

The groceries sold at this store are quality for quality, the cheapest you can buy in the NY of your neighbors will tell you THAT. We made A it a rule when we commenced business and have rigidly adhered to the rule ever since—to give you the top market value for your money, even if we occasionally lose ourselves. That you appreciate this is shown by the way our trade is growing - and by the selectness of our customers. You are missing a whole lot if you do not come into this store and look at our quality and prices.

Bruce's -- "The Pure Food Store"

Telephone 66.

Camden, S. C.

New Bakery For Camden.

Ground was broken on Tuesday morning last for a new bakery for Camden It will be owned by Messra. Lewis & Christmas and will be located on the lot to the rear of their store.

A Good Picture.

Dr. I. H. Alexander has in his office a good picture of the Richard Kirkland fountain taken the day it was unveiled. The picture is a remarkably clear one. It is an easy matter to recognize many of the faces in the large crowd.

To Build New Store.

The yecant lot next north of The Chronicle office and owned by the Kershaw Guards has been purchased by Mr. N. R. Goodale, who will begin the erection of a building to be used by him as a machine and plumbing shop. Work will be commenced on the building at once.

New Automobile Repair Shop.

Mr. F. R. Brooks, formerly of Savannah, but who has been in Camden for some time, has opened an automobile garage and machine shop in Clyburn Block on Main street. Mr. Br oke is an expert machinist and a clever young man and is building up a good business in his line.

Mill House Blown Down.

On Wednesday afternoon the mill house at Adam's pond, about six miles east of Camden, was blown down by the storm. Fortunately no one was in the house at the time. It has been put up again, however, and is "now doing bust ness at the same old stand."

Placed Under Arrest.

A colored excursion arrived in Camden Monday morning from Sumter over the North-Western road. On the re urn trip Monday night several negroes gathered at take against any field in the community. the eld South Carolina depot and proceeded to rock the train. Quite a number liams is a good farmer as well as a good of m screams have been caught and are mill man

Grimsley Convicted.

Fruest E Grimsley, the young white man who shot and killed Mrs. Rosa Bessinger and Walter Sandifer, in Columbia on May 9th, was tried and found guilty in the court of general sessions of Richland county Wednesday. He was recommended to the mercy of the court.

The verdict means a life sentence in the results of the results of U. D. C.'s Honor Birthday of Jeff Davis, On last Saturday afternoon the John D. Kennedy Chapter met at the pleasant home of Mrs. G. H. Lenoir to he nor the memory of the much loved president of the Southern Confederacy.

After the business had been transacted for this was the less meeting of the year, there was a reading by Miss Louisa Netiles, and a song. "My Resary." ly Mrs.
L. T. Mills. Among those present were:
Mesdames W. M. Shannon, J. M. Staney.
E. E. Sill. Bruce Davia, D. A. Roykin,
S. L. Lang, P. T. Villepigue, L. T. Mil s.
and Misses Remma Shannon, Maggaret
McDowall, Mary, Mills. Louise Nettles nd Lucy Flower.

For the Purpose of Advertising the Spartaneuro Business Due person from this country who enters the achons on two two the 20th of Jame, parisonanted by Due student who will take the Pall Course, or by Two Students who well take a Single Course, other Bookhooping or Shaphand.

For catalogue, etc., address L. Real Verson, Principal.

Spartanburg Business College, SPARYAHBUR MONONONONONONONONONONONONO

order your Groceries from the store where you get quicker delivery and prices that are right?

We have a complete line and in addition offer fresh vegetables.

Just give 37 your order and watch results.

RONORONONONONONONONONONO

5 or 6 doses "666" will cure any case of Chills and Fever. Price 25c. .

Fine Corn.

Mr. J. L. Williams has a field of corn near the Pine Creek Mill that we will Graduated in Law.

Mr. Lawrence A. Kirkland, son of Mr. T. J. Kirkland, graduated last week in law at the University of South Carolina. Mr. Kirkland is a bright and most prom.

Serious Accident.

