SEEIN' THINGS AT NIGHT.

AIN'T afraid of snakes or toads or bugs or worms or mice. An' things 'at girls are skeered of I think are awful nice. I'm pretty brave, I guess, an' yet I hate to go to bed. Or, when I'm tucked up warm an' snug an' when my prayers are said, other tells me "Happy dreams!" an' takes away the light. It leaves me lyin' all alone an' seein' things at night!

Some times they're in the corner, some times they're by the door, sometimes they're all a-standin' in the middle of the floor; sometimes they are a-sittin' down, some times they're walkin' round an' round, an' some times they're creepin' like they never make a sound. Sometimes they are as black as ink, an' other times they're white, but the color ain't no difference when you see things at night!

Once, when I kiked a feller 'at had just moved on our street an' father sent me up to bed without a bite to eat, I woke up in the dark an' saw things standin' in a row lookin' at me cross eyed an' pintin' at me—so!

Oh, my! I WUZ so skeered that time I never sleep'd a mite. It's almost alluz when I'm bad 'at I see things at night!

Lucky thing I ain't a girl or I'd be skeered to death!

Bein' I'm a boy, I duck my head an' hold my breath.

An' I'm, oh, so sorry I'm a naughty boy, an' then I promise to be better an' I say my prayers again.

Gran'ma tells me that's the only way to make it right.

When a feller has been wicked an' seein' things at night!

An' so when other naughty boys would coax me into sin I try to skwush the tempter's voice 'at urges me within; an' when they're pie for supper or cakes 'at's big an' nice, I want to, but I do not pass my plate f'r them things twice.

No, rather let starvation wipe me slowly out of sight.

Than I should keep a-livin' on an' seein' things at night!

NOTED VIOLINIST TO GIVE RECITAL HERE

In order to develop and sustain "The Garden School" for boys and girls along modern lines of thought and training at Columbia, S. C., Miss May Alden, the well known New York violinist and writer will undertake a spring tour through the South assisted by a harpist and Mrs. Ethel H. Newbold, pianist. The company known as "The Trio of the Garden," will give a recital in this city about March 1st.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING SPENT AT LUGOFF.

On Friday evening it was the privilege of the writer to attend a hot supper at the Lugoff school house, given to help swell the fund for the new Presbyterian church which the little band of Presbyterians of West Water are hope to build in the near future. When we say that the supper was prepared and served by such notable housekeepers as Mrs. John Gattys and Mrs. James Team with such efficient help as most of the West Water housewives can give, everyone will understand that it could not have been surpassed. With a full moon, perfect weather, and the road in fine condition, riding was a delight. The crowd was large, Camden being well represented—Mr. Rowan, Mrs. Sill, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Leslie Zemp, Mrs. Geo. Taylor, Miss Margaret Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. James Clyburn, Messrs. Ben DeLenehe, W. M. Lollis, F. D. Campbell, A. L. Watkins, were some of the persons present from our town.

The supper was beautifully served and most bountiful. Quite a nice sum was realized and after an evening of unalloyed pleasure the company left, wishing success to their entertainers and hoping soon again to be so royally entertained. One present.

Mrs. G. W. Brunson, Jr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffin, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shannon.

STATE FAIR QUEEN MARRIED.

Miss McKelthan, of Georgetown, Weds Mr. Cooper, of Camden.

Miss Bessie McKelthan, of Georgetown, known to the entire state as the Queen of the Harvest Jubilee at the State Fair, and Mr. Charles O. Cooper, of Camden, were married by the Rev. S. B. Harper, pastor of Bethel church, here, yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was a quiet one and was performed at the pastor's residence, 207 Cathoun street, shortly after 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will leave this morning for Tampa and other points in Florida, where they will spend their honeymoon. Yesterday afternoon the couple enjoyed an automobile ride about the city and were delighted with the many interesting places visited.

Miss McKelthan arrived from Georgetown yesterday morning, accompanied by her friend, Mrs. W. E. DeVore. They were met by Mr. Cooper at immediately to the St. John Hotel, where luncheon was had after a visit had been paid to the judge of probate and a marriage license secured.

The bride was attired in a dark traveling suit, black hat and veil. When seen at the Charleston Hotel, just previous to the automobile ride, she was smiling, and appeared to be as happy as the proverbial "lark."

