Local News.

Cotton Market.
Cotton is quoted in Camden this morning at 14 7/8.

Polo.
A game of Polo will be played on Monday next, December 26th, on the Camden Polo Club field at 3.30 o'clock.

Many of our friends have kindly remembered us recently in the payment of their subscription to The Chronicle. We assure them that their kind remembrance of us will add much to our Christmas cheer.

Alford Plantation Sold.
The Alford plantation, two miles north of Camden has been sold to Messrs E. M. Estridge, E. D. Bliskney and G. C. Welsh of Kershaw. The sale was made through the real estate agency of Mr. C. P. DuBose.

A Correction.
We stated last week that Mr. William Whitaker Boykin who is to be married on the 28th to a daughter of Chief Justice Jones, is a son of Mr. B. H. Boykin. This is a mistake. The groom is a son of Mr. H. R. Boykin instead of Mr. B. H. Boykin.

FOR SALE.
For sale—One mule, one one-horse wagon, one top buggy, plow, plow stocks, and other farming implements.

State Bank Examiner Appointed.
Mr. R. J. Rhame, of Sumter, has been appointed State Bank Examiner to take the place of Giles S. Wilson, who resigned. The appointment was made upon the recommendation of the executive council of which Mr. C. J. Shannon, Jr., of our city is a member. Mr. Shannon was in Columbia on Tuesday to meet the council at which time the recommendation was made.

Special Term Jurors.
The following petit jurors have been drawn to serve for the special term of Court to be held at Camden, S. C., on the 28th day of December next, to wit: R. A. Jackson, T. J. Spradley, Webb, J. L. ...