Quite a serious accident happened last aight to Miss Nannie Brannon. daughter of Mr. J. E. L. Brannon who lives a few miles east of Camden She was on her way to attend a social club meeting at the residence of Mr. John Sinclair, and was riding standing up on the back part of the buggy, when the animal drawing the burgy gave a sudden jerk forward, throwing Miss Brannon out. Her feet were caught in the buggy body and the back of her head struck on the hard clay road. She was unconscious all night, but Mr. Brannon says he hopes she is some better this morning.

Pretty Birthday Party,

Little Miss Martha Boykin celebrated her third birthday last week with a beautiful lawn party at the Reynolds home. So many successive sets of children have been made happy by May parties in this fine old park it is indeed teaming with happy memories and pleasant associations to almost every generation in Camber. This occasion was not an exception as Miss Maptha proved bernell a dever little hostess, and knew just how to make each little girl and boy present happy.

"When God makes a lovely thing. The fairest and completest, He makes it little don't you know? For little things are sweetest.

"Little birds and little flowers.

Little diamonds, little pearlest.

But the Garrett things on earth.

Personal Mention.

Miss Vivian Yates has gone to Char-

Miss Louise Nettles is spending the week in Columbia.

Mrs G. E. Taylor visited Miss Sallie Benton in Kershaw last work. Miss Lella Bookin is visiting her sleter, Mrs. S. M. McNeel, in Yorkville.

Mrs. Fannie Bauskett, who has been in Florida for some time, has returned to

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Bruce and chiliren went to Bishopville last week to visit relatives.

Prof. Gunter, of Columbia, was a reent visitor to Camden, the guest of Rev. M. L. Lawson.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Jesse Kirkland and Mr. Robert Vaughan are

Miss Alla Phelps was among the visi-tors at Rock Hill this week for Winthrop Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gerald and daughter, Miriam, of Augusta, are on a visit to Mrs. F C Gerald. Capt. H F Haile, of Liberty Hill, was Camden on Monday last. We were lad to see him again. Mr. Chas. J. Shannon has returned from a western trip and is back at his duties at the Camden postoffice. Miss Charlotte Harrall of Cheraw. vis ted Miss Virginia Taylor last week on her way home from Winthrop Mesers. James Green and David Per-kins, from the South Carolina University, spant last Sunday in Camden. Mr. R. M. Wooten, whose family is at Wrightsville Beach, spent last Sunday with them, making the trip in his auto.

Mrs. D. A. Boykin entercained at bridge on last Friday morning complimentary to Mrs. Heyward, of t olumbia. R. A. McDowell, who has been teaching in Spartanb rg for the past session, passed through Columbia yesternay. - The

Mrs A. W. Leddingham, of Sumter, spent several days last week in Camden with her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Ham

Mr. and Mrs. M. Buruch and Misses Sara Wolfe and Nannie Lindsay went over to see the ball game in Columbia Miss Oralie Mathis attended the G. F

C commencement in Greenville the week. She has also been a guest at a rouse party in Spartanburg. Misses Jean and Nannie Lindsay are ending the week in Lancaster

Ki ta Wilson is a so in Lancaster, the guest of Miss Perry Relle Bennet The building of the Camden Grader School is undergo ng repairs being re-painted both inside and out. The work s under the supervision of contractor

W. G. Adams. Mr. George Alexan ler, of the University of South Carolina, is spending a few days in Camden, a ter which he expects to make a trio to Jacksonville, Fla., to visit relatives there.

Mr. and Mis F. M. Zemp; Miss Vivian Yates and Masters Jean and James Zemp took an antomobile trip to Columbia last week. Miss Katherine Zemp, who has returned with them .

Assistant United States deputy Sain is in town this morning serving notice upon several witnesses to attend court in Charleston next week when the cond mnation proceedings will be taken up in the matter of the Camden post office a te.

Mrs John Cantey was hostess to the married ladies card club on Wednesday of last week. The games were enthusias-tic the refreshments delicious and the occasion indeed a pleasant one Mrs. Heyward, of Columbia, and Mrs. Belton Boykin were the guests

Mrs Turner, of Charlotte N. C. is visiting Mrs. W. F. Malone Mrs. Turner spent her girlhood in Camden but has not seen the old town in many years. She noted many improvements—only a few of the old landmarks were re, ognized. Oh change, thou art written upon all hings!

