SOUVENIR FROM THE ATTLEFIELDS OF FRANCE
Jack Watkins has sent to his mother, S. H. L. Watkins, an interesting souvenir from the battlefields of France. is a German belt, containing twenty-badges, medals and marks of honor, supposed to have been taken from Al-soldiers, who were dead on the ld or prisoners of war. Among them the Argyll and Sutherland medal, Queen's honor badge, the York and Manchester medal, the Harp of Ireland, the Australian commonwealth and numbers of others. It is a valuable souve-r and will be interesting to future operations as a trophy of the great world war, preserved as a memorial Allied victory.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
On Thursday afternoon quite a number of girls and boys were bidden to in and make merry with Esther and thor DeLoache, the twins of Mr. and Ben DeLoache, the occasion being birthday of the interesting pair. ames were played on the lawn for hour or more, and then the happy folk were lined up on either side a long table which had as center coration twin cakes, gleaming with pink and white candles. Their happiness was complete when delicious ice cream and cake were served.

OLUNTERED FOR VERNEA SERVICE
Friends in Camden of the Rev. Jno.
Davidson will be interested to know that he has enlisted for overseas service. Dr. Davidson was the former talented young pastor of the Baptist Church and his popularity and successful work with the young men will no doubt make him very useful in the army, where enthusiasm and patriotism has led him.

BREAKFAST FOR
THE SOLDIERS
The Red Cross Canteen committee held meeting at the home of Mrs. R. B.
Pitts on Tuesday afternoon to perfect plans for a breakfast to be served to two hundred and fifty South Carolina boys who are taking a course at the University to train themselves for overseas service. They are invited to be the guest of the town of Darlington Saturday and Sunday. They will pass through Camden Saturday morning and it will be the pleasure of the Canteen to entertain them at breakfast which will be served at the D. A. R. Chapter hall (the old four blocks). The ladies expect to serve of honey, butter, ham, biscuits and coffee, and will also serve light lunch on Sunday afternoon as they pass through their way back. The lunch will also be served at the Chapter hall. The Camden canteen is one door south of the Red Cross work room will be opened at 4:30 p. m. Saturday 31st as seen in another column on this page. All interested will please see on phone Mrs. R. B. Pitts.

orphanage and also actively engaged in Y. W. C. A. work in Charlotte. We welcome Miss Mayer to Camden, and feel sure that she will be a valuable addition to the hospital.

County Papers Must Cut Down.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Reduction of 25 per cent of all publication space in excess of eight pages for country weekly newspapers was ordered today by Chairman Baruch of the war industries board. Other features of a conservation plan for newspaper paper which by this order is extended to include the country weeklies, are discontinuance of papers to subscribers three months after subscriptions expire, stopping use of free copies for exchange within the same county or a 40 mile radius, stopping of publication of extra copies for advertising stimulation and stoppage of returns of unsold copies from newsdealers.
The war committee of the country weekly publishers presented the plan which was accepted by Chairman Baruch.

OUR FASHION LETTER

Dame Fashion Whispers 'Hints of Autumnus Modes.

New York, August 19.—When the trying hot days of July have passed and the sheer frocks of organdie and voile have served their purpose of keeping many cool during the intense heat, and although they are still appreciated for their admirable effort, they are given second place in the thoughts of their owners and they gracefully abdicate their lofty position in favor of the new fall styles.

Never have women considered their clothes from the angle from which they now scan their wardrobe. As most are doing war work, many pre-war non-essentials such as conservation, practicability and cost are now dominant factors in the determination of the extent and quality of one's wearing apparel.

A wise person once said, "There is always a way", and Dame Fashion found it by combining materials of silk with wool to reduce the quantity of the latter, in a dress, to its minimum. And promptly to the rescue came the loose-flowing panels which are developed in woolen material, with the greater part of the dress, the waist, skirt, and sleeves panels a favorite feature developed in some silk or satin fabric.

And, indeed, those panels are quite the most graceful feature sanctioned by fashion. They tend to give long, slender lines to those who have not that tendency in their fingers; in short they are an ideal camouflage. The dress illustrated is developed in navy blue serge with black satin; a combination of high esteem in the prevailing dictates of la-mode.

History repeats itself, and I'm sure fashion does the same. For lo! the draped skirt is with us again. The smartest women in Paris feel increasingly at home in this graceful adaptation of the long, narrow, tapering silhouette. Lucile is showing an exceptionally good-looking afternoon dress in gray and red brown marquisette, with a collar and vest of white organdie, and the skirt is draped up tight on the left side. The peg-top is another phase of the draped skirt which is being shown extensively just now. This particular style seems to have a saucy individuality about it which sort of solicits then defies your attention. Somehow one must be piguant to wear it. A pleated panel of contrasting material at the front of the skirt trims the peg-top dress illustrated, which is developed in satin and Georgette.

