ANGLO-AMERICANS LOSE

Increase in Levy for War Will Cost Millions.

The smart wealthy Anglo-American contingent in London will be hit severely by the increase in the new war income tax.

Other estimates by them were Mrs. William B. Leeds, $300,000; the Duchess of Roxbury, $170,000; Lady Grand, $100,000; Mrs. Beatty, wife of Admiral Beatty, formerly Miss Edith Field, daughter of the late Marshall Field, $200,000; Paris Singer, $100,000; Lady Waldstein, formerly Mrs. Seligman, $60,000; the Duchess of Manchester, $50,000; Mrs. John Astor, $30,000; Mrs. Bingham, formerly Mrs. Alice Chaucey, between $40,000 and $50,000 and her sister, Lady Cmarad, $25,000.

While British automobile manufacturers did not discuss their satisfaction over the 13 per cent tax on American machines, there was considerable pessimism among the agents of American makes, although for the most part they believe that it will be necessary for persons to get cars in America.

ITEMS OVER THE STATE. G. W. Arnold, of Columbia, Wednesday morning filed, in the United States district court, papers in a personal injury damage suit against the Southern railway. The amount asked by the plaintiff is $15,000.

Charlie M. Roof was shot and killed Wednesday afternoon by T. Frank Griffith, both of Lexington county. Both are prominent citizens. Griffith is a brother of Capt. D. J. Griffith, for years superintendent of the state penitentiary.

The Southeastern Life Insurance company of Greenville, wrote me that $1,000,000 of insurance in this state during the month of September, 1915, October 14, inclusive.

A jury in Greenville last Friday returned a verdict to the effect that Chas. Rouben Goulet of the Greenville city police, was entirely within his rights in solving 47 cases of willful and malicious injury from the Charleston and Western Carolina railway...
