

THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE

CAMDEN, SOUTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1916.

NUMBER 22.

VOLUME XXVIII.

TORY FOR LAW AND ORDER

Gov. Manning sent the following telegram to Robert A. Cooper, of Laurens: "Permit me to express my profound gratitude for the support of you and your friends."

When the returns began coming in to-night, it was early seen that the Cooper people had lined up solid behind Governor Manning and that the defection to Mr. Blease predicted by Blease leaders did not materialize and Manning men to-night were enthusiastic in their praise of the Laurens man and his followers.

The following short speech was delivered by Governor Manning to-night and he put heartfelt feeling in its delivery:

"The returns indicate a victory for the constitution and law. At such a time a sense of profound gratitude to Almighty God fills our hearts. I have never seen a time when the people of South Carolina were more stirred over an election. It is a victory of the people in support of the constitution and the enforcement of law.

"It shows that when the people realize their duty and when a real danger, a crisis, confronts them, they meet it as true patriots and settle it aright. Splendid work has been done by the citizens and their work has been rewarded by success. If this victory is assured, and I believe it is assured, we must see that bitterness and strife are subdued and allayed and that we must all as citizens of one State and as brethren in a common cause unite in the great work of upbuilding our State and in making higher and better characters of our citizens.

I consecrate myself anew to this great work and pledge myself to your service."

Gov. R. I. Manning Re-Elected.

It was seen that Gov. Manning had been renominated by a commanding majority of the thousands of South Carolinians watching the State House, headed by the Chief Executive called for the Chief Executive. It was difficult to hear the cheering which welled upward from the State House as the Governor's name was called. Gradually growing into thousands of law enforcement men, the Governor's name was called. Gradually growing into thousands of law enforcement men, the Governor's name was called.

RESULT OF SECOND PRIMARY.

McKenzie Defeats Birchmore and Huckabee Re-Elected Sheriff.

The official count of the returns of the second primary show that Huckabee retains his office as sheriff. McKenzie has defeated C. W. Birchmore as Superintendent of education; McLeod was re-elected commissioner from DeKalb township; Horton re-elected commissioner from Buffalo township; Nicholson defeats Gardner as Magistrate for DeKalb township; Dixon defeats Creed for magistrate in Flat Rock township; Copeland re-elected Magistrate at Bethune; Roberts elected as magistrate for Buffalo at large.

Returns began to come into the Chronicle office early and it was early in the evening when it could be seen the way the Governor's race was going. The anti-Blease crowd began to get joyful and it was not long before only a few of the faithful Blease followers staid around, hoping the result would change. It was a quiet and orderly crowd and a good deal of fun was indulged in on both sides.

The tabulated vote for all except candidates for township commissioner and magistrates will be found elsewhere in this paper. The total vote for magistrates was Gardner 494; Nicholson 572; Creed 143 Dixon 172; Clyburn 338; Copeland 428; Raley 312; Roberts 463. Total vote for township commissioner McLeod 493; Trapp 489; Faulkenberry 209; Ogburn 187; Horton 401; West 365.

Faulkenberry re-elected commissioner from Flat Rock township.

Third Primary for Representatives.

The county executive committee of the Democratic party met in Camden on September 14th to canvass the second primary election and declare the result. On motion of Mr. E. D. Hakey the committee by a vote of 7 to 6 threw out DeKalb, Enterprise and Salt Pond boxes on the ground that these clubs did not return the poll list in the ballot boxes as required by law and the party rules. This struck off from the totals as tabulated elsewhere in this issue Blease 102, Manning 61, Candler 127, Fant 21, Johnson 69, Kelly 95, Martin 54, Richards 98, Huckabee 112, Welsh 49, Birchmore 58, McKenzie 102, McLeod 16, Trapp 16, Faulkenberry 18, Ogburn 55, Gardner 18, Nicholson 14, Creed 46, Dixon 27, and these figures are to be deducted from our tabulated totals in each case. This action makes no change in the nominations in any case except as to the House of Representatives and that vote as declared by the committee gives Johnson 1358, Kelly 1186, Martin 1188, and Richards 1149, and the committee declared Johnson elected and ordered a third primary between Kelly and Martin.

Here For Annual Settlement.

Comptroller General Carlton W. Sawyer was in Camden yesterday to witness the annual settlement with the county. He was highly pleased with his visit here and spoke in the highest terms of the efficiency of Kershaw County officials. The officials here are always glad to see Gen. Sawyer; he is one of those magnetic natures that make one feel better by having been with him. He is a favorite not only in Kershaw county but over the entire state.

Allen Halthcock Dead.

Allen Halthcock, a well known colored blacksmith, who operated a shop on DeKalb street for a number of years died on West DeKalb street Monday of paralysis. For a long time he enjoyed a good patronage of both races from town and county and was a respectable and worthy colored man.

John Madison DesChamps, a candidate for governor in the recent primary, announced Saturday that he had decided to join the Progressive party of South Carolina.

Cotton Ginnings.