DANCE ON
MONDAY EVENING

The juveniles enjoyed a delightful dance on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Workman. It was given in compliment to Miss McCants of Mount Pleasant. Delicious cake and punch was served during the evening and it is needless to say that all enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent for "youth is full of grace, force and fascination." And that happy crowd of girls and boys are now basking in the sunlight of life's spring time and summer.

RICHARDSON-MARYE

A marriage of more than state wide interest was solemnized at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Witherspoon Corbett on Thursday evening when their only child, Mrs. Alice Corbett Richardson became the wife of Capt. Robert Turner Marye. Only members of the immediate family were present. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pinks, ferns and cut flowers, with which the National colors mingled. There were no attendants. The beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. F.
H. Harding.

The bride as the daughter of one of Camden's best loved physicians has been extremely popular all of her life, but that fact alone did not win her popularity—her many graces of character and personal charm have won a host of admirers not only in her native town but throughout the state.
Capt. Marye is from Baltimore. He has been stationed for several months at Camp Jackson, but recently transferred to Camp Funston, Kan., where he will be Assistant Division Quartermaster under Gen. Wood, and train for overseas service.
Capt. and Mrs. Marye have gone to Baltimore, New York and other points for a ten days trip, after which they will go to Camp Funston.

RED CROSS CANTEEN For Entertainment of Draftees and Sol- diers to be Opened Tomorrow.

On Tuesday afternoon a number of the ladies who composed the original committee on canteen work, met at the Red Cross work room to form plans to open a room and to put more zeal and energy into this important work. They realize that too little has been done along that line—that is, systematically done, and spasmodic efforts never bring a desirable result. In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Wm. Anerum, vice chairman, Mrs.
A. D. Kennedy, Jr., presided. It was decided to rent the room next south of Red Cross work room (the one formerly occupied by Mr. T. K. Trotter) and fit it up for the use of the canteen.

In order to do this, the ladies beg the loan of chairs, tables, rugs, pictures, potplants or anything that will make the room attractive and home like. Anybody in the town or county who would like to contribute by loan or gift, will please communicate at once with Mrs. R. B.
Pitts. It is the intention of the committee to make a pleasant lounging place for the soldiers who visit Camden on Saturday afternoons and Sundays.
They hope to supply them with writing material, magazines, ice water, cold drinks, and sometimes light refreshments.
And especially do they wish to show attention to the drafted men who come in from all sections of the county for examination, and to enroll for camp.
They will receive a cordial welcome at the Canteen, which will be opened for their benefit. If the ladies are notified of their coming. The formal opening will be on Saturday August 31st, at 4:30 p. m. and after that each Saturday afternoon, and all day Sunday.

The committee in charge of this work consists of the following: Mrs. Wm.
Anerum, chairman, Mrs. A. D. Kennedy, Jr., vice chairman, Mrs. Wm.
Shannon, Mrs. Margaret C. Miller, Mrs.
Alice C. Richardson Mrs. C. M. Coleman, Mrs. E. C. vonTresckow, Mrs.
David Wolfe, Mrs. R. B. Pitts, Mesdames D. A. Boykin, S. C. Zemp, W. J. Dunn, N. R. Goodale, A. Karesb, M. Baruch; Misses Louise Nettles, Ada Phelps, Willie Watkins, Nan deLoache Rhetta De-Loache, Bland Williams, Emma Alexander, Eulalie Yates and Messrs. D.
A. Boykin, C. W. Evans, M. H. Heyman, C. C. Whitaker, W. L. DePass. The public is asked to co-operate and make the work a success for it is ours to sustain the reputation of old Camden for hospitality and ours to show loyalty to the cause. Every soldier that comes to Camden should be made to feel that he is a guest of honor.

"I should prefer to be defeated by Blease votes than to be elected by them."

That is the statement made from the very beginning of the campaign by OCTAVUS COHEN, the anti-Blease candidiate for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Cohen is an Attorney at Law, with offices at Charleston and Monck's Corner.

Mrs. T. E. Goodale and children are visiting in Lake City.

We have secured the Fulton Truck, for its wonderful power and its sturdiness.
This truck will appeal to the farms in helping them solve their labor problem.
We have secured Mr. L. D. Alford to handle the truck end of our business and we will gladly have him come out and show you what this truck will do.
One and half ton truck $1795 for the present.