Quite a bunch of the Winthron girls passed through Camden Wednesday en passed through Camden wednesday en route to their homes in different parts of the state The closing exercises were held Monday and Tuesday. Among the students attending from Camden were Misses Nan Hough, Nan Trantham, Berdin La Value Phala Filiaheth Durch tie LeNoir. Helen Phelps, Elizabeth Du-Bose and Virginia Taylor. Miss LeNoir being one of the graduates this year. Miss Nan Trantham won the medal offered by President Johnson for the best story written in the College Journal.

Another Compliment to Miss Cantey.

At Goodie Castle on Friday afternoon ast Miss Margaret Eldredge entertained at bridge. The quait told Castle never furnished the setting for a more complete The quairt old Castle never icture of feminine grace and loveliness than was this occasion when a number of Camden society maids and matrons gathered to do honor to the fair bride-elect and to the charming young hostess her-self. Five tables of progressive bridge were played on the plazza, at the conclu-sion of which the prize was awarded to Miss Litler Stevens. The consolation was then presented to Miss Cantey-a huge shower bouquet of white flowers-from the stem of each hung a dainty package of linen, tied with snowy ribbon

Miss Eldredge then served delicious Miss Eldredge then served delicious frozen punch and cake. The following were pr sent: Miss Mary Cantev, Miss Mary DeSausenre, Jacksonville. Mrs. Albert Heyward, Columbia. Mesd mes Benj, Haile. Egmont von Tresckow, Belton Boykin, Lucy Boykin, LeRoy Davidson Misses Rives Lang, Mary Villepique. Lai Blakeney, Hallie Carrison, Harriet Shannou, Heorique Johnson, Francis Boykin, Lucis Yates, Lucile Peck, Lovins, Dorothy and Jim Eldredge.

miss Entredge then served delicious frozen punch and cake. The following were pr sent: Mi-s Mary ('antev, Miss Mary DeSus-ure, Jacksonville, Mrs. Albert Heywerd, Columbia. Mesdames Benj, Halte, Egmout von Tresckow, Belton Boykin, Lucy Boykin, LeRoy Davidson Misses Rives Lang, Mary Villerique, Lat Blakeney, Hallie Cavrison, Harriet Shannou. Herrisus Johnson, Francis Boykin, Lucis Vates, Lucile Peck, Lovina, Dorothy and Jim Eldredge.

An Explanation.

The film known as 'The Fall of Troy," belonging to the film company with whom the Star I heatre deals, was accidentally destroyed while in the hands of an exhibitor this week, consequently the date set by the Star for the exhibition of this pic ure had to be cancelled. However, the picture is now on its way to Caroden and the management will endaaver to make the management will endaaver to make the management will endaaver to make the interest of the caroling the disappointment of not receiving the picture was personned, the young the caroling to the altar to take the management will endaaver to make up in every way possible the disappointment of not receiving the picture is more and the management will endaaver to make up in every way possible the disappointment of not receiving the picture is more and the disappointment of not receiving the picture is marked that the receiving the picture is deed and the bear and the management will endaaver to make up in every way possible the disappointment of not receiving the picture is provided to the father the bridge attended by the maid of honor and the bear and the management will endaaver to make up in every way possible the disappointment of not receiving the picture.

Meximal Edward Cantey. The grow the fict beginner and Edward Cantey. The grow the fict beginner and Edward Cantey. The provide disable of the private boykin, Mess Margaret El. Justine, Margaret El. Justi

AFTER YOU MARRY the girl of your choice a bank account will come in handy. Besides the man who saves his money is thought more of by his employer and is given the position of responsibility over the man who spend all he makes.

Make OUR Bank YOUR Bank. We pay liberal interest consistent with safety.

The First National Bank

OF CAMDEN, S. C.

HOW important that the gift to a bride should be in good taste in order to express your good wishes properly. Especially when it is semething she wants to keep and treasure for years to come, maybe for a whole life time. Gifts of this kind can only be bought at a store like ours. It doesn't cost any more to get something in good taste, something that will last, it only requires the proper judgment in selecting the place where you buy it. We have a large assortment of goods of this kind and are always glad to give you any suggestions, information or assistance in

G. L. BLACKWELL, JEWELER AND OPTICIAN Carolina

CANTEY-COOKE.

