

WOMAN OVER 100 YEARS.

Remembers Greenville When It Was a Mere Cross Road.

The re is residing in the city one who has passed the century mark, being five months and 20 days over one hundred years of age.

Mrs. Tarrant was born near Rehoboth church in Greenville county, May 3, 1816. If that date does not sound so long ago, just recall that this was only 40 years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

erloo, and during the administration of James Madison, the fourth president of the United States.

"Grandma" as Mrs. Tarrant is affectionately known in the village, has resided in this county all her life.

At the age of 16 Mrs. Tarrant joined the church, being converted at a tent meeting held near old Pickensville.

On being asked if this was where the present town of Pickens stood, Mrs. Tarrant was unable to say, but stated that it was somewhere in Pickens county.

This meeting was a camp meeting and people from all over the upper part of the state came bringing their families, and staying for all the services, which lasted a week or two.

Shortly after this she united with the Rehoboth Methodist church and has been a member of that church for the past 84 years.

At that time churches were few and far between and in addition to her own church, Washington church, near Grove Creek and Big Creek church in Anderson county were the only houses of worship she knew of for a long time.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

Mrs. Tarrant remembers quite well the first train she ever saw. It was at Williamston, although she does not recall the exact year.

NEGROES MIGRATING NORTH. Department of Justice And Labor Watching Situation.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Both the department of justice and the department of labor are watching closely the migration of Southern negroes to the northern industrial centers.

The legal officers hope to check all possible election frauds, while the labor authorities are interested primarily in preventing their federal employment service, from being used to further migration schemes.

Attorney General Gregory has ordered a special inquiry into complaint that negroes are being sent in considerable numbers to doubtful states under promises to work at high wages.

District Attorney Miller, at Louisville, Ky., has been ordered to report the names, towns and the destinations of all negroes or any other possible voters going from Kentucky, Alabama, or any other part of the south, passing through Louisville in suspicious numbers.

Other district attorneys in the south and in the middle states are understood to be under similar instructions.

Department of Justice officials decline to talk and all reports and correspondence are being withheld from publication.

The attorney generals conferred today with his assistants on the subject of election frauds generally. So far complaints have reached the department of alleged frauds or contemplated frauds affecting candidates for federal offices in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, New York and Missouri.

The department of labor has taken steps to prevent the use of the federal employment service in assisting in the migration of large numbers of negroes from the southern states.

Assistant secretary Post said the department had no intention of becoming a party to schemes which might be devised for the purpose of lowering the wages of labor or breaking strikes.

At the same time it was made clear that where there was legitimate work for negroes, efforts would be made to secure them.

MR. McLEOD DEAD. Was Popular Cashier of People's Bank of Sumter.

S. M. McLeod, cashier of the People's bank, died Thursday night at the Toumey Hospital, after an illness of about one week.

His death was one of unusual suddenness, following as it did that of his wife by little more than a week, as he was in the prime of life and was highly esteemed by the large number of people from Sumter and the surrounding community who knew him personally or had dealt in business with him.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow, Saturday morning, at 11 o'clock from the residence of Mr. J. H. Chandler, Church street.

The services will be conducted by the Rev. S. Truesdale of Trinity Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member, and interment will be at the Sumter cemetery, where the body will be laid beside that of his helpmate, who was buried just ten days ago.

Sumner Murray McLeod was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. McLeod of Rembert, at which place he spent his boyhood.

Mr. McLeod attended the Citadel from Sumter county from which institution he graduated in 1897. He afterwards taught school and engaged in various businesses, until 1911, when he was elected cashier of the People's Bank upon its organization, which position he has filled in a most acceptable manner.

He was a high toned Christian gentleman and there were few men who made friends easier or held their friendship as he did, a fact which showed his amiable disposition and ready sympathy for all.

The deceased is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. McLeod, one brother, Mr. Danny McLeod, and one sister, Miss Addie McLeod, of Rembert.—Friday's Sumter Item.

