Gotham's Great Peril From Dynamite

NEW YORK.—The opinion has often been expressed that some great disaster will eventually overtake New York and the recent dynamite explosion in Jersey City lends some color to this view. Over on the Jersey flats between Bedloe's Island and the end of the Pennsylvania Railroad dock at Greenville, and west of the Statue of Liberty, there are stored at times in three barges anchored there more than 600,000 pounds of high explosives. If by chance this stupendous mount of energy should be let loose, it would topple New York in ruins and cause the greatest disaster of modern times. The loss of life would be appalling. Within a 20-mile radius power is pent there live nearly 10,-900,000 persons. The shock of the explosion would be inconceivable. It would set the earth trembling for hundreds of miles in every direction. Buffalo, Montreal, Boston and Baltimore would feel the ground shake under their feet. Along the coast a tidal wave would rush landward and overwhelm everything until it reached the first great barrier of the hills. Ships at sea would be tossed to and fro by the mighty convulsion. These barges, which contain enough manufacturing concerns that have without knowing it.

their plants in desert places inland. They cannot store their deadly explosives near any large center of population. The regulations of nearly every city from New York down prohibit the storage of any quantity of dynamite or any other powerful explosive within their boundaries. Therefore the considerable amount that is used in blasting has to be transported each day from some point of distribution. These barges on the Jersey flats are the great distributing depots for dyasmite for all the region of New York and vicinity. It is impossible to say from one day to another just how much dynamite, lyddite, black powder or other explo sive combinations are carried on these boats. The stock varies almost from

Thus far they have escaped disaster. Yet they are almost as much a potential menace to New York as Vesuvius is to Naples. They are more, in fact, for Naples is quite a number of miles away from the flamof the Jersey flats where this awful ing crater of the volcano, while New York, with its mountain ranges of skyscrapers, is but a brief two miles distant.

There are approximately 500,000.000 pounds of high explosives manufactured in the United States every year There is continually in transit on the railroads throughout the country 5,000 carloads of this dangerous material. It takes an average of 10 days to make delivery from point of shipment to destination. Therefore there is a carload of dynamite or gunpowder for every 50 miles of railroad throughout explosives to blow the whole city to America. The traveler passes almost picces, belong to the great powder hourly within a few feet of these cars

Daring Opium Smuggler Is Set Free

S EATTLE, WASH.—Broken in body and spirit by confinement in the and spirit by confinement in the ederal prison at McNeil's island. where he served four terms, Lawrence Kelly, declared by customs officers to be the shrewdest and most daring opium smuggler they have encountered on Puget sound during the last three decades, was turned adrift a few days ago. He is 73; his strength is wasted, his nerve is gone and he is without a dollar. Unless former accomplices come to his aid with part of the fortune he made for them at the risk of his life and freedom, it is likely the veteran will pass the rest of his days in a poorhouse. Kelly's smuggling days are over Ho is a broken down sailor. He is He never confessed or

though he had opportunities to fleece them whenever he brought a sloop load of contraband goods into the country

Smuggling always appealed to Keily as a game of chance, to be indulged in only for the excitement and the satisfaction of cluding the officers. He did not sail under the black fing for the profit and it is known that he never fired a shot or harmed any one Kelly was successful in many of his adventures between the Canadian shores and the mainland in Washington and Oregon, and it is believed he smuggled several hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of contraband goods, including opium into the United States during the last fifteen years. He always worked alo 2, and, though deserted when arrested the last time, he would give not the least inkling as to who financed the expeditions or who assisted him.

When opium began pouring into the country from over the British Columbia border, for months the cus toms inspectors searched the coununder the surveillance of customs of. try in an effort to trace the smugficials and will be followed by them gier. Finally one overheard a convergation between two prosperous implicated others and he had the business men at Olympia, the capital reputation of being "square" with of Washington. Deficit in Wake of Municipal Dance ment comes high. Milwaukeeans have danced and now they must pay the piper. And the piper's bills amount to $1,000 more than the dancers donated.

