

LEE COUNTY NEWS.

Notes Reproduced From The Vindicator of Bishopville.

We have been told by a prominent business man of Bishopville who has been on a visit to the Pee Dee section, that Governor Manning is stronger in that section today than he ever was, and his popularity for the enforcement of law and order is growing larger every day.

The heavy rain that fell here Tuesday afternoon did not extend very far. In Mr. J. J. Shaw's neighborhood they have had very little rain. Between Wisacky and Conductor Lucius' place a heavy rain with considerable hail fell last Saturday night.

Supt. of Education Munnerlyn took a business trip down to Clarendon county this week to look after his mother's farm down there. He says they have fine crops in Clarendon as they have had plenty of rain to bring the crops up several weeks ago.

Mr. John DeStamps, of Elliott, was here a short while Monday afternoon and said they got good rains down there ever since May 15, and have good stands of cotton and corn doing well.

After nearly a three months drought copious rains fell Tuesday afternoon. The first we have had, except very light showers, not enough to bring up cotton, since the first week in March. The rains last week caused the cotton seed to sprout, but not to come up, but the rain this week has been general over the county.

It is an unusual occurrence for anyone to commit suicide simply because upbraided for a misdemeanor, but when a darkey does such a thing it is very unusual and unheard of, for their misconduct comes often. Bam Hickman, the cook and man of all work for Dr. S. D. Dufosse, shot himself three times in the breast yesterday with a pistol, killing himself no doubt instantly for the time that elapsed between when last seen alive and when found dead was less than one hour.

Mr. Thomas Melvin Hancock, of the Spring Hill section, died at his home on May 21. Mr. Hancock was a consistent Christian gentleman, a true neighbor, a good husband and a fond father. He was the son of the late Thos. D. and Elizabeth Hancock. He leaves a wife, three boys and four girls. Mr. Hancock was laid to rest at St. John church, and the large gathering of friends attested the popularity of this good Christian man. His funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. P. Attaway.—Bishopville Leader and Vindicator.

To Re-Elect Wilson.

Washington, June 1.—Twenty-six of the nation's foremost men, including capitalists, philanthropists, publicists, and leaders in independent thought, announced today that they would launch an independent movement for the re-election of President Wilson.

The initiative has been taken by a group of men who exercise a great deal of influence in public affairs, who are leaders of independent sentiment rather than thick and thin adherents of any party. Steps to organize state leagues are being taken, and after the political conventions the work will be launched throughout the country on a very large scale. The officers of the league will not be selected until after the Republican convention. The names of the organization committee include some of the biggest and most influential men in the country.

Antioch News Notes.

Camden, R. E. D. 1, June 6.—Mrs. E. D. Horne, of West Palm Beach, Fla., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. W. Joye, last week.

The Antioch protracted meeting began last Thursday night and continued until Sunday night.

Miss Alberta Branham, Messrs. Kirby and Gairy Branham, of near Camden, were the guests of Miss Daisy Belle Joye last Saturday.

Mrs. L. W. Joye visited her mother, Mrs. M. E. Horne, last Sunday and Monday.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Gladden died last Friday afternoon, and was buried at Antioch church Saturday morning at 12 o'clock. Its death was sudden.
