

AN ORDINANCE

to Regulate the Running of Automobiles or Motor Vehicles, Public Hacks and Transfers, Upon the Public Highways of the City of Camden, and Prohibiting the Stopping of Vehicles Except in Certain Areas, at the Corner of DeKalb and Broad Streets, and Fixing a Penalty for the Violation Thereof.

City Council of Camden, Camden, S. C., Sept. 7, 1915.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Camden, S. C., in due session assembled, the seventh day of September, 1915, Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person to operate an automobile or motor vehicle in the streets of the City of Camden, without first having obtained a license from the Clerk of the Court of the County where such operator or operator resides, in accordance with the statute law of the state, and without having first placed upon the back of such vehicle, in a conspicuous place, the name of the County in which his certificate is filed, and also the number of such vehicle, which name and number shall be plainly marked and printed thereon, the numbers in Arabic numerals, black on white ground, of not less than three inches in height, the stroke to be of width not less than one-half inch. In case of dealers in motor vehicles, each shall carry the name of the dealer and his license number.

Section 11. Any person operating an automobile or motor vehicle in meeting another automobile or motor vehicle, shall pass to the right of each other, and that whenever overtaken in the front, the front machine giving way if necessary, to the right of the following machine. Automobiles or motor vehicles shall keep to the right of the highway and never depart therefrom except in case of emergency. On approaching corners, or vehicles, or persons, horns or alarms shall be sounded emphatically several times. Corners must be turned at a speed not over five miles an hour, and all crossings passed at a slow speed. Before making a turn at any corner or elsewhere, the driver of same shall by wave of the hand indicate the fact that he is going to make the turn.

Section 3. Any person operating an automobile or motor vehicle, before crossing at the intersection of Broad and DeKalb Streets from any direction, in addition to giving the alarm at the approach of the corner, and when making the turn, at said point, signifying same by movement of the hand as indicated in Section 2 hereof, shall always pass the drinking fountain at the intersection of said Broad and DeKalb Streets so that said fountain shall be to the left of said car or motor vehicle. All automobiles shall slow down to five miles an hour before crossing at the intersection of said Broad and DeKalb Streets. No automobile, motor truck, or vehicle of any description, shall stop at the intersection of DeKalb and Broad Streets, in the area embraced in the four cement crossings at said corner, except momentarily when necessary, for the purpose of crossing or turning at said point, or for the purpose of using said drinking fountain, and only so long as necessary to use same.

Section 4. A person operating a motor vehicle shall, at the request or upon a signal by putting up the hand, from a person riding or driving a restive horse or horses, or other draft animal, bring such motor vehicle immediately to a stop if necessary, having regard for safety of persons, vehicles and animals traveling in opposite direction, remaining stationary so long as may be reasonable to allow such horse or animals to pass. And in traveling in the same direction, the person or persons operating the motor vehicle shall not pass any person or persons in charge of an animal or animals, if requested by such person or persons in charge of such animal or animals to do so until such person or persons have gotten to a place where they could drive such animal or animals out of the road, or when passage could be safely effected, or when such person or persons, without such cause or excuse intentionally obstruct the passage of any motor vehicle; Provided that in case such horse or animal appears badly frightened, or he is requested to do so, the person operating such motor vehicle shall cause the motor of such vehicle to cease running so long as shall be reasonably necessary to prevent accident and insure the safety of persons, vehicles and animals.

Section 5. That after dusk, each motor vehicle in operation shall have lit at least one light on the front and one in the rear of said motor vehicle; the front light to be of such power as to throw a light at least two hundred (200) feet, and enable any one in said vehicle to see plainly for that distance.

Section 6. That all engines of motor vehicles must run with mufflers closed, except in case of testing engine for a few minutes.

Section 7. That no driver of automobiles or motor vehicles shall operate his machine on the public streets of the City of Camden in a dangerous manner or at a dangerous speed. Inattention in driving automobiles or motor vehicles is considered dangerous to the public and is prohibited. That under no circumstances shall an automobile or motor vehicle run on the streets of the City of Camden at a rate of speed of more than fifteen (15) miles an hour.

Section 8. That it shall be unlawful for any person under the age of fourteen (14) years to operate an automobile or motor vehicle on the public streets of the City, unless some one of mature age, fully competent to run said automobile, is sitting on the seat beside such child, and having supervision over the running of same.

Section 9. That it shall be unlawful for any person within the City of Camden, without the consent of the owner or person having in charge any automobile or motor vehicle, to get in, stand on any part, or interfere in any way with the same.

