

MANY WILL LIVE AT HOME

Indications That Farmers Are Heeding Advice of Experts.

Clemson College, Sept. 24.—Information received from all parts of the state indicate that farmers are enthusiastically putting into practice the things that Clemson College has been urging them to do for this autumn and winter. From many places come letters written by men who declare their intention to put large acres in oats and wheat. More interest than ever before is being shown in hog raising. Numerous requests for poultry information have been received. Many announce their intention to plant home gardens large enough to enable them really to "live at home" this winter.

It appears likely that the European war, as many have hoped it would, will teach the Southern farmer the folly of the one crop system so forcefully that he will adopt wiser ways. It begins now to look as if South Carolina farmers will not only manage to live and keep their families, hands and beasts through the winter, but, by planting oats and wheat and raising hogs, will have some money drops to bring them cash next spring.

Clemson College is getting out information as fast as mechanical facilities will allow. More than one hundred thousand circulars, plain in language and brief, have been printed and are being sent out for distribution through banks and similar agencies. There are several kinds of circulars, each intended to give the essential details about one thing, and more are being prepared.

Champion Cotton Pickers.

Luzoff, S. C., Oct. 1.—The three children of Mr. R. L. Baker, of this section, probably hold the record for this county in the number of pounds of cotton picked in one day. On Wednesday of this week Miss Beulah Baker gathered 307 pounds; Master Pong Baker, 250 pounds; and Miss Dora Baker, 245 pounds.

MIGHTY HAAG SHOWS

Have Large Number of Young Women Performers.

Wherever the mighty Haag Shows have exhibited, press and public have been a unit in praising the exceedingly large number of young and handsome women performers. Bevyes of the fair sex are represented among the riders, acrobats, contortionists, jugglers, high wire artists, gymnasts, bicyclists, clowns, animal trainers, chariot drivers, and in fact even among the ring masters. As may naturally be expected, keen rivalry exists between the lady and gentlemen artist, a fact which greatly enhances their performances.

The lengthy program presented this year by these shows contains only the best and most modern features that money and labor can procure, and in such quantity and variety as to satiate every artistic taste and fancy; lack of space prevents enumeration of all the different acts, many of which must be seen to be appreciated.

There is an extended list, the list of which does not by any means end the pleasures which the Mighty Haag Shows provide patrons Thursday, Oct. 8th, afternoon and evening, in Camden. There are sports of ancient Rome, and modern fete-day races and contests, then the big menagerie form a zoological display without a peer in all the world. Thus it will be seen that there is a royal holiday feast in store for all who attend.

"The Sins of The Father."

In "The Leopard's Spots," published ten years ago, and pronounced universally an epoch-making book on the race problem, Mr. Dixon presents the subject in its broad relations and society. In "The Sins of the Father," covering the same period of Southern history, it is treated in its more intimate relations to the home life of the people. With the subtle power of Ibsen the characters are developed in a drama that sweeps inevitably to its terrible climax, while the grimness of the story is relieved by many scenes of spontaneous, delightful humor.

It is not a tract on the race question, but, in a big, gripping, compelling drama of human interest the problem is symbolized in vivid pictures that haunt the imagination.

"The Sins of the Father" will be produced at the Opera House, Wednesday, Oct. 7th. Prices 25c to $1.00.

Camden Lady Writes of the War Spirit in Germany.

The last letter received by her family from Miss Freddie Bush, daughter of the late C. C. Bush, of New York, the noted cartoonist, was sent from Cothen in the Rheny Anholt, Germany, and was written just after war was declared. Miss Bush left last fall with her aunt, Mrs. Baker, and daughter to visit Mrs. Felix Friedhelm, who was so well known here as Miss Gladys Baker. After a half summer spent in the Hartz mountains they returned to "Villa Friedhelm" just before the terrible European upheaval took place.

Miss Bush narrates that the enthusiasm in Germany was extreme and the war spirit abroad in the land; that even she, a stranger in a strange land, was impressed and thrilled as hundreds upon hundreds of magnificently equipped men marched through singing in loud tones as one man the martial songs of their Fatherland. That it carried one out of themselves to the pitch of an intense feeling of pain.

Mr. Friedhelm has joined his regiment and is no doubt at the front and the friends of the young wife and infant soon hope that the whole party are homeward bound and news will next come from them in New York.

Their communication has been so cut off that no letters have reached the families.

Did Peoples Whip Blease?

Waxhaw Enterprise.—A traveling man in town last Saturday gave out some news very interesting here to people who actively participate in South Carolina politics. The said traveling man told that Attorney General Peoples whipped Governor Blease last week in the office of the chief executive. The alleged scrap came about in this manner. Peoples was in the governor's office bragging in a gentle manner about being the only Bleasite to land an office. The governor was not in a fit humor to be jostled on the subject and he told the attorney general some things. He accused Peoples of carrying water on both shoulders. He said that Peoples bartered and traded with the enemy and played the traitor to his friends. The governor also cursed the attorney general. Peoples could not take the insinuations, so he jumped on the governor and soundly walloped him. The papers did not publish an account of the interview owing to the prominence of the principals. The drummer said it was certainly so. He told this to Henry Collins. Collins said that since hearing this he no longer regrets the election of Peoples.

E. H. Rhame, a young bank teller, aged 23, in the employ of the Bank of Sumter, has been found short in his accounts to the amount of $31,759.01. Expressions of regret were heard on all sides as Mr. Rhame was a capable and efficient young man and well liked. His trouble is looked upon as the result of bad business deals more than from any intent to defraud.

We Are in The Race for Lead in Cotton Buying Movement

There is news from Europe that heartens the cotton crop. War may end soon.

A decisive result seems probable. If peace comes quickly we will be playing on VELVET.

It it does't—and war is mighty uncertain, remember—WE'RE SAFE ANYHOW.

Nothing but a disaster to the South could stop this "Buy-a-Bale" movement now.

LET'S HAMMER AWAY ON THIS "BUY-A-BALE" PLAN AS IF WE KNEW THE WAR WAS GOING TO LAST FOR YEARS. THEN WE CAN'T LOOSE.

This movement will not pause to watch developments in Europe, what it is doing does not depend on the outcome there. IT DEPENDS ON US—EVERYONE OF US.

The "Buy-a-Bale" movement has spread to all parts of the cotton belt and other regions too.

THE INTEREST THAT WANTS CHEAP COTTON ARE UP AGAINST THE SOLID SELF CONFIDENCE OF THE SOUTH NOW—WE'RE MOBILIZED.

Let us have a whirlwind campaign which will bring this county up to a mark that will compare favorably with others, in the Buy-a-Bale-of-Cotton movement.
