JULY.

I am slow forgetting
It is because the sun
Has such old tricks of setting
When July days are done.

The summer sunlight traces
Old patterns—green and gold;
The flowers have no new faces,
The very buds are old.

I am slow forgetting,
Ah, well come back and see
The same old sunshine petting
My garden spot and me.

If there is "nothing doing"
On these sultry July nights,
Just blame "society leaders,"
And not the one who writes.

For they seem slow forgetting
"Society" is doing nothing
That the days are hot and long,
But swimming "in the pond."

If I am slow forgetting,
What is the use of fretting—
And to laziness do incline,
It is good old summer time.

At dusk that fosters dreaming—
Come back at dusk and rest,
And watch our old star gleaming
Against the primrose West.

Editor Coker Here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Coker, Jr., of Hartsville, were in Camden several days this week visiting the family of Mrs. R. C. Johnson. Mr. Coker is editor of the Hartsville Messenger, one of the best weekly papers published in eastern Carolina. He expressed himself as being favorably impressed with Camden and says it is one of the prettiest towns to be found anywhere. They returned to Hartsville Monday.

Fine Tomatoes.

Mrs. G. G. Alexander favored The Chronicle force with three of the finest tomatoes seen this season on Monday. They were raised in her garden in Camden and were of a very fine variety. Two of the specimens weighed 32 ounces each and another 24 ounces—a total of 88 ounces in the three tomatoes.

Purchased an Auto.

Mr. L. Block has purchased the "Overland" five passenger touring car formerly owned by Mr. J. R. Bell. Mr. Block and his family are enjoying the recreation this car affords during the summer afternoons.

Work Progressing Rapidly.

Twenty-five laborers, including masons, carpenters and helpers, under the foremanship of Mr. W. C. Peden, are busily engaged on the Camden Hospital. The work is now well under way, the walls for the wards are almost up. The old manse, instead of being rolled back on the lot as was first thought, is being used for the front as the administration building. However, when completed, there will be nothing of the old building to be seen—the entire framework being encased in brick walls, making it absolutely fireproof. The contract calls for the completion of the Hospital by September.

For Three Days Only

Whitmore polish, regular 10c bottles will be sold first three days of sale at 5c per bottle. All colors. Baruch-Nettles Co.

LADY DIES SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Anna Cauthen Succumbs To Heart Failure at Rock Hill.

Her many friends in this city were deeply grieved on hearing of the sudden death of Mrs. Anna Cauthen, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Hasseltine, on East Marion street early this morning.

She had attempted about 3 a. m. to rise from her bed but an attack of heart failure overcame her and she fell. Her grandson heard the fall and summoned aid. She died before any relief could be given. Deceased was a most estimable woman. She removed to this city from Kershaw several years ago and had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Her husband, J. T. Cauthen, died in 1908.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Daisy Hasseltine, of this city, and Mrs. D. M. Kirkley, of Kershaw; and three sons, J. C. Cauthen, of this city; W. V. Cauthen, of Augusta, Ga., and Dr. R. S. Cauthen, of Charlotte.

The remains will be taken to Kershaw Wednesday on the 7:45 train for interment in the family lot. The funeral services will be held there in the Methodist church edifice and the Rev. E. K. Hardin, pastor of St. John's Methodist Church, will officiate.—Tuesday's Rock Hill Herald.

Chamber of Commerce Meeting

A regular meeting of the Camden Chamber of Commerce was held on Wednesday of last week. Only a few matters were discussed. A letter was read from C. B. Ryan of the Seaboard railway stating that week end rates would be published from Camden to Bethune on account of Big Springs, the summer resort near there. Mr. Ryan said that he would advise later relative to publishing rates from Columbia, Hamlet and intermediate points.

Mr. John T. Mackey, chairman of the fair committee stated that the committee hoped to get the owners of the grounds used for the horse show to put up a building of sufficient size to be used as an exhibit building and also to erect the necessary stalls for the display of cattle and stock.

This property, known as the base ball park belongs to Messrs. Little and Guion, and The Chronicle understands that the owners take favorably to the project. This will save the fair association a lot of trouble and expense each year as the grounds they now use are rented, and at every show temporary buildings have to be erected and afterwards torn down and removed.

Dr. Burdell, of the hospital committee stated that thru the generosity of some of Camden's tourist friends from the North, the equipment necessary for the operating room of the Hospital had been donated.

Too Hot For This.

Two prominent business men of the city engaged in a fistcuff in front of The Chronicle office Wednesday afternoon. Spectators separated the belligerents after the bout had gone about three rounds and neither was badly hurt.

Both participants have been summoned to appear before the recorder for trial this morning.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Matters of General Interest Secured by Our Reporters.

Mr. Hiram Nettles, of this county, attended the celebration at Gettysburg. He reported a fine time, but hot weather; however he says he has other recollections of Gettysburg when they had a still hotter time.

Mrs. Cooke, of Jacksonville, Fla., who is pleasantly remembered as Miss Mary Cante, visited her father, Maj. E. B. Cante, during the past week. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss deSaussure, of Jacksonville.

Among those attending the picnic at Big Springs on the 4th were Mesdames M. L. Smith, M. S. Sewell, S. C. Zemp, R. W. Mitcham, W. R. Hough and Misses Cleo Mitchell, Willie Watkins, Ethel Smith, Kate Murchison, Tressa Hough and Messrs. Jas. Holly, Leonard Schenk, Clyburn Taylor.

At The Air Dome.

Don't forget the Air Dome when thinking of a place to spend an hour or so of pleasure. The pictures please and the fresh air and rest is essential to good health.

