SIXTY-EIGHT YEARS YOUNG.

Another Happy Birthday Rolls Round For Mr. D. W. Joy.

On Sunday, Jan. 30th, Mr. D. W. Joy celebrated his 68th birthday. It falling on Sunday and some of his children living quite a distance, only three of his older children were present. However, a few invited guests were present and it is only putting it mildly to say that they spent a delightful day at his hospitable home. At 12:30 all were invited to dinner and each one did justice if not more, as his estimable wife certainly knows how to prepare a dinner that is calculated to cause the dispeptic to have a spell. This venerable old gentleman is wonderfully preserved for a man of his age as he remarked while eating dinner that he was feeling just as good as he ever did. He is one of the oldest men in our community, he is a staunch Mason and takes great pleasure in the work of Antioch lodge, having served as worshipful master from the time it was organized until the last election, at which time he did not stand for reelection, realizing that the younger men should be in office and bear the burden.

Mr. Joy has twelve living children—six by his first wife and six by his last wife. They are: Mr. W. E. Joy, Camden route 5; R. B. Joy, Lynehburg; D. G. Joy, Camden route 1; J. E. and J. C. Joy, Sumter; and Mrs. D. O. Brunson, Davis Station. By these children he has 14 grandchildren. His last wife's children are all at home with him—Arthur, Daisy, Elma, Henry, Harold and W. B.

After dinner, a few selections of sacred music were rendered on the organ by Mrs. Beulah Joy, the old gentleman's wife. The writer can't recall the time when he enjoyed an occasion of this kind more fully. Several children were also present and enjoyed themselves hugely as some of the grown ups would take part in their innocent plays. May this dear old man live to celebrate several more birt!

We hope that it will be our good fortune to be with him again on one of these occasions. A Guest.

WOMAN SHOTS MINISTER

Claims to Have Been Insulted in Sherman, Texas.

Sherman, Texas, Feb. 8.—Rev. H. M. Cagle, a prominent minister, was shot and probably fatally wounded on the public square here late today by Mrs. Annie Faust, wife of Finis Faust, a farmer who lives near Denison, Texas. Charles Barton, 15, a by-stander, was struck by a stray bullet and slightly wounded.

Mrs. Faust was arrested but later was released on $1,000 bond and returned home with her husband who was summoned after the shooting. Physicians tonight said there was only a slight chance that Mr. Cagle would recover.

Officers who arrested the woman said she asserted that the minister had slandered her.

Mrs. Faust is said to have come to Sherman on a shopping trip and encountered the minister as she was leaving a store. According to bystanders she drew a revolver from her hand bag and fired five shots.

If any words were exchanged apparently none of the persons nearby overheard them.

GERMAN PLOTTERS ARRESTED.

Charged With Having Been Connected With Violations of Neutrality.

President Wilson and the members of his Cabinet have gone over the latest proposal of Germany for a settlement of the American Government's demands concerning the sinking of the Lusitania. While some alterations in the form of the agreement, which will require its reference to Berlin again, must be made, they are regarded as minor ones, and optimism still prevails that within a short time the controversy will be settled amicably.

"Everything is substantially all right, but it is not finished," was the remark of Ambassador von Bernstorff after a conference with Secretary of State Lansing on the situation.

The German Ambassador has formally presented to the State Department on behalf of the Berlin Foreign Office a communication claiming that the British steamer Appam, recently taken into Hampton Roads by a German prize crew, is entitled under the Prussian-American treaty to remain in American waters indefinitely. The American Government has announced no decision in the matter.

Charged with having been connected with plots involving questions of American neutrality the German Consul General and vice consul and the Turkish Consul General in San Francisco have been indicted by a Federal grand jury.

Artillery actions between the French and British and the Germans continue at various points on the Franco-Belgian front, but there have been no important changes in positions anywhere. Nor have the Germans yet begun the offensive for which they are reported unhesitatingly to be preparing.

Heavy fighting has broken out again in East Galicia. All along the front the artillery has been very active. The Russians succeeded north of Tarnopol after repeated attacks in penetrating the Austro-Hungarian advanced infantry posts, but were ejected from them later on, according to Vienna.

In the Austro-Italian theater the contending forces are still involved in artillery duels.

In the Balkans seemingly all is quiet. Austrian warships in the Adriatic have ineffectively attempted to torpedo a British cruiser and a French torpedo boat, which were aiding the Serbian Army in its evacuation of the Adriatic coast. A Teuton submarine also attempted to sink two Entente Allied vessels off Durazzo, but the torpedoes missed their mark. Owing to the advice of his physicians, King George, who is convalescing from the injuries sustained by him in France, will not re-open Parliament in person next week. The session will be opened by a royal commission.

Let 'Em Drink it Up.

W. S. G. Heath of Edgefield, last week addressed a letter to Representative Williams regarding the disposal of the stock of whiskey on hand in dispensary counties. Mr. Heath's letter was read in the house on Saturday. On motion of Representative Johnstone the House concurred in the recommendations contained in the letter. Later by a vote of 24 to 23, the letter was withdrawn from the files of the house. The letter follows:

"I see some representatives want to re-open the dispensary in those counties where they did not sell out all their stock. The majority of the people of South Carolina voted that South Carolina be dry after January 1, and to allow a drop of liquor to be sold legally would be a direct slap in the face of this majority. You all are not going to do anything for the benefit of the people now and I think the best thing to do with the whiskey they have on hand is to ship it to Columbia and let you fellows drink it up. Trusting you may take this view of the matter, I am your friend."

"W. S. G. Heath."

Big Things for Lancaster.

The Secretary of State has issued a commission to the Lancaster Department Stores with a capital of $100,000. The petitioners are: Charles D. Jones and John T. Stevens.

Thompson and Company of Lancaster has been commissioned with a capital of $20,000. The officers are: Waddy R. Thompson, president and treasurer, and J. H. Witherspoon, secretary.

PAPER AT A BARGAIN.

Charlotte Observer Has Added Several New Features.

The Charlotte Observer is offering a bargain rate to new and regular subscribers for the next thirty days. Their advertisement which appears in this paper today announces that subscriptions will be accepted to the Daily and Sunday Observer at a rate of six dollars per year; or the Daily only at five dollars. The regular price for the paper is eight dollars per year.

The Observer has made remarkable strides forward in the past few months, and with the announcement of this bargain subscription they also state that several new features will be added. First, and the most important, is the leasing of a special wire to Washington, which will be an additional service which puts them to quite an expense; a weekly page by Herbert Kaufman, one of the most well-known writers in America today; also a full-page article on "Europe's Battle-front Lessons for America," by Frederick Palmer, the most famous war correspondent in the world. adv.
