

WANTS HER LETTER PUBLISHED

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. My pains all left me, I grew stronger, and within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefit women may derive from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JOHN G. MOLDAN, 215 Second St., North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herbs. Women who suffer from those distressing ailments to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. For 20 years she has been helping sick women in this way, free of charge. Don't hesitate—write at once.

"PLAY WITH THE CHILDREN"

Fabled Fountain of Youth Could Not Be More Potent Than Association With Little Ones.

"Play with the children" was the recurrent advice of a wise and successful man. "This will keep your heart young, your viewpoint fresh, your wit sparkling. The child heart is at once the purest and the happiest in nature; the child tongue is a transmuting power."

FIND OUT THEN.

Hicks—Some men never realize the true value of money—Dicks—Until they try to make a touch.

By a patient loving endurance of annoyance are we preparing ourselves gradually for the discipline of trials.—E. M. Gouburn.

One often wonders why the woman members of a burlesque show require dressing rooms.

A POLICEMAN'S EXPERIENCE.

Suffered for Years From Chronic Kidney Trouble.

Walter J. Stanton, 1139 Pear St., Camden, N. J., says: "Kidney trouble bothered me for fifteen years. If I stooped, sharp twinges shot through my back and it was hard for me to arise. I was treated by several doctors, one a specialist, but did not receive relief. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, and soon noticed an improvement. I continued until the trouble disappeared."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

SHOULD HAVE BEEN BUSY.

Old Lady—What are you crying about, my little man?
Kid—Nothing!
Old Lady—Nothing!
Kid—Yes, Ma. Teacher ask me what I was doin' an' I tnd her nothin', an' she said I ought a been doin' sumthin' an' she give me a lickin'.

SCRATCHED SO SHE COULD NOT SLEEP

"I write to tell you how thankful I am for the wonderful Cuticura Remedies. My little niece had eczema for five years and when her mother died I took care of her. It was all over her face and body also on her head. She scratched so that she could not sleep nights. I used Cuticura Soap to wash her with and then applied Cuticura Ointment. I did not use quite half the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, together with Cuticura Resolvent, when you could see a change and they cured her nicely. Now she is eleven years old and has never been bothered with eczema since. My friends think it is just great the way the baby was cured by Cuticura. I send you a picture taken when she was about 18 months old."

"She was taken with the eczema when two years old. She was covered with big sores and her mother had all the best doctors and tried all kinds of salves and medicines without effect until we used Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. H. Kierman, 663 Quincy St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1909."

The Return of Ferguson.

A night clerk in a hotel sat dozing at his desk at about 1 a. m., when a man in evening clothes came in as if laboriously trying to walk a crack, and said: "I'm Ferguson; key to room 44."

The guest disappeared in the direction of his room, one flight up. In a few minutes a man in his shirt sleeves with a flattened stick hat on the side of his head, and with one shoe on a foot and the other in his hand, came in and said to the clerk: "I'm Ferguson; key to for-fer."

Mathematical Request.

"Little Mary, seven years old, was saying her prayers. 'And God,' she petitioned at the close, 'make seven times six forty-eight.'"

A Simple Matter.

"Charley, dear," said Young Mrs. Terkins, "the paper says that the Prohibitionists have trouble with bootleggers."

The Ready Theorist.

"You see," explained the scientist, "house flies are dangerous because they carry germs on their feet."

The Real Thing.

"You say your husband was cut by his neighbors at the party?" "Yessah, dat's so, sah."

In the Night School.

Teacher (of night school)—What do you understand by the terms "life sentence"? Give an example of one. Shaggy-haired Pupil—I pronounced you husband and wife.—Chicago Tribune.

Carrying His Audience With Him.

Nobody was more witty or more bitter than Lord Ellenborough. A young lawyer, trembling with fear, rose to make his first speech and began: "My lord, my unfortunate client—My lord my unfortunate client—My lord—" "Go on, sir, go on!" said Lord Ellenborough, "as far as you have proceeded hitherto the court is entirely with you."

A Real Argument.

They were talking about argument not in the abstract but as applying to domestic happiness. "What do you think is the most unanswerable argument you ever heard?" one bachelor asked a married man.

He Knew the Kind.

Little Edward, aged four, was an only child. He was anxious for a baby sister, and was talking of it one day with a friend of the family in the friend's family was a baby girl of one year. The lady said, "Edward, you may have my baby; she is pretty and sweet."

Yes, Indeed.

