The Ice Cream Supper.
 The ice cream supper given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D.
 G. Fletcher at Westville last night was quite a success. A goodly number were present and a neat sum realized. A happy throng it was which assembled there—the house resounding with merriment and hearty laughter until quite 12 o'clock. All left being glad that they attended.

PERSONAL
 The election commissioners, both State and Federal, met this week and appointed managers for the approach ing general election.
 Mr. D. M. Bathune passed through Camden on Tuesday last on his way to Indiantown, Williamsburg county, to attend the one hundred and fiftieth session of Harmony Presbytery which is in session there this week. The Camden Church is represented at this meeting by Mr. L. T. Mills.

Annual Settlement of County Officers.
 Col. D. H. Wise and Mr. Robert Jones, expert accountants of the Comptroller General's office in Col umbia, were in Camden last Friday for the purpose of making and wit nessing the annual settlement of the county officials. These settle ments are made between the Treas urer, Supervisor, Supt. of Educa tion and Auditor. Col. Wise stated after the settlement was made that Kershaw County had a good and efficient set of county officials as can be found in the state. These settlements are made in the pres ence of the foreman of the Grand Jury, as provided by law.

John Robinson's Ten Big Shows Will Exhibit at Camden.
 The great and only John Rob inson's Ten Big Shows will arrive in Camden Saturday Oct. 15 and people who imagine the "big show" alone have any claim to the title of "greatest show on earth," will be surprised at its magnitude and gor geousness. Not less than four trains of circus cars are required to trans port its enormous paraphernalia of 4 circus rings, 8 combined menage ries, big wild west, 1,000 people, 500 horses and ponies, etc.
 The history of the Robinson show is interesting. Founded in 1823 by Uncle John Robinson, the first, it has been on tour continuously ever since, always under the same name and title, and never out of the Rob inson hands. The present owner and proprietor is John Robinson the III, a young man of thirty five years, a college graduate and a man of extraordinary energy and force of character. Three generations of circus ownership has developed in bred facilities for amusing and in structing the public to the highest degree, and everyone will notice a polish and perfection of methods in the conduct and arrangement of this exhibition unapproached by any other.