She did not want a large wedding and the attendant fuss and function, so when Mrs. DeVore, a warm personal friend, announced that she was going to Charleston on a shopping expedition she decided that it would be an appropriate time to have the ceremony performed. Arrangements were made accordingly. Yes, Mrs. Cooper said she liked Charleston very much, and was, of course, as happy as could be. This was said with a shy look towards Mr. Cooper. Mrs. Cooper expressed surprise that the news of the wedding traveled so fast. It was not a runaway match, but was kept quiet so as to avoid the gathering of her scores of friends at Georgetown.

Mr. Cooper is a young business man of Camden, being secretary of the Davidson Lumber Company. He was formerly employed at Georgetown, where he met Miss McKelthan about a year ago.—News and Courier.

Mr. Cooper is a native of Mayesville, S. C., having been born and reared there. He has been a resident of Camden only a short while, but has made many friends who will congratulate him on his good fortune.

MRS. W. O. HAY WAS THE HOSTESS.

Last Thursday afternoon the members of the Maids' and Matrons' bridge club had a pleasant meeting with Mrs. W. O. Hay. The house was beautiful in its decorations of green ferns and cut flowers. Mrs. D. A. Boykin and Mrs. J. T. Hay were the substitutes. A delightful salad course was served.

EMBROIDERY CLUB MET WITH MRS. WOOTEN.

The Fair street embroidery club had a delightful meeting on Monday afternoon with Mrs. F. M. Wooten. In addition to the regular members, several visitors were present. After sewing for a while, a salad course with sandwiches and coffee was served.

THEATRE PARTY FOR VISITOR.

A happy theatre party was gotten up last Friday night by Mrs. Wm. King in honor of her sister Miss Nell McLean. After the movies the party enjoyed a visit to the ice cream parlor.

LUNCHEON IN HONOR OF MRS. GRAVES.

Mrs. R. W. Mitcham entertained last Tuesday morning at a delightful luncheon in honor of Mrs. John Graves, wife of Rev. John Graves, pastor of the Lytleton Street Methodist Church. A dozen guests were present to receive Mrs. Graves into their midst. The honor guest was presented with a lovely pot plant as a token of the hostess' true friendship. A salad course with coffee was served.

John L. McLaurin, warehouse commissioner, was re-elected on the first ballot by the General Assembly Wednesday, the vote being: McLaurin 91; Frank M. Cary 49; John J. McMahan, 22.

ON SPRING COUNTERS.

May We Expect the Return of the Bonnet?

New York, January 24 1915.—Even the most skeptical among us must be thrilled and interested by the attractive novelties Fashion is now placing on her spring counters, and in her spring shops. For instance there are the quaint bonnets which are being displayed at the moment in our millinery departments, as a logical sequence of the modish gathered and flaring skirts.

Fluttering about one of these bonnets, is the creation of garnet braided and white gardenias, in one of our smart shops the other afternoon, was a quaintly smart little person, dressed all in gray. She wore one of the new fable suits, made with a rather close fitting coat, flaring widely at the lower edge, combined with the most modern of old-fashioned skirts. It was a veritable "pull-back" having all of the fulness drawn to the back and held by a tape fastened at the side seam. It hung smoothly and plainly across the front as the narrowest of skirts did some seasons back. From belt to hem in back, the skirt was stiffened with haircloth, causing the fulness to fall in several outstanding folds. At the in-

Mr. At Home Of Mrs. Whistler.

The Wednesday morning club had a most delightful meeting this week with Mrs. K. G. Whistler.

The parlor, where tables were arranged for cards, was prettily decorated in pot plants and ferns. A salad course was served after cards were laid aside.

BRIDGE PARTY TO MISS McLEAN.

A lovely bridge party was given last Friday morning by Mrs. Ralph Stevenson in honor of Miss Nell McLean, of Gastonia, N. C. The house was beautifully decorated in ferns and flowers. Mrs. Elen McLeod won the score prize, a pair of embroidery scissors and the honor guest was presented with a lovely box of stationery. At noon a course luncheon was served.

Parcel Post Sale Tonight

The Young Women's Church Society of the Lytleton Street Methodist church held its regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Kershaw Lang, with Mrs. N. C. Arnette as hostess. The rooms were lovely in their decorations of narcissus, hyacinths and jonquills. At this meeting, plans were perfected for the Parcel Post Social to be given tonight at Miss Martha Gerold's store from 7:30 until 11 o'clock. Every body is invited to attend this entertainment as a merry time is expected to be spent by all. Chicken salad with coffee will be sold. Admission free.

