

LOCAL NEWS

OLD IRONSIDES.
 A tear her tattered ensign Long has it waved on high,
 And many an eye has danced
 To see
 That banner in the sky, Beneath it rung the battle shout And burst the cannon's roar.
 The meteor of the ocean air Shall sweep the clouds no more.
 Her deck, once red with heroes' blood, Where knelt the vanquished foe, When winds were hurrying o'er the Flood
 And waves were white below,
 No more shall feel the victor's tread
 Or know the conquered knee.
 The harpies of the shore shall pluck The eagle of the sea!
 Oh, better that her shattered hulk Should sink beneath the wave, Her thunders shook the mighty deep,
 And there should be her grave;
 And these should be her gravestones,
 Till every thighbone sail
 And give her to the god of storms, The lightning and the gate!
 —Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Clean Up Week Near.

Our Governor having graciously acceded to the desires and aims of the women of the state and having decreed a general Clean Up Week for South Carolina, we the ladies of the Civic League of Camden do request all citizens, white and colored, to observe April 5 to 12 inclusive as Clean Up Week, during which time the Health officer and committee will inspect all premises, public buildings and places of business and award prizes for most sanitary ones.
 We also request our mayor, health officer and street commissioner to cooperate with us in every way possible to furnish carts for carrying off trash, etc. and to have the streets of the city cleaned and all back lots attended to.
 Let "Clean and Screen" be our motto.
 Mrs. E. C. von Tresckow, Pres. Civic League.

Change of Ownership.

David L. Shatenstein and T. M.
 Dempster have bought out the black-and carriage shop formerly operated by Graddick & Gaskins on West DeKalb street, and the place will now be in charge of Mr. Dempster, who is an experienced wood worker, and who will make considerable changes in the business. The new owners intend to improve the business and give the public a first class service in this line.

Looking to Commencement.

Commencement exercises of the Camden Graded Schools will be held this year beginning on the 28th day of May. This year will be a record breaker in the number of graduates at the High School. There are now thirty-two in the tenth grade and if all attend the entire term there will be that number to graduate. It is Supt. Simpson's desire to add another grade to the school for the next season. He says it is practically certain that should another teacher be secured and the school equipment furnished there will be at least ten young ladies and gentlemen to take the eleventh grade.

To Present Operetta.

On Friday night, April 16th, at the Opera House, the pupils of the Camden Schools will present an operetta.
 Several of the principal parts will be taken by students of the High School while the large choruses are composed of children of the Grammar grades. Fortunately the services of Mrs. Ernest Zemp were obtained in training these choruses and an excellent performance is assured. Admission will be 25c for adults and 15c for children. The proceeds will be used to improve the equipment of the school.

Services at Grace Church.

Friday, April 2nd will be observed as Good Friday in Grace Episcopal Church with special services at 7:30 and 11:15 a. m. and 5 p. m. The regular Good Friday services with sermon being at 11:15 a. m.

Sunday April 4th, Easter Day, there will be appropriate services with special Easter music. The services will begin with the first celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m.
 At 11:15 a. m. there will be the usual Easter service with sermon and second celebration of the Holy Communion, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon the Easter Carol service. The public is cordially invited.

Easter Beauties.

The Easter tide has brought many beautiful gifts, of Nature and everywhere is suggestive of the glorious Easter season. Art has also brought from her storehouse of treasures. Have you seen the lovely Easter hats at Miss Gerald's Millinery emporium?
 If not it will certainly pay you to call early and remember that "a thing of beauty is a joy forever."

Additional Contributions.

By request of the Executive Committee of the Camden Hospital we publish a list of contributors to the Hospital fund paid to furnishing account as a result of a canvas made by E.
 H. Dibble and J. D. McLain among our colored friends.

This amount was paid to Mr. Baruch the treasurer, on February 19th, 1914, and the list of contributors was handed to Capt. Shannon, the president.
 By an oversight in the hurry of getting up the annual report of the Hospital the list of names was overlooked and not published.

The executive committee takes pleasure in now publishing this list of contributors and to extend to them their thanks on behalf of Camden Hospital:

NEW IDEAS FOR SPRING FROCKS.

Short Skirts With Plain and Scalped Edges—Girdles and Belts.