Reggie Mixes In.

"Many a true word is spoken in jest," says the old adage. And one may amplify the axiom by remarking that expressing the true word through jest frequently "puts it over."

There are a lot of signifying truths in "Reggie Mixes In," the New Triangle-Douglas Fairbanks play to be seen at the Majestic theatre tomorrow, and they hit home without resentment being felt because they are presented in a happy-go-lucky spirit.

Persons will accept these bitter pills with a smile because they are sugar-coated, and yet benefit by them to the full.

For instance, in every audience that witnesses "Reggie Mixes In," there is bound to be at least one girl who is "stringing" an admirer—one who doesn't love him while she is flattered by his attention; and to her the screen episode of Reggie and his fiancée is going to have deep meaning.

Sergeant J. I. Blalock, Co. E., Union, First S. C. Infantry, died in the hospital at El Paso, Texas, Tuesday morning of typhoid fever. This is the first death to occur among the South Carolina troops on the border.

Saled McDoale, a native of Persia, Asia Minor, Mohammedan in religion, camel and oriental animal trainer by profession, died in Gaffney Wednesday afternoon, from ptomaine poisoning as a result of eating salmon from a tin can after letting it stand overnight unsealed.

He was with the Orlent show, traveling with the K. G. Barkoot shows. To many people this man was only a common negro, says the Gaffney Ledger, but to those who knew him, he was a veritable fountain of interest.

He was born in Persia, and raised in his native country and Arabia. Camel and oriental animal trainer by profession, having learned the art when a boy from the Arabs of the deserts, he came to America with Baba Delgerian's troupe of Arabs for the Chicago World's Fair in 1892, caring for their animals.

McDoale spoke five different languages besides his mother tongue—Turkish, Arabian, French, Russian and English.

McLeod May Run Also. Columbia, Oct. 27.—In all probabilities I shall be in the race in 1918 for the governorship to succeed Richard I. Manning.

Mr. McLeod who is one of the leading lawyers of the South Carolina bar, was lieutenant governor in 1908-09.

In 1900 he opposed Cole, L. Blease and C. C. Featherstone, for the governorship and although he received a flattering vote, the two latter were in the second primary.

Since that time he has not offered for any political office. Mr. McLeod is considered one of the leading stump speakers of the state.

Consternation was caused among Sumter blind tigers Tuesday morning when seventeen were arrested. Three were white men and the other negroes.

The cases were worked up by I. T. Holloway, R. C. Hatfield and W. H. Blackmon all of Sumter. $50 or thirty days were the fines imposed by the city records.

SUMMONS FOR RELIEF. State of South Carolina, County of Kershaw, Court of Common Pleas.

American Agency Company, Plaintiff

Against Harry Cantey, John Cantey, Hamilton B. Cantey, Sallie C. deSaussure, Rosa C. Heyward, Mary C. Cook, Ella M. Halle, Florida C. Clarkson, Guaranty Trust Company of South Carolina, Fidelity Building and Loan Company, Hunter A. Gibbs, Mary Hill Cantey, Edward Y. Hill and The Bank of Columbia, Defendants.

To the Defendants: Harry Cantey, Hamilton B. Cantey, Sallie C. deSaussure, Mary C. Cook and Edward Y. Hill:

You are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint in this action filed in the office of the Clerk of Court of Common Pleas for said county, and to serve a copy of your answer to the said complaint on the subscriber at his office in Camden, S. C., within twenty (20) days after the service hereof, exclusive of the day of such service; and if you fail to answer the complaint within the time aforesaid, the plaintiff in this action will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

B. B. CLARKE, Plaintiff's Attorney.

Dated Camden, S. C., Oct. 26, 1916. To the Defendants: Harry Cantey, Hamilton B. Cantey, Sallie C. deSaussure, Mary C. Cook and Edward Y. Hill:

You will please take notice that the Complaint herein was filed in the office of Clerk of Court for Kershaw County, in Camden, S. C., on this the 26th day of October, A. D. 1916.