Hostess (at party)—Why so silent, Miss De Murr? You've scarcely said a word since you came. Youthful guest—Really, Mrs. Leader, I am having a very enjoyable time, but my father has told me 100 times never to say anything unless I have something to say, and I suppose—

Wife and Country.

Paul D. Cravath, the noted New York lawyer said at a luncheon at the Lawyers' club: "Vacation time is here, and already that dreadful song about the wife gone to the country is being resurrected. But a variant to the song was furnished by a conversation I heard the other night."

Clever Joke of Kind King.

King Edward's good nature was illustrated the other night by a London correspondent at the Press club in New York.

Scarc Regarding Decrease of Spring Wheat Crop Moderated.

Boston.—The scare regarding the decrease in the spring wheat crop has moderated. We may not have as great a harvest as in former years, admits the Boston Post, but the deficit, if predictions are reasonable, will be met by the wholesome increase in the output of winter wheat. Meantime there is the biggest factor in the cereal product of America to be counted upon. This is the corn crop. The greatest damage that corn has ever sustained has been from protracted and intense drought occurring when the soil had previously lacked its normal supply of moisture. But there are no indications of a general drought in the great central valleys or any extensive area east of the Mississippi river. It is of national importance that American corn shall hold its own in a market where the feature in our supply of alimentations for the world. The value of the corn crop constitutes a foremost element in the financial balance of the American people.

Flour at Full Prices.

While flour mills are firm in their views and are asking full prices, buyers are of the opinion that values will recede as soon as new wheat begins to move on a more liberal scale.

Dressed Poultry Delayed.

Complaints were numerous concerning dressed poultry stock delayed in transit, and many lots showed up in poor condition.

Horses in Demand.

Seasoned harness and saddle horses suitable for use in the country have been selling at the top of the market.

Favorable Reports of Rice.

Reports of growing rice crop are generally favorable. On account of the irregular conditions of planting and growth the harvest will no doubt be late.

Hop Markets Quiet.

While there is some demand from brewers, hop markets in general were quiet. Nothing more than small sales took place at steady prices. Crop raws continues of a very favorable character from all sections.

Indian Cotton Crop Larger.

The East India cotton crop for the agricultural year 1909-10 will be 4,502,000 bales, an increase of 111,000 bales over last year's yield.

Cotton Prices Fluctuate.

July cotton reached the highest price in thirty years, with the exception of the Sully bull campaign, and then declined.

Loss in Eggs.

The weather has been so hot that quality of eggs deteriorated rapidly, some of the best marks losing heavily.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are the tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if not continued. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

WHERE HE SAW RESEMBLANCE

Apt Remark of Small Boy Embarrassed Toper and Filled Car With Merriment. Jimmie, who is a very small boy living in the East end, accompanied his mother downtown several days ago. Nearly everything he saw was quite new to him, so he was not sparing in his comments and opinions and questions.

Seated opposite Jimmie and his mother on the car homebound was an individual who, judging by the "blossom" on his nose, had partaken freely of joy water. None of Jimmie's neighbors possessed an appendage that could compare with the one across the aisle.

In silence Jimmie took in the situation and the "blossom." His thoughts must have grown so curious that they could not be withheld any longer and he finally blurted out in a loud voice: "Mamma, is that Santa Claus?"

pointing to the man with the red nose. Embarrassed, Jimmie's mother tried to silence her son, but it was no use. In an audible whisper the connection between the man and Santa Claus was disclosed much to the discomfort of the man.

There Should.

Fritz the gardener was a stolid German who was rarely moved to extraordinary language. Even the most provocative occasions only caused him to remark mildly on his ill-luck. Not long ago he came back from the city in the late evening after a hard day in the market place. He was sleepy, and the train being crowded, the baggageman gave him a chair in his roomy car.

Finally the train reached Bloomfield. Fritz still slept. As it pulled in and his friend had to shake him and tell him where he was. "I thanks you," said Fritz, as he rose slowly to his feet. The open door of the car was directly in front of him. He walked straight out of it.

The baggageman sprang to look after him. Fritz slowly picked himself up from the sand by the side of the track, looked up at the door, and said with no wrath in his voice: "There should here be some steps."

Quantity Not Quality.

Teacher—Willie, have you whispered today without permission? Willie—Yes, wunst. Teacher—Johnnie, should Willie have said "wunst"? Johnnie (triumphantly)—No, ma'am, he should have said twinst.