Grace Episcopal Church is Scene of Beautiful Wedding.

The crowning social event of the week was the marriage of Miss Mary Boykin Cantey to Mr. William Maxwell Cooke, of Jacksonville, Fla., which was softennized at Grace Episcopal Church at six o'clock on Wednesday evening.

The church decorations consisted of palms, forms and pine boughs, the altar being banked with white flowers. At six o clock the heantiful strains of Mendels.

o close the beautiful strains of Mendel-shon a wedding march, exquisitely ren-dered by Mies Charlotte Boykin, an-nounced the coming of the bridal party. well. of Laurens, which will be solemnized at eight o'clock on the merning of the 14th of June at Grace Church.

Miss Stoney is not only a social favorite but is liked by every one with whom she comes in contact and the entire town will be interested in this marriage.

A Shower for Miss Cantey.

A Shower for Mise Cantey.

"Milibank," the picturesque home of Mise Francis Boykin, was the some of a gar and feative throng on Wednesday alternoon, May Sist, when Miss Boykin entertained from fifty to seventy guests in honor of her friend and comrade—Miss Mary Cantey. A pleasant social hour was spent on the broad pleasas and delicious punch and cake served. The bride-elect was saized to stand in the center of the reception hall, where a large bell was suspended and heath a frippe of dalaies the pulled the strings which caused a "down-pour" of heatiful hoslery and lines — tokens of love and friendship from the large number possess.

Mr. and Mrr Cooke left for an extended trip.
The bride is the youngest daughter of Major E. B. Cantey, and is a young wo-man of charming personality. The groom is a very prominent young man of Jacksonville. Fig.

Among the out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs George deSaus-ure, of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heyward Mr. and Mrs. Heyward Clarkson, of Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes of Charleston; Mrs. Cooke and Hughes, of Charleston; Mrs. Cooke and daughter, of Jacksonville; Mr. Perry Cooke, Mr B. B. Burroughs.

The Chronicle job office has been turn-ing out a lot of handsome printed station-ery during the past few weeks.

Coming Marriage of Miss Stoney.

The most important social event of the coming week will be the marriage of Miss Jeannie Stoney, of this city, to Mr. Blackwell, of Laurens, which will be solemn-

Hot Weather

Some things below that are essential to your comfort in hot weather:

What is cooler than a Dress made of our white or colored Flaxon. The 20c goods we have cut to 15c per yard.

Beautiful line of white goods, "sheer and coo,!" in plaids ond stripes, at only 10c the yard. PRIDE OF THE WEST. The prettiest sheer plain white goods on the market at 10c the yard. 40 inch White Lawn at only 10c per yard.

A few pieces mereerized Oxfords. These goods sold at 25c the yard. Special cut price 15c per yard. Splendid for skirts.

White and Colored Linene at 10 and 15c yard.

Brown Dress Linen from 121/2 to 25c yard.

1 lot Colored Batistes and Lawns 10 to 15c quality cut to 81/2c yard.

Big bargains in Ribbons. Show case full at 10c yard, widths up to 100, values up to 25c yard.

CHILDREN'S DRESSES. These are great; prices from 25c to $2.00. White and colored. New goods, latest styles. Just ready to put on the little Ladies and Childrens Straw Hats. Big variety in shapes and colors at popular prices.

Big lot silks going at 25c yard. White, black and colors. These are right new and sell everywhere at 35c yard.

Special cut prices on Furniture coverings.

Another shipment of those "Grass" Rugs just in. from the smallest size to the 9x12. These are the best floor coverings on the market.

LADIES' NECKWEAR. All the new things for hot weather in Dutch Collars and Jabots.

Ladies and Childrens Oxfords and strap sandals, velvets, patents, tans and white canvas, at prices to

The J W. Carter line "Solid Oak" Shoes for men The shoe with the flexible sole. Pumps and Oxfords.

Agents for the Ladies Home Pattern Company. Full stock patterns on hand. Come and get a free style sheet.

Come and see us. We have bargains for you all over the store.

Yours respectfully,

The Gilt Edge S

P. T. VILLEPIGUE, Proprietor, Camden, S. C.