New York, Mar. 30.—All dresses are full short whether for morning, afternoon, or evening wear. Collars are high in the back with some kind of an opening in front. One dress of black taffeta has a collar high in the back with a flaring white organdy collar above; around the collar and tying in a bow in front is a piece of black ribbon, giving the collar an old-time stock appearance. Below the ribbon bow is an open V, where the bare neck shows.
 Another rather military model with a V neck has a collar high in the back and coming a little forward, where it is caught by a loop of cord to a brass button on each side.

Many skirts are finished with a slashed or scalped lower edge, which is bound with the same or a contrasting material. One striking and practical dress which I have recently seen with this feature was of black voile over taffeta, in a shade of plum verging into old rose. The bodice of the dress had almost the appearance of a jacket.
 The voile was fitted plain over the silk and both were gathered together at the waistline, so it had the appearance of being a shadowy solid color. The collar lined with the taffeta was high at the back, and on the sides were separate pieces, which looked like petals, to frame the face. The skirt of black voile hung independently of the silk underskirt, and was slashed around the bottom and bound with black voile and piped with the finest edge of the silk. The underskirt was also slashed and bound of itself. A wide pleated girdle of the silk surrounded the waist, crossed in the back and tied loosely in the front. An important feature of this dress was the sleeves, which were 3-4 and not full length. They were a narrow bell shape and faced back with the silk on the right side.

For the summer dress many models of pongee are shown. One pongee dress was trimmed with royal blue embroidery. The bodice was of pongee with a pleated front of chiffon exactly the same shade. The collar was low and extended out to the shoulder-tips, scalloped in the front and embroidered in the blue. A frill of ecru lace edged the collar and extended down the front of the waist. The long, close-fitting sleeves were finished with narrow cuffs embroidered with the blue. The skirt was made with a yoke in front, and falling from the yoke was a pleated section, while at the sides the yoke and skirt were in one.

Another pongee dress made in semi-Princess style is trimmed down the front of the waist with braid in military style, and the edge of the opening of the waist, which extends to the waistline is finished with a rather large cord which knots loosely.

A new style of collar which is taking many people by storm is made of white linen. It is cut circular and placed on a band around the neck at the height of the "Adam's apple" and extends out to the shoulder-tips, and in more extreme ones a bit beyond. The general effect of these collars is a richness not unlike the Puritan collars which we see in old pictures. But, as some one said not long ago, "A dress may look

The New Frilled Frocks, in This Instance Developed in Voile.

very much like the old styles, but rest assured there is something different about it." In this case it is the V of bare neck which shows as the collar spreads away from where it is fastened. With this collar are worn deep cuffs. Sometimes the material used for this collar-and-cuff set is of doubled linen, and again it is of single linen with frills of narrow embroidery or lace on the edge. They also often have insets of lace medallions.

The above illustration is of flowered voile. The skirt is ruffled at the bottom and in the middle with two narrow ruffles. The waist is quite simple with three-quarter bell sleeves. A vest and collar of white voile gives the dainty touch of white which adds so much to the dainty colors of the new materials.

Girdles and belts which are to be worn with the spring frocks and suits are both wide and narrow and many dresses have none at all, so for once these may be suited to the individual taste. Wide pleated girdles are to be seen on some dresses, ending with long sash-ends, which are crossed either back or front and tied loosely.

With Mrs. Coleman.

The Young Woman's Society of the Methodist Church had an agreeable hostess in Mrs. C. M. Coleman on Friday afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated in the Lenten colors of purple and gold. Quantities of jonquills and violets being used. After business the hostess served dainty refreshments, and a delightful social hour was spent. This is a wideawake society and has done much for the Lyttleton Street Methodist Church.
 They have recently placed a handsome tablet on the corner of the building, giving name of Church and date of dedication. They have also done a great deal in improving grounds, pavements, etc., adding to the beauty of the garden by planting hedges and lovely flowers.

Attended Trustees Meeting.

Columbia, March 30.—Senator Tillman was in Columbia on his way to Trenton from Washington. Last night he attended a meeting of the board of trustees of Winthrop College at Rock Hill.

Governor Manning returned this morning from Rock Hill.

With Miss Nan DeLoache.

The Junior bridge club was delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon by Miss Nan DeLoache. The cozy rooms with blooming plants and lovely spring flowers, were in striking contrast to the dreary weather without.
 After several spirited games the hostess served a salad course with hot chocolate.

Colored Woman Dead.

Lucinda Brisbane, age 70 years, the wife of James Brisbane, one of the old time negroes of Camden, died in the lower part of the city yesterday.
