MASTER'S SALE.

State of South Carolina, County of Kershaw, In the Court of Common Pleas.

Thomas J. Kirkland, Trustee, Plaintiff,

Against

Martha S. Pinckney, Defendant.

Under and by virtue of a decree of His Honor, R. Withers Memminger, presiding Judge, of date the 25th day of November, A. D., 1913, in the above cause, I will offer for sale before the Court House door in Camden, S. C., during the legal hours of sale, on the first Monday in January, 1914, being the 4th day thereof, the following described real estate:

All that piece, parcel or lot of land, situated in the City of Camden, as recently extended, County and State aforesaid, containing one-half (1/2) acre, more or less, portion of a lot of the late Luna D. Baker, and formerly of M. A. Shannon, fronting East on Fair Street, and extending back West of a uniform width to a depth of two hundred and sixty-four (264) feet. Said parcel of land is bounded on the North by lot heretofore a part of these premises, later of Pittman, now of Boykin; on the East by Fair Street of Camden; on the South by property of the estate of Mary C. Lang, and on the West by property of the estate of Mrs. Watkins.

Terms of Sale Cash. L. A. Wittkowsky, Master for Kershaw County, Dec. 6, 1913.

Benevolent Mule.

A farmer once bought a mule at the market and named it Tough Hide, for it looked as if it had been accustomed to more blows than food. He put the animal in his little clover field, and this it seemed to enjoy very much. One morning Tough Hide saw a troop of asses coming down the lane, looking rather thin. He asked them if they would like a nice feed of sweet clover. "Ah, wouldn't we!" brayed the asses.

So the mule with his teeth drew out the staple which fastened the gate and let them in. Soon after the farmer passed by, and saw the animals eating his clover, so he got a cudgel and drove them all out. He not only gave the asses a sound thrashing, but he thrashed Tough Hide as well.

Moral.—Generosity is a good thing, but ought not to be practiced with other people's property.

CITATION.

State of South Carolina, County of Kershaw, By W. L. McDowell, Esquire, Probate Judge.

WHEREAS, John C. McGinley, made suit to me to grant him Letters of Administration of the Estate of and effects, of Daniel McGinley, deceased.

These are therefore to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said Daniel McGinley, deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Camden, S. C., on Dec. 22nd, next after publication thereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand and seal this 8th day of December, 1913.

W. L. McDowell, Judge of Probate Kershaw Co. Published on the 12th and 19th days of December, 1913, in the Camden Chronicle.

The Dixie Calendar for 1914. The Dixie Calendar for 1914 is more attractive than any of its predecessors. The quotations are presented in large, clear type, and are taken from the poetry, prose, and humorous folklore of Southern writers. The cover design represents a typical colonial home in three colors while the quotations are given in two colors throughout. Owing to its increased circulation, we are enabled to offer the 1914 Dixie Calendar for half the price of the former issues, or at 50c the copy, postpaid. Page Publishing Association, 849 Park Avenue, Baltimore, Md.

Eat More and Digest All

You know that there is nothing quite so aggravating and distressing as

DYSPEPSIA

—you can't eat half the time and then not what you are craving. If you are so situated—afraid to eat—food don't agree with you—stomach trouble when you do, it's a sure sign the digestive fluids are sluggish—the food is not properly assimilated. Stir them up, increase your appetite and eat your meals with enjoyment and relish. There is nothing quite so sure as

DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

—they will work wonders with your system, increase your vitality, and make your daily tasks a pleasure. We sell them in two sizes.