Section 10. That all public hacks and transfers after dusk, while being driven on the public streets of the City of Camden, shall carry lights, said lights to be approved by the Street Commissioner of the City of Camden.

Section 11. That any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction, be fined a sum not more than One Hundred Dollars, or be imprisoned for not more than thirty days, and that such imprisonment, at the discretion of the Recorder, of the City of Camden, be accompanied with the additional requirement of hard labor on the streets of said City.

Section 12. All ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting with this ordinance be, and the same are hereby, revoked, and this ordinance shall take effect on the 25th day of September, 1915.

Ratified in Council assembled, this 7th day of September, 1915.

C. H. YATES, Mayor.
J. J. GOODALE, City Clerk.

WOMAN'S NAVY LEAGUE

Formed to Arouse Interest in Movement For National Defense.

Mrs. E. C. vonTresckow, of this city and Miss Mary T. McNeill, of Lynchburg, S. C., have been appointed members of the National Committee of the Woman's Section of the Navy League of the United States to organize the local work of that body in arousing the women of the United States to the necessity in the present days of stress and peril to work for the ends of patriotism and national defense. They will act in conjunction with a body of more than a thousand of the most prominent women in every section of the United States numbering among them Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens, Pres. Gen. Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Wm. Cumming Storey, Pres. Gen. D. A. R.; Miss Anne Morgan, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, Mrs. Medill McCormick, Mrs. Alex Van Rensseler, Mrs. A. P. Gardner, Mrs. Thomas Edlison, Mrs. George Dewey, Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie, Mrs. George Harvey, Miss Grace M. Pierce, Registrar of the D. A. R.; Mrs. Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Miss Julia Marlowe and a host of others.

The Woman's Section of the Navy League is the first and only Woman's organization in this country working for the cause of patriotism and National Defense. It was organized by a number of patriotic women in Washington whose husbands were members of the men's Navy League who thought that women ought to have some part in the National Defense movement exclusively their own. The Section's call to the women of America to rally to the cause of patriotism instantly struck a responsive keynote in the hearts and imaginations of the patriotic women all over the country, and the Section has spread like wild-fire. Letters have been received from prominent women all over the country, enthusiastically endorsing the League, and memberships have been pouring in at the rate of several thousand a day. At present, although the work has been in progress only a little more than two weeks, the Section has over ten thousand active working members, an enthusiasm runs high. "It is time that the women of this country freed themselves from the stigma of standing for peace at any price, lack of preparedness and national cowardice, and rallied to the standard of patriotism and Americanism, as did their mothers and grand-mothers in 1776 and 1812," says a typical letter from Miss Grace M. Pierce, Registrar of the D. A. R.

American women today are like the women of every other country, the fountain-head of true patriotism, true courage and true Nationalism. The spirit of Dolly Madison, Martha Washington and Nancy Hanks still lives in the land. When the test comes American women will tell their husbands and sons to go serve their country and come back with their shields on them just as bravely and just as cheerfully as did the Spartan women ages ago. I am with the new woman's movement for patriotism and National Defense heart and soul, and think that such a movement should have been started long ago."

Among others from whom enthusiastic letters have been received are Mrs. George Dewey, Mrs. John A. Logan, wife of Gen. Logan of Civil War fame; Mrs. Mary A. Lockwood, founder of the D. A. R.; Mrs. Douglas Robinson, sister of Theodore Roosevelt, and Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie. The Woman's Section hopes before autumn to pledge one hundred thousand women to think, talk and work patriotism, Americanism and National Defense. To that end it is sending out printed pledges to women all over the United States. When these pledges are returned signed they will be attached to a monster petition to Congress for National Defense. By the time Congress assembled the Section hopes to be able to present in the neighborhood of half a million signed pledges from women for National Defense.

The Woman's Section also intends to give a gigantic, patriotic national pageant in Washington in the Fall, and has offered a cash prize of $100 for the most acceptable scenario, the scenarios to be judged by a committee consisting of David Belasco, Julia Marlowe, Col. George Harvey, Mrs. William Cumming Storey and Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens. Several thousand women and children will take part in the pageant in the Capital City, and no effort will be spared to make it the most impressive affair of its kind ever given in the Nation's Capital. In the various localities in which the Section builds up strong organizations other pageants will be held. Boards of Trade and Commercial and Political bodies of all sorts will be visited and no effort will be spared to point out to the law-makers of the country the necessity of providing National Defense, and of adopting such measures as shall encourage the growth of true patriotism throughout the land.