There are a good many faces we haven't seen at the show, so don't hesitate for if you are not pleased we will cheerfully give you a return ticket. The prices are small and in reach of all. The children are again invited Tuesday night.

Douglas & Brown, Managers.

ANOTHER DYNAMITE CASE.

Burns & Barrett Found Not Guilty of Illegal Sale of Explosives.

Not satisfied with the fine imposed on Miller Jones, a salesman for the hardware firm of Burns and Barrett last week in which Magistrate Fincher was summoned before Governor Blease to show cause why he should not be removed from office, Game Warden Richardson Saturday brought criminal action against Burns and Barrett for the sale of dynamite some time ago.

Attorney L. T. Mills represented the defendants and held that the firm was in no way responsible for any criminal act on the part of their agent Jones. The jury undoubtedly thought the same and after being out only a few minutes brought in a verdict of not guilty.

This case has attracted considerable attention in this county as it is the first ever brought here for the illegal sale of dynamite. It will serve to put hardware dealers on their guard and see that the law is enforced as it has come to the attention of the game warden that parties have resorted to unsportsmanlike methods of obtaining fish.

NEW DINERS ON SEABOARD

Modern in Every Respect and Equipped With the Very Best.

The Seaboard Air Line Railway has received six of their new steel dining cars and same are in service on through trains.

They are the latest production of Pullman art, purchased by the Seaboard at approximately $30,000 for each car. They are full steel construction both within and without, except for some necessary inside ornamental woodwork. The interior finish is a bright mahogany. The lights are furnished from squares in the ceiling and a beautifully soft effect created.

The cars weigh 80 tons and are 72 feet long. They have electric generators which create the light and heat and operate the fans. The floor is tiled. The tables and chairs are of heavy upholstery with cushioned legs which prevent noise as they are moved about. The absence of unnecessary fixtures gives the dining room the effect of a large living room with plenty of space and a suggestion of comfort and home life.

There are refrigerating closets for cigars, for cooling drinks and for meats and vegetables. The kitchen has the capacity of that of a good sized hotel with charcoal broiler, ovens, etc. The ice, water and other accessories are put into the car from the outside. There are slides in the window screens so as to let in light and air as one chooses by a mere pressure of the thumb and without rising and struggling with tight frames or waiting for the porter.

RETURN OF THE "WIZARD."

Baruch - Nettles Co. Began Big Sale Yesterday.

Of course you will notice the two pages of advertising in The Chronicle today devoted to the great "Wizard" sale now on at the store of Baruch-Nettles Co. They are offering great bargains in every line from handkerchiefs to suits of clothing, and they state in this ad that you should bear in mind that goods offered are not shop-worn, out-of-date stuff, but the very latest and freshest merchandise to be had.

The managers also state that this is not a sale with a few "catches" thrown out as bait but a genuine bona-fide sale that will prove a great money-saving event to last the entire month of July. No trading stamps will be given at this sale, but their seal of satisfaction will cling to every purchase. They have a great number of bargains to offer described in the two pages and it will pay you to read them closely. They claim that if you attend their sale one day you will be so well pleased with the goods offered that they will not have to urge you to return—the goods will speak for themselves.

No More 'Til Turkey Day.

Governor Blease gave executive clemency to sixteen convicts Tuesday bringing his record of prisoners released from serving full sentence up to nearly 700 since he took office a little more than two years ago. Among those relieved Tuesday were two murderers. The governor announced he would issue no more pardons this year until Thanksgiving day.

DeKalb News Notes.

Special to The Chronicle:

DeKalb, S. C., July 9.—Farmers in this section are getting their crops in shape to lay by. Cotton is very small but corn looks fine, also potatoes and melon crops are real good.

Messrs. R. A. Vaughan and Arthur Brown made a business trip to Kershaw Tuesday.

Mrs. Logan Rush, of Westville, was the guest of Mrs. N. B. Workman last Thursday.

Mr. Hugh Jones, of Dalzell, made a trip here Sunday on his motorcycle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Owens, Jr., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Owens, Sr.

Master Arnold Workman, of Stockton, is spending the week with his uncle, Mr. N. B. Workman.

Among those who attended the celebration at Kershaw on the 4th from here were Capt. and Mrs. L. L. Clyburn, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Honeycutt and children, Mr. J. M. Spears, Miss Bessie Spears, Mr. Melvin Truesdale. They report having had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Owens and children spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Gaskins.

Mr. T. C. Mosier, of Lancaster, was here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Frank Cook, of Kershaw, was here Monday looking after his farm.

A jolly crowd came down from Kershaw Tuesday evening to try their luck at DeKalb's mill pond. Among the crowd were Messrs. Charlie Dee, Frank Cook and Gus Welch. The last account we had of them they were frying fish.

Mr. J. R. Truesdale received a message Monday announcing the death of his son-in-law, Mr. John Vaughan, near Lancaster.

Mr. Vaughan leaves several children to mourn his loss.

Mr. H. J. Truesdale is at Claremont this week.

Gets Leg Broken.

Mr. A. C. Gregory, a highly respected citizen, living on route 4 from Kershaw, had the misfortune of having one of his legs broken by a fall from a wagon one day last week. He was engaged in hauling oats to his barn when he fell from the wagon and in falling the member caught on the hounds of the wagon and both bones were broken. The injured member was promptly set and Mr. Gregory is now on a fair road to recovery.

Special Sale for Saturday and Monday on all goods. Come and see the bargains. The Camden 5 and 10 Cent Store.