B. B. CLARKE, Plaintiff's Attorney.

CITATION. State of South Carolina, County of Kershaw.

By W. L. McDowell, Esquire, Probate Judge.

Whereas, R. J. Smith made suit to me to grant him Letters of Administration of the Estate of and effects of W. T. Smith, Jr.

These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said W. T. Smith, Jr., deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Camden, S. C., on November 8th next after publication thereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my Hand, this 25th day of October, Anno Domini 1916. W. L. McDowell, Judge of Probate for Kershaw County.

Published on the 27th day of October and the 3rd day of November, 1916, in the Camden Chronicle and posted at the Court House door for the time prescribed by law.

CITATION. State of South Carolina, County of Kershaw.

By W. L. McDowell, Esquire, Probate Judge.

Whereas, Jesse T. Ross made suit to me to grant him Letters of Administration of the Estate of and effects of Charles H. Hornsby.

These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said Charles H. Hornsby, deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Camden, S. C., on November 3rd, next, after publication thereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my Hand, this 20th day of October, A. D. 1916. W. L. McDowell, Judge of Probate for Kershaw County.

Published on the 27th day of October and the 3rd day of November, 1916, in the Camden Chronicle and posted at the Court House door for the time prescribed by law.

CITATION. State of South Carolina, County of Kershaw.

By W. L. McDowell, Esquire, Probate Judge.

Whereas, F. L. Truesdel made suit to me to grant him Letters of Administration of the Estate of and effects of B. M. Truesdel.

These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said B. M. Truesdel, deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Camden, S. C., on November 9th next after publication thereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my Hand, this 28th day of October Anno Domini 1916. W. L. McDowell, Judge of Probate for Kershaw County.

Published on the 27th day of October and the 3rd day of November 1916, in the Camden Chronicle and posted at the Court House door for the time prescribed by law.

EXECUTOR'S SALE. Under and by virtue of an order granted by W. L. McDowell, Judge of Probate Kershaw County bearing date October 14th, 1916, I will sell on Saturday, November 4th, 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m., a small lot of merchandise, household and kitchen furniture, etc., belonging to the Estate of J. F. Turner, deceased.

Terms—Cash. J. W. WATERS, Qualified Administrator. Camden, S. C., Oct. 14, 1916.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. All parties indebted to the estate of J. F. Turner, deceased, of Sheppard, S. C., are hereby notified to make payment to the undersigned, and all parties having claims against said estate will present them duly attested within the time prescribed by law.

J. W. WATERS, Qualified Administrator. Camden, S. C., October 11th, 1916.

FINAL DISCHARGE. Notice is hereby given that Charlie Williams, Administrator of the estate of Joe Williams, deceased, has this day made application unto me for a final discharge as such Administrator, and that the 24th day of November, 1916, at 11 o'clock a. m., at the Probate Court in Camden, S. C., has been set for the hearing of said petition.

All parties having claims against the said estate will present them to the undersigned duly attested on or before that date or be forever barred.

W. L. McDowell, Judge of Probate Kershaw County. Camden, S. C., Oct. 23, 1916.

FINAL DISCHARGE. Notice is hereby given that one from this date, on Saturday, the day of November, 1916, I will make the Probate Court of Kershaw County my final return as Administrator of the estate of James Robertson, deceased, and on the same date I will act as said Administrator.

All parties having claims against said estate will present them to the undersigned duly attested on or before that date or be forever barred.

C. W. Evans, Administrator. Camden, S. C., October 11th, 1916.

MASTER'S SALE. State of South Carolina, County of Kershaw, In the Court of Common Pleas.

F. M. Zemp, against Meta W. DeLoache, Mary D. Pittman, Kate DuBose, T. C. DuBose and Russian Guano Corporation, Defendants.