According to the department of commerce there were 25 bales of cotton ginned in Kershaw county from the crop of 1916 prior to September 1, as compared with 49 bales ginned to September 1, 1915. Total for United States for 1916, $50,032 ag. last 463, 883 for 1915.

Burglar Enters Homes.

On Saturday night, Sept. 2nd, or early Sunday morning, a burglar entered several residences on Fair street. At the home of Mr. C. C. Whitaker he secured a small amount of money and an automatic revolver. From Dr. Kerrison he stole an iron box evidently thinking it contained money. The box had papers in it of no value except to Dr. Kerrison. At another home he secured a small amount of money. Mr. Whitaker thinks the burglar is the same one who was later killed at Laurens after having entered homes in a similar manner.

Gov. Manning Re-Elected.

Gov. Manning's majority secured hundreds of Manning men, many of whom were aided by their wives and sweethearts into the executive chambers with the Chief Executive. Throughout the night of Manning received hundreds of telegrams and telephone calls congratulating him on his renomination, the wives being from distant

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES

Attracting Crowds to Canvas Tent Corner DeKalb and Fair Streets.

The interest in the evangelistic services held in the big tent, corner of Fair and DeKalb avenues, is growing every day. People from all sections of Camden are beginning to come regularly and are hearing lectures that are calculated to stir the mind on the great Bible truths.

Of late Mr. Haynes has been asked by different members of his audience to explain the apparent discrepancy that exists among the churches in reference to the general belief that the Sabbath is the first day of the week when the Bible says it is the seventh.

Believing that there are many who would like to fully understand the truth of this great question Mr. Haynes will devote Thursday, Friday and Sunday nights to its consideration.

This question relative to the day of the Sabbath and its change is a subject which is attracting more attention at the present time than it has for ages. Frequent inquiries concerning the day are being sent to prominent theologians and scholars, and to the leading secular and religious papers asking for light, and the question is fast becoming a prominent one.

As the public mind is being stirred there seems to be a demand for more stringent laws, both state and national, in behalf of the popular rest day, and as we are living in an age when libraries are being searched, ruins of ancient cities are being dug up, and everything questioned to find the substratum of truth on every subject, it is certainly appropriate that the Scriptural and historical evidence relative to the Sabbath should be considered.

What the Scriptures reveal sincere Christians will accept. A counterfeit coin is no nearer genuine because of having been so considered by honest men for many years, and he would not continue its circulation after he knew it to be spurious. Neither is error any the less error because of having been by the good of past generations considered as truth. This being true, every genuine Christian will ask himself: What does the Bible say?

It is a well known fact that, during the early centuries after the foundation of Christianity, many doctrines crept into the church which were wholly unknown to the apostles. Such proceedings were not sanctioned by God, Christ, angels, inspired men, or prophets. Church laws took the place of Divine law. Protestantism, as it springs from the minds of the reformers, must ever stand as a complete negation of the authority of tradition over the Bible. Its basis is declared to be the Bible and the Bible only. All beliefs and practices which have not a "thus saith the Lord" for their foundation are rejected. Consistency, therefore, forces all true Protestants, before accepting a doctrine as worthy of recognition, to first examine the Bible foundation for such belief and practice.

There are some generally admitted facts that are self evident, which might be stated as follows:

That the seventh day of the weekly cycle, the day on which the Creator rested, was set apart at the creation of the world as the Sabbath of Jehovah. That it was enjoined in the Decalogue and kept by patriarch, prophet and the faithfully obedient for the first four thousand years of earth's history. That it has been kept by some Christians from the first advent of Christ to the present time, as can be clearly proved by history. That notwithstanding this, the great majority of professed Christians are observing with more or less devotion and strictness the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday. That these facts and others which might be mentioned, have led many thousands of earnest-minded men and women to examine anew the evidences on which Sabbath and Sunday observance are based.

The sources from which Mr. Haynes will draw his evidence will be the Bible and reliable historical testimony in harmony therewith.

The following are the subjects for next week:

Sunday, Sept. 17—"Carious of the Master Artist."

Monday, Sept. 18—"Counterfeit Christianity."

Tuesday, Sept. 19—"The Christian Sanctuary and the Mediation of Christ."

Wednesday, Sept. 20—"The Judgment."

Thursday, Sept. 21—"The Law of God."

Friday, Sept. 22—"The Sabbath: Is it Sunday?"

Sunday, Sept. 24—"Who Changed the Sabbath?"

GOV. MANNING RE-ELECTED.

Defeats Former Governor Blease By Approximately 4,500 Votes.

From Thursday's State Returns from Tuesday's South Carolina Democratic primary only served to make absolutely certain the victory of Gov. Richard I. Manning for re-nomination over Cole L. Blease, for two terms governor and in 1914 an unsuccessful candidate for the United States senate. With only about 18 small precincts missing, the vote as tabulated last night assured Gov. Manning of re-nomination by a majority slightly in excess of 4,500.

