

To Wed in Alabama.
In the Birmingham (Ala.) Age-Herald of recent date Mr. and Mrs. Robert Preston Means announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Preston, to Valentine Jordan Nesbit, the wedding to occur in the late fall. This engagement is of interest in South Carolina, both bride-elect and bridegroom-elect having prominent family connections in this State.
Miss Means is the grand daughter of both Gov. John Hugh Means, of South Carolina and of Gov. Preston, of Virginia, the son of Gov. Means having married the daughter of Gov. Preston. She has many relatives and friends in South Carolina.

Mr. Nesbit is the son of Col. Ralph Nesbit, of Georgetown county. He located in Birmingham in 1906 and began the practice of law. The news of his approaching marriage will be received with interest by his many friends and relatives throughout his native State.
To Change Location.
Some time during this month The Camden Motor Co., now occupying the Savage building, will move their stock of auto goods to the building one door south of The Chronicle office, occupied by Mr. N. R. Goodale. We are fortunate in having this firm as neighbors and congratulate them on their "upward move."

Ode to a Street Sprinkler.
Sprinkle, sprinkle, little cart,
How I wonder where thou art.
When the dust is high and dry,
Never can I find you nigh.
When the clouded sun is set,
And the streets with rain are wet,
Then you wing your little flight;
Sprinkle, sprinkle, left and right.