Under and by virtue of the Decree of the above suit by his Honor, Judge Smith, Presiding Judge, of this day of July, 1916, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder in front of the Courthouse door in the city of Camden, in the county of Kershaw, and in the State of South Carolina during the hours of sale on the first Monday of November 1916 being the 6th day of the following described real estate:

"All that parcel or lot of land in the county of Kershaw in the State of South Carolina lying about three miles east of the city of Camden, containing Two Hundred Fifty (255) acres, more or less, and bounded north by land formerly of Camden Mill now Hermitage Cotton and by public road known as thelington road, on the east by land the estate of W. W. Mickle, deceased, and by lands now or formerly of Rebecca W. DeLoache, on the south lands of E. A. Brown and on the west by lands of Mary D. Pittman, DuBose and T. C. DuBose, former part of the land herein described, by Pine Tree Creek. The above described land is that conveyed to W. DeLoache by Mary D. Pittman, Kate DuBose and T. C. DuBose, deed of date February 15th, 1913."

At the said sale the Master will not receive the bid of any person shall not first deposit with him a pledge to make good his bid in full of its acceptance the sum of Five hundred Dollars ($500.00) in money certified check on some responsible bank. Terms of sale cash. Purchaser to pay for papers.

L. A. Witkovsky, Master for Kershaw County. Camden, S. C. Sept. 21st, 1916.

BUGGIES! BUGGIES!

Leather Quarter Top Buggies as long as they last at cost.

$50.00 CASH

GEORGE T. LITTLE

To the last drop MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE Is Perfect Ask Your Grocer

Wm. L. Kirkland SURVEYOR AND CIVIL ENGINEER Office in Crocker Building, Corner Main and DeKalb Streets CAMDEN, S. C.

DR. S. A. ALEXANDER Veterinarian LITTLE'S STABLES. Day Phone 160. Night Phone 23.

RUB OUT PAIN with good oil liniment. That's the surest way to stop them. The best rubbing liniment is MUSTANG LINIMENT Good for the Ailments of Horses, Mules, Cattle, Etc. Good for your own Aches, Pains, Rheumatism, Sprains, Cuts, Burns, Etc. 25c, 50c, $1. At all Dealers.

MONEY TO LOAN. On improved farms. Easy terms Apply to B. B. Clarke, Camden, S. C. 50.

DR. H. L. GREGORY Veterinarian Treatment of all Animals. Night and day calls promptly answered. Phone 201-L.

MONEY TO LOAN ON REAL ESTATE — EASY TERMS E. G. vonTresckow.

Dr. E. H. KERRISON Dentist Office over Bruce's Store Broad and DeKalb Sts. Phone 185

COLUMBIA LUMBER & MANUFACTURING CO. MILL WORK SASH, DOORS, BLINDS AND LUMBER PLAIN & HUGER STS. Phone 71 COLUMBIA, S. C.

DR. R. E. STEVENSON DENTIST Office Southeast Corner Broad and DeKalb Sts. Camden, S. C.

Collins Brothers Undertakers for Colored People Telephone 41 714 W. DeKalb St.

FARM LAND FOR SALE 290 acres, 8 miles south of Camden, one-half mile to station, one-half mile to church, one mile school, 225 acres in cultivation, 150 acres in peas this year, gray land with clay subsoil. Five farm houses. This land is known to be the best farming land in the County. Worth $100 per acre, cash bought for $60 per acre. 200 acres, six miles south of Camden, graded school on place, two churches within one mile, acres in cultivation, balance in woods, three dwellings, one tenant house, two barns. Terms easy. 70 acres, eight miles southeast of Camden, belonging to Mr. J. P. Wilson, 25 acres open, one room dwelling, two barns, close to school and church. This is a bargain for some one at $1400. Terms.

C. P. DuBOISE & COMPANY REAL ESTATE, RENTS, INSURANCE