The vote showed that Gov. Manning had increased his first primary total by about 30,000, while Mr. Blease's vote was only some 3,000 in excess of that which he secured in the first primary. The Cooper vote in the first primary was 31,305, while that of Gov. Manning was 41,536. Gov. Manning's vote, as tabulated up to midnight last night, with 18 boxes missing, but including the border vote, was 70,983. Mr. Blease's was 66,208. In the first primary Mr. Blease had received 64,384 which had given him a lead of nearly 23,000 over Gov. Manning, the second man.

Then Mr. Blease lacked only 9,000 of a majority over all competitors in a vote of 137,791. With the returns practically complete, Mr. Blease lacks, in the second primary, about half that number of tying Gov. Manning alone.

Yesterday's returns failed to change the standing in the matter of the number of counties carried though it made some of the results more certain. As now tabulated, with two counties still doubtful—Chesfield and Georgetown—Gov. Manning has carried 26 of the 45 counties in South Carolina, while Mr. Blease has carried 17. Gov. Manning carried Bamberg, Barnwell, Beaufort, Berkeley, Calhoun, Chester, Colleton, Darlington, Dillon, Dorchester, Edgefield, Fairfield, Florence, Greenville, Greenwood, Hampton, Jasper, Kershaw, Lancaster, Lexington, Marlboro, Marlboro, McCormick, Orangeburg, Sumter and Williamsburg. Mr. Blease carried Abbeville, Aiken, Anderson, Charleston, Cherokee, Charleston, Horry, Laurens, Lee, Newberry, Oconee, Pickens, Richland, Saluda, Spartanburg, Union and York.

The contest for Railroad Commissioner between James Candler of Tazewell who has been a consistent candidate for more than half a dozen campaigns, was never close. The result, a foregone conclusion from the time half the ballots were reported, was to give Mr. Candler a majority of 23,000. The vote stood: Candler 75,281; Fant 53,024.

Mr. Candler has carried 28 counties, all except Anderson, Darlington, Greenville, Marion and Pickens, which went to Mr. Fant, and McCormick, which is still in doubt.

In the third district the later returns failed to show any changes. F. H. Dornick of Newberry being nominated over Wyatt Aiken, the incumbent, by about 2,000 majority.

One contest for solicitor was close—that in the First circuit, where Mann and Hydrick are neck and neck. In the eighth Blackwell was nominated over Magill and in the Ninth T. P. Stoney was nominated over Frank M. Bryan. Robert Martin was nominated in the Thirtieth over J. W. Simons.

The vote in the second primary, according to present indications, will not vary greatly from that cast in the first. The total for the first race was 137,791 out of an enrollment of 158,419. In the second primary the vote so far totals 137,097, with less than a score of small boxes to hear from.

AGAIN WE THANK THEM

The Chronicle desires to thank each and everyone who so kindly helped us Tuesday evening in getting the election returns so promptly. A special wire had been cut into the Chronicle office from the Postal Company and the state returns were received direct at this office. Bulletins were flashed on the post office across the street and the service we gave the county and city people was the same as that given by the big city dailies. We are especially indebted to the Southern Bell, The Postal and the managers for their promptness. There were many individuals who helped us in many ways to give results quickly.

Hugh Dorsey Wins in Georgia.

Atlanta, September 12.—Hugh M. Dorsey, of Atlanta, apparently has swept Georgia in the gubernatorial race in the State-wide Democratic primary to-day. Returns from 108 counties out of 152 seems to assure him 158 votes in the State Convention. More complete returns are expected easily to give him the 192 votes necessary for nomination.

Governor Nat E. Harris on the face of these returns, had 64 votes in the convention, while Dr. L. G. Hardman and Joseph E. Pottle ran far behind the two leaders.

City Election Carried.

In the city primary held Tuesday for the issuance of $25,000 bonds for the extension and completion of electric light and water works system for Camden, the vote was

For Electric Light Bonds, 80; against 12.

For Water works bonds, 79; against 13.

There was very little interest shown on account of the lively interest in the state and county primary being held the same day.

Death.

Mr. D. T. Hancock who resided at the Pine Creek Mill, died suddenly last Thursday morning, and was buried Friday. Rev. Jno H. Graves conducted the funeral which was held at the Mill village. Mr. Hancock was 44 years of age, and leaves a wife and several children.

From Mr. Singleton.

I desire to thank the voters of the county for the votes given me in the race for Clerk of Court. I fully appreciate the staunch friends I have throughout the county, and have nothing against those who voted against me. Very respectfully,

H. C. Singleton.

Home Burned.

The home of Eddie Belton, colored 8 miles north of Camden, was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. The house was valued at $1,000.00 with $300 insurance.

ITEMS OVER THE STATE

John Cleveland a negro chauffeur, was killed near Greenville early Monday morning when a large automobile which he was driving, turned turtle.

Governor Manning has appointed Rev. John McSweeney, Jr., pastor of the Presbyterian church of Dillon, chaplain of the Second regiment, South Carolina National Guard. He will hold the rank of captain and will go to Fort Bliss, Texas, to join his regiment at once.

Alton Linder, a farmer who lived in the Camden camp round section of Spartanburg county died at his home Saturday of "infantile paralysis." Mr. Linder was 34 years of age and is the oldest person known to have died of the disease in this state. He leaves a wife.
