in reasonable high-grade Merchandise ever attempted in this section.
