

THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE

VOLUME XXIX.

CAMDEN, SOUTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, MARCH 8, 1918.

NUMBER 47.

COURT NOW ENGAGED IN TRIAL OF ANDREW BAKER

With the exception of the case of Andrew Baker, charged with murder, the criminal court finished up its work for the Spring term on Wednesday afternoon, being probably the shortest session in this county in a score of years. Judge R. W. Memminger, said to be one of the ablest judges in this state, presided, with Solicitor Cobb in charge of the states interests and stenographer Elliott, of Charleston, here in the place of the official stenographer, A. M. Deal.

Every case on the docket was disposed of in some manner—those not tried were not pressed on account of the prosecuting witnesses failing to appear—and the next court will have no cases brought over from this term.

The cases disposed of up to Wednesday afternoon were:

J. K. Smith, disposing of property under lien, not pressed.

John Drakeford, assault and battery with intent to kill, not pressed.

John Johnson, pointing loaded gun at another, not pressed.

James Threatt, assault and battery with intent to kill, not pressed.

Leville Brown, pointing loaded gun at another, not pressed.

Lindsay Bass and Joe Bass, assault and battery with intent to kill were tried and found not guilty. This case grew out of the quarrel and shooting of the Gardner brothers near Cassatt.

Zeak Jones was tried for assault and battery with intent to kill. He was found guilty of assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature. Jones shot his first cousin because he came to his house to remonstrate with him for letting his hogs run at large in his corn field.

A. C. King, breach of trust with fraudulent intent, was found not guilty.

Carl Moore, the white man, who was tried at the last term of court for stealing an automobile from Mr. Robt. Mickle, and who has been confined in the county jail for over six months on account of a mistrial, was found guilty and sentenced to serve one year. The jury recommended him to the mercy of the court. Moore claimed that he drove the automobile to Columbia with the intention of returning same, Mr. Mickle suspected that Moore had stolen the car and had the Columbia police to intercept him after reaching Columbia. The man was unable or would not get into communication with his friends and relatives and did not give the required bond of $400 and had to remain in jail. Jury in this case was composed of the following: T. M. Mattox, foreman, B. F. Gregory, W. H. Collier, C. B. Spradley, B. H. Hunter, A. J. Hunter, W. H. Blackwell, S. H. Truesdell, W. T. Young, L. R. Clyburn, D. F. Hilton and J. T. McCaskill. Mr. Memminger deliberated for about four hours before reaching a verdict.

Wesley W. Smith, assault and battery, not pressed.

Will Turner, disposing of property under lien, not guilty.

Cap Drakeford and John Johnson, house breaking and larceny. Johnson pleaded guilty and received a sentence of six months. Cap Drakeford was found guilty but had not been sentenced pending an appeal for a new trial.

Sam Watkins, a negro youth, stole a cow near Cassatt and brought it to Camden where it was sold. He was sentenced to serve one year and pay a fine of $1.

Jack Reed Moore and Willie Reed Moore, two small negro urchins, broke into a box car and stole some goods therefrom. They were found guilty and Judge Memminger gave them a sentence and told them he thought after serving five years each in the state reformatory for colored youths at Lexington that they would become better citizens.

Allen Kirkland, plead guilty to a charge of assault and battery and was sentenced to serve three months or pay a fine of $50.

The case against J. E. Deas, charged with obtaining goods under false pretense, was not pressed on terms.

Several jurors were excused from the regular panel and on account of the likelihood of the entire panel being used in the case against Andrew Baker, the court directed that the following extra jurors be drawn and notified to serve: L. B. Campbell, G. F. Colby, David Wolfe, C. H. Munn, B. I. Baum, N. D. Baxley, James R. Belk, W. T. Gardner.

Baker Case Now Being Tried.

As The Chronicle goes to press the case of the State against Andrew Baker, charged with the murder of Lucy Marsh, is being tried. The entire morning of Thursday was consumed in drawing a jury. The following were chosen to sit on this jury: David Wolfe, foreman, B. H. Hunter, A. J. Hunter, R. B. Ross, G. W. Sowell, S. E. West, James Rabon, H. T. Mangum, W. A. Hyatt, W. H. Blackwell, V. D. Stridger, W. H. Collier.

Solicitor Cobb is being assisted in the prosecution by Attorney E. D. Blakeney and Attorney W. B. deLoach and M. L. Smith are representing the defendant.