The pledge of the Woman's Section of the Navy League is as follows:

Membership Pledge.
I pledge myself to think, talk and work for patriotism, Americanism and sufficient national defenses to keep the horrors of war far from America's homes and shores forever.

In these days of world strife and peril I will strive to do my share to awaken our nation and our lawmakers to the dangers of our present undefended condition so that we may continue to dwell in peace and prosperity and may not have to mourn states desolated by war within our borders.

In so far as I am able, I will make my home a center of American ideals and patriotism, and endeavor to teach the children in my care to cherish and revere Our Country and its history, and to uphold its honor and fair repute in their generation.

ARMENIAN NATION

Is a Nation Without a Country And Has Long Suffered.

"Swallowed up in the maelstrom of the southern Caucasus, which is now aflame with the strife of the Turks and the Russians, and near the meeting point of Persia, Russia and Turkey, is situated the most treasured and sacred possession of the Armenian Nation, a Nation without a country and with the longest record of bravely borne suffering of any people, and this possession is the monastery and cathedral of Echmiadzin, the Holy See of the Armenian Christians, the heart of the Armenian Nation and the source of that strength that has held together and guided the Armenians through centuries of persecution, warfare and massacre," begins a bulletin recently issued by the National Geographic Society.

"Echmiadzin is the seat of the Catholicos, or primate, of the Gregorian Armenian Church, the sustaining force and the inspiration of a people whose lives and labors have been passed for 1,000 years under the shadow of unnatural death. Nearly 1,000 years have gone by since the fall of the last definite political state of the Armenians, yet their church has held them in their National consciousness, and has preserved in them their distinguishing racial and social characteristics. Almost every member of the Armenian Nation belongs to the Armenian church, which counts its martyrs by the scores of thousands. The Church is more than his religion to the Armenian; it is his patriotism, his hope for survival, and the banner under which he has rallied for progress, education and justice for his people.

"Mount Ararat, where Noah landed, lies just to the south of the venerable Armenian See. Here runs the Russo-Turkish frontier, while a few miles to the southeast lies Persia. The monastery lies about 8,000 feet above the sea, 40 miles north of Ararat, and 12 miles west of Erivan, the Capital of the Russian Government in which it is situated. The Armenian Rome is surrounded by massive, grey mud walls, which enclose the monastery, the cathedral and an academy. The buildings arranged around a great quadrangle, in the center of which stands the cathedral of St. Gregory, the Illuminator, a Church of more ancient beginning than even far-famed Sanota Sophia of Constantinople. It has been the bulwark of Christianity against the barbarians of Asia since 302, and, though its light has been unusually severe, long, and heroic, little is known of Echmiadzin among the peoples of the war.

"Throughout the years during which the Armenians have been divided between three more or less unfriendly States, Russia, Persia and the Ottoman Empire, and during their centuries of still more bitter suffering before the advent of Russia into the Caucasus, the Armenians have turned to Echmiadzin for guidance and support in all their troubles—and the history of this people generally impresses the student as being just one trouble after another with little justification for hope. The ancient grey monastery has been the religious, political and cultural center of the Armenian world.

"The library of Echmiadzin is a treasure-store of Armenian documents and literature, and among its shelves are kept some remarkable manuscripts of the Gospels, dating from the ninth to the tenth centuries. The monks maintain a type-foundry and a printing press, and they have accomplished great things for the education of their people and for the development of Armenian literature. The academy connected with Echmiadzin is one of the first educational institutions in the Armenian world, and many of its pupils do excellent graduate work in the German and Russian universities. It was founded under Catholicos George IV in 1873, and regularly trains between 200 and 300 boys.

"The Armenian Church is claimed by its adherents to be the oldest established Christian Church in the world, having been founded in the first part of the third century. It is, probably the most National of all Churches in the world, for only Armenians belong to it. Today the 'Heart of Armenia' is in the midst of the path where savage contests are ebbing and flowing, and where, according to reports, destruction has become the law and reigns supreme."

Interesting Test.
"When Josh got home from his education," said Farmer Cornstossel, "according to the Washington Star, 'he started right in instructin' me about agriculture. So I didn't lose no time to try him out."
"What did you do?"
"Sent him out to round up a swarm of bees."
"Was the experiment successful?"
"Some. It didn't hurt the bees one an' kept Josh from gettin' in the way fur 'most two weeks."