Spraying The Hedges.

The Civic League is glad to announce that, thanks to Mr. Sherman, Mr. A. M. Trotter and Mr. Whitaker, the spraying is getting under way nicely; Miss Eldredge and Mrs. vonTresckow, superintending the work in their neighborhoods.

The property holders are asked again to rake all leaves and grass and clippings from under the hedges and burn them. This retards the work and is absolutely necessary. Two ladies of the League are asked to superintend the blocks near them and each household must take the time expended in the yard and superintend the work to save themselves and the League money and time. We hope to have another pump at work soon.

Married.

Mr. Charlie Hinson, of Camden, S. C., Rte. 3, and Miss Pannale Freeman, of Lugoff, were married on Saturday evening last, the 22nd, inst., probate judge McDowell officiating.

Mr. Leonard Ray and Miss Belle Branham, both of Lugoff, were married on Sunday afternoon last, the 23rd, inst., probate judge McDowell officiating.

Wedding of Interest.

A wedding in Greenville which will be of interest is that of Miss Mary Gibbs Mitchell, daughter of Rev. Alexander R. Mitchell, rector of Christ church, to Mr. Robert Barnwell Clarkson, of Eastover, S. C., the wedding to take place in Christ church, January 31. No invitations have been issued the wedding to be witnessed only by the immediate family.

A Gift to The School.

In response to a request made thru these columns for the donation of curios, minerals, etc., and a case in which to preserve the specimens already in the high school, Mrs. Florence Dow, of Hobkirk Inn, has presented the Camden High School with a valuable and interesting collection of minerals and an excellent case in which this collection has been displayed. This method is taken for the purpose of acknowledging Mrs. Dow's interest in the school and thanking her for her generosity. It is hoped that some of our town people will follow this example.

DR. W. R. EVE DEAD.

Was Father of Mr. W. R. Eve, Jr., Formerly of Camden.

Beaufort, S. C., Jan. 23.—News has been received here of the death of W. R. Eve in a hospital in Savannah yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock after an illness of about one year. Dr. Eve has lived on his plantation "Rocky Road" on Broad river during the past 60 years where he farmed success fully, and his death has come as a shock to this section.

Dr. Eve enlisted in the Confederate army when 16 years of age, during the third year of the Civil War. He was captured soon after enlisting and imprisoned in Chicago until the close of the war. He was graduated from the Medical college of Augusta when 21 years of age. Several years ago he has been interested in truck farming and it was at this time that he came to this section.

Dr. Eve was married by 1871 to Miss Elizabeth Hammond, the daughter of former United States Senator James Ogle Hammond of Beuch Island. They have five sons and four daughters—John, John, The children are: Edward A. Eve, of Charleston; William R. Eve, of this city; J. Hampton A. Eve, of Savannah; Hartford C. Eve, of this city also; Phillip H. Eve, of Charleston; Mrs. George T. Bryan, of Bennettsville; Mrs. B. W. Fair, of Beuch Island; Miss Annie Hampton Eve, of Beaufort, and Mrs. Paul Dunbar of Augusta.

Will Be Shown at The Majestic Next Wednesday Evening.

"The Catspaw," a five reel Edison Photoplay released through Kleine-Edison Feature Service will be offered at the Majestic Theatre next Wednesday, Feb. 2nd. Miriam Nesbitt and Marc MacDermott, talented popular Edison filmsters are featured in this picture.

"The Catspaw," an Edison photodrama, is well named, because as the story develops on the film, an actor who had agreed to act as a "double" for an employer, found he had been used as a dupe or catspaw, while the man who hired him was robbing banks.

By consenting to serve as a double, he stirred up trouble not only for himself, but also for a charming girl who had fallen in love with him.

"The Catspaw" is a five reel production, released through Kleine-Edison Feature Service, which will be offered at the Majestic Theatre next Wednesday.—adv.

To Meet With Mrs. Shannon Monday.

The Hospital Auxiliary Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Shannon on Monday afternoon, Jan. 31 at four o'clock.

It is the meeting at which the dues for 1916 should be paid.

If all of the ladies of the town who have been contributing twenty-five cents a year to the support of the hospital will bring or send it to this meeting, it will be a great help to the hospital and to the ladies who have so kindly every year gone around and collected it.

Please, ladies, don't forget.