Municipal balls attended by 3,000 persons, at which the employer danced with his stenographer and the employer's wife danced with the stenegrapher's "steady," and many similar mix-ups, all tending in the genoral direction of social equality, have been a great success socially, but not financially. There is a deficit and the city's strong box will have to be drawn on for $1,000 to pay the piper nicipal balls that have been given.

The deficit is more than a deficit. It is a problem. It is a rock which threatens to knock a hole in the Milwaukee plan of municipal merrymaking. There is a difference of opinion as to whether it is best to go ahead with the public frolics. Some point to the fact that Uncle Sam conducts his postoffice business at a loss, and MILWAUKEE. — Municipal merri-ment comes high Milwaukeers that New York runs its ferries at a loss. What matters it, they say, that there is a loss of mero dollars? Look at the gain in merriment. These, instead of looking backward, would look further forward and not keep the municipal dances going but inaugurate muntcipal moving picture shows. The plan is to give the first of these shows in a public school building in the congested district. It will either be free or the price of admission will be held down to a penny or two.

The public dance and the public moving picture show are only the beginnings of the program mapped out by Mayor Emil Seidel and his chief for pining four times at the four mu- lieutenant, Congressman-Elect Victor L. Berger, and their associates.

Plans to Carry Gospel in Aeroplane

C.T. LOUIS.-The aeroplane as a means of spreading the gospel is the latest idea of James H. Pearson, ltinorant preacher. Released recently from the observaon ward of the city hospital, Pearson promptly set to work perfecting two ceroplane models, in which, accompanted by his wife and a corps of asalstants, he intends to fly over the country. The aeroplane will be used more for this purpose than as an instrument of war, Pearson says. Instead of spreading militarism by its use as a bomb carrier, the aeroplane is destined to carry missionaries over the world and enable them to reach spots hitherto inaccessible, he says.

The native of Wahamba, in Africa, pursuing his peaceful occupation of ecoking his neighbor for a moondhy meal, will see suddenly a strange apparition, from which a man-bird will emerge. After he has conquered this field he will go on to new ones until the evangelization of the whole world will be accomplished.

"But before I tour the world in my aeroplanes, I will first clean St. Louis." declares Pearson. "It is a den of iniquity, and I cannot go away without completing my work here."

Pearson is a member of the Amateur Aeronaut Association of St. Louis. His models are constructed along scientific lines, and Pearson will soon start building the aeroplanes. Meanwhile Pearson is preaching on the streets, every night.

Spartanburg .- W. V. Dibble of Orangeburg was selected to represent Wofford college in the Greenwood oratorical contest. His subject was The Transformation of the Crimnal." There were six speakers in the contest.

Orangeburg.-Robert E. Copes, who was elected by the recent session of the general assembly as judge of the First judicial circuit, went to Columbia to qualify as circuit judge. Judge Copes will hold his first session of court at Camden on March 6.

Fairfax.—Ice has been plentiful here and it is probable that the peach crop is about all destroyed as nearly all of the trees were in full bloom. Keifer pears and plums are probably destroyed also as they too were in Florence.-One of the handsomest school buildings in the state, whether it be city or country, will be opened formally on March 3, when the new building at Ebenezer will be dedicated to the work of education. Dr. Mitchell of the university will make the address.

Charleston .- The annual commencement exercises of the Roper Hespital Training School for Nurses was held at Cclumbus hall when 13 young ladies received their diplomas end badges of graduation, attesting the completion of the course and their competence to minister to the ill and Washington.-The naval appropriation bill which passed the house carries with it $40,000 for improvements at the Charleston navy yard. The provision directing the secretary of the navy to abandon and sell the navnl station at Port Royal was stricken out, so that South Carolina gets practically everything it could ask in the bill.