The first witness called was Mrs. Rebecca Marsh, mother of Lucy Marsh, the woman killed. She told of the killings, and stated emphatically that she was looking straight at Andrew Baker when he fired the second time, one of the shots striking her in the head. She exhibited the scar to the jury.

She was followed by John and Hobson Marsh, sons of Lucy Marsh, who were witnesses to the tragedy and both testified substantially the same as their grandmother.

Ezra Taylor, James English and John English were three eyewitnesses testifying practically the same.

Dr. McCaskill who attended the dead woman was called to describe the wounds, and Mr. Bareman was up to testify as to the distance the man was from the Marsh woman when the fatal shots were fired, and stated that it was possible for the parties in the wagon to have recognized the one who fired the shots.

John English, the negro testifying has been in jail for several weeks owing to the fact that threats had been made against his life, and he had moved into another county.

Sheriff Hough and Chief of Police Whitaker were put up to describe the location at the scene of the killing.

At this point attorneys for the defense stated to the court that if the jurors be allowed to go to the scene of the killing that they would offer no testimony. This Judge Memminger granted, and the Sheriff and Chief Whitaker were deputized to carry the jury to the scene. They left here about 5:30. He instructed the sheriff to keep them at the hotel for the night. It is expected that arguments in the case will be taken up as soon as court convenes this morning.

The court room has been crowded all day and it is expected that another large crowd will be in attendance today.

Presentment of the Grand Jury.

Camden, S. C., March 5th, 1918, State of South Carolina.

To the Hon. Judge R. W. Memminger, Presiding Judge Spring Term Court Kershaw County.

We the Grand Jury beg leave to make the following presentment at this term of court as follows to wit:

We have past on all bills handed us by the Solicitor.

We beg to say that we have knowledge that some of our public roads are very much in need of work, and there are others of them that are in very good condition. We beg to say that we visited the county jail, and found same in good condition. Everything neat and clean. We find that the Court House roof is very much in need of repairs, but understand that the proper appropriations has not been made for this particular purpose, and therefore the officials are handicapped in this respect as to making repairs. We have appointed our several committees, who will make their reports on the various matters during the year. We beg to thank you and the other court officials for the many kindnesses shown us during this term of court, all of which we most respectfully submit.

F. H. Arrants.

GRACE CHURCH SERVICE FLAG

Beautiful Services in Honor of Men Serving From Camden.

A very large congregation attended a beautiful and impressive service at Grace Episcopal Church on last Sunday morning when a National Flag was dedicated for use in the Church, a Service Flag was hung from the gallery with forty two stars and an honor roll was suspended from the wall of the vestibule with the names and rank of the forty-two young volunteers from Grace Church, Camden.

The United States Flag was presented to the Church by Mrs. J. F. Bartow in memory of her grandfather Francis Scott Key, the author of "The Star Spangled Banner".

The Service Flag and the Honor Roll were presented to the Church by the ladies of the congregation whose sons were volunteers and many of whom are already serving their country on the fields of battle in France.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the service was opened by the Rector, Rev. F. H. Harding from the vestibule with prayer. The vested choir then entered the Church through the vestibule, passing under the folds of the Service Flag. The choir was led by the Crucifer carrying the Cross and he in turn was followed by one of the choir boys carrying the National Flag, the Flag following the Cross, as it ever should. Then in order came the full vested choir singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" accompanied by the strains of the organ and cornet. Next in order came the Rev. F. H. Harding, Rector, and Rev. W. B. Jordan, Rector Emeritus, of the Parish.

The choir passed up the center aisles dividing at the Chancel steps and returned by the side aisles to the front door of the Church over which the Service Flag was suspended. The Crucifer and the Flag bearer entered the Chancel and remained standing while the Rev. Mr. Harding standing under the Service Flag, read, in full voice, the Honor Roll before this congregation. During the reading of this Honor Roll it was announced that the number of volunteers was equal to one-fifth of the number of communicants of the church.

Then followed appropriate prayers, the congregation still standing. The choir then passed up the middle aisle the second time singing the National Hymn and entered the Choir Stalls.

Upon arriving in the Chancel Rev. Mr. Harding read the 46th Psalm responsively with the congregation and after prayers for the President, the nation, the army and navy, blessed the National Flag. The choir then sang the hymn "Fight the Good fight with all thy might" as an introit to the Holy Communion.

The Rev. Mr. Harding delivered a strong sermon from the text "I am among you as he that serveth."

During the course of this service many a heart in the congregation quickened its pulsation and many a tear coursed its way across the cheeks of loving women and strong men. Their very souls burned with pride and patriotism—God bless our boys.

Important to Merchants.

Retailers are at liberty to buy flour from wholesalers without buying flour substitutes at the same time, when they turn over to the wholesalers the miller's certificate they have taken in from farmers.

The above ruling I have obtained from Mr. William Elliott, Food Administrator for South Carolina.

Certificates will be kept on file.

INCREASE IN WEIGHT

For Parcels To Be Transmitted Thru Parcel Post System.

Following is a circular received at the Camden postoffice from the third assistant postmaster general known as order No. 1140, dated Feb. 26, 1918, and which becomes effective March 18.

Postmasters are instructed to bring to the attention of their patrons the provisions of Paragraph 1, Section 454 Postal laws and regulations, as amended by the above order 1140 of this date, effective on March 15th, 1918, which increases the limit of weight of fourth class matter to 70 pounds for parcels mailed for delivery within the first, second and third zones, and to 50 pounds for parcels mailed for delivery within any of the other zones.

This change will serve to increase the usefulness and availability of the parcel post as a prompt, convenient and cheap means of transporting mailable parcels. The increased weight limit will be particularly advantageous in the marketing of products of the farm, as it will make it possible for producers and consumers to get into direct contact, thereby facilitating the conservation and distribution of food, which is a most important factor in winning the war.

The increased weight limit does not apply to parcels sent to the Expeditionary Forces in Europe. Parcels mailed to those forces must not exceed seven pounds in weight.

At Baptist Church Sunday.

Morning service subject: "The Man who would not go to meeting." Evening service "Safety first for our sons." A fathers and sons meeting. You are cordially urged to attend.

FROM DR. BRASINGTON

Tells What He Will Stand For If Elected to Office of Mayor.

Accepting the suggestion of an editorial in The Chronicle of last week, I, as a candidate for Mayor, beg to submit to the voters of Camden for their consideration the following platform:

I am in favor of and hope to see a Council elected that is broad enough to give and to take and willing to receive and consider any suggestion from any citizen of Camden or Kershaw County that is for the betterment of our City and County.

I am in favor of having competent men on the Police force, and to require duties faithfully performed, and the department to be encouraged and backed by the Council in the discharge of their duties.

I am in favor of liberal support to our fire department and more efficient equipment, for I consider the protection we receive from it is worth more than we can return.

It is useless to say I am a supporter of better streets. Other Cities are improving theirs, and these Cities are not as good as Camden, so why not improve ours? And not keep a back seat. If elected I will aid in every way I can to make lasting improvements on our streets.

I am still a believer that dogs should not be allowed to run at large on our streets, whereby citizens and especially children would be endangered by them.

I think a Council should be elected who would work in harmony with our Commissioners of Public Works, for I am sure the interest of either is the interest of the other.

I have all of my life been a believer in prohibition and for the last 18 years have worked for it in Kershaw County. And day by day we see it nearer. I am sure no time has ever been when it is more needed than today, and I am sure if a Council is elected that is in sympathy with prohibition and will back and stand by our police department in the discharge of their duties, our City will go on record as protecting the manhood of our country. I will say just here if we have any voter in Camden who is in sympathy and wishes blind tigers to exist in Camden, I would advise such a one not to cast his vote for me, for if I am elected I will pledge the citizens of Camden that we will not allow such a one here.

I am in hearty sympathy with our National government and as they are expecting every citizen to aid in winning the war by work, I am sure the citizens of Camden would not stand for vagrancy and if elected I am sure we will all work.

Having had two years work as councilman and four years as Mayor I feel that if elected I would be better able to give a progressive administration than I could have without it, I therefore offer myself as a candidate for Mayor and will say to each and every voter that if you are in sympathy with the above platform and will give me your vote and support I will appreciate it, and I will pledge to each citizen that if elected I will be the Mayor of all of Camden.

Constables Capture Whiskey.

Deputy J. F. Bateman and Chief of Police A. G. Whitaker made a trip to Cassatt Tuesday morning where they captured a trunk put off at that station containing 21 pints of whiskey. Several men had already gotten off with two suit cases, but they had made their escape. Packed in the trunk with the whiskey was found tin cooking utensils and a lot of clothing, and leather straps. It was evidently the property of a negro laborer. No arrests have been made.