Columbia.-There will be no state summer school for teachers this year nt Winthrop college, the general assembly failing to make the necessary appropriation of $5,000 for the work. The Pcabody board of trustees gave $1,500 for a state summer school for teachers in this state. This fund will not be used as it is not sufficient for the work.

Presperity.-At a meeting of the commercial league it was decided to offer a prize of $25 for the largest amount of corn raised on one acre. This offer will be open to the farmers of No. 5 township and others of the adjoining community. This fund will probably be increased by the merchants of the town.

Columbia. An inspector for the house and the senate. The commission in its annual report stated that | think." an inspector whose would be to inspect the erailways of the state was very necessary. A salary of $1,-860 was to have been provided for the inspector. The expenses of the commission are paid by the railroads of the state.

Charleston.-Arrengements are being made for the biggest celebration of St. Patrick's day that Charleston has witnessed in a number of years and with religious services, banquets and other forms of celebration, the festival next month is to be made a memorable event in the history of the several crganizations which will take Florence.-Among his many vetoes the governor seems to have vetoed some of the recommendations of the Florence delegation and there are indications of a fight on the matter. The delegation sent in the name of J. S. McKinzie, who is regarded by the county auditor's office and others as one of the most valuable men on the county and state board of equalization. The governor, when he sent the names to the senate had substituted the name of Maxey Hill for that of Mr. McKenzine.

Savannah.-Frank Schrom, aged 99, a Confederate veteran, who reached here after walking from San Francisce, has given up the search which he began in New Orleans over a year ago for his two daughters, whom he says he last saw many years ago. The old man will walk to Charleston, where he intends to spend the remainder of his life. He says that he left New Otleans January 1, 1910, and walked to Ean Francisco, hoping to find his daughters. Disappointed, he started for the Atlantic coast to Charleston.

Spartanburg. -- Governor Blease's action in appointing as magistrates for Spartanburg, C. C. Wyche and J. Malcomb Bowden, thereby ignoring the recommendation of the Spartanburg delegation and, it is said, of the advice of friends here, has occasioned- considerable confusion and comment. The delegation recommended for re-appointment S. M. Wetmore and R. J. Gantt as successor to Major. Kirby, who has been magistrate here for many years. Mr. Wyche will not accept, although he says he appreclates the governor's condence.

Charleston.-The action of Gover nor Blease in vetoing the bill giving Charleston and other cities the right to vote on the question of establishing the commission form of government is widely discussed here and among the members of the Charleston Community club and other advocates of the measure, there is no little criti elsm and censure of his action. The weto came as a complete surprise to the public and it was the intention of the executive committee of the clul-to issue the cell and make arrange menta for the election

COULD NOT STAND SUFFERING FROM SKIN ERUPTION

"I have been using Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Cintment for the past three months and I am glad to say that they cured me of a most annoying skin eruption. It began by my noticing red blotches appearing on my face and scalp. Although they were rather disfiguring, I did not think anything of them until they began to get scaly and dry and to itch and burn until I could not stand the suffering. Then I began to use a different scap, thinking that my old kind might be hurting me, but that didn't seem to do any good. I went to two different docters but neither seemed to relieve me any. I lost many nighta' sleep in continual scratching, sometimes scratching till I drew the blood on my face and head. Then I started in to use the Cuticura Remedies and in two months I was entirely relieved of that awful pest I am so delighted over rry cure by Cuticura Remedies that I shall be glad to tell anybody about it." When Ellen Terry was presented with a Founders' gold medal at the New theater, New York, recently-an honor conferred in recognition of her great services to dramatic art-she was called upon to make a speech of acceptance. It so happened that the actress was exceedingly hoarso and she was therefore forced to cut her remarks short. So she told this story: "A friend of mine once bought a parrot and gave much money for it with the understanding that it could speak fluently, but when he reached home with it he found to his dismay that the bird was dumb. So he took it back. 'This harrot cannot say a word.' he enid indignantly to the bird fancier railroad commission was eliminated It can't talk at all.'
