The Colored Americans.

In commencing the death sentences of 10 of 16 colored soldiers convicted in the courts-martial growing out of the Houston, Tex., riots some time over a year ago, President Wilson says:

"I desire the clemency here ordered to be a recognition of the splendid loyalty of the race to which these soldiers belong and an inspiration to the people of that race to further zeal and service to the country of which they are citizens, and for the liberties of which so many of them are now bravely bearing arms at the very front of great fields of battle."

It is believed that the action of the President, especially with his reason given for his clemency, will meet with the approval of the American people.

The colored Americans as a race have proved their loyalty as soldiers, as workers, and as citizens generally. There are no exact figures of the amount of Liberty Loan bonds and War Savings Stamps they have purchased, but enough is known to warrant the statement that according to their means and ability their financial support of the Government has been splendid. The Treasury Department has on more than one occasion referred to this fact. The President's above mentioned, it is believed and hoped, will bring a hearty response from the colored Americans in the Fourth Loan.

J. K. Hall, of Greenville, was convicted in the United States Court at Rock Hill Saturday on three of the four counts of an indictment charging violation of the espionage act. He was sentenced to serve a year and a day in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta. He was charged with talking in opposition to the draft act, calling President Wilson a traitor and making other disloyal remarks.

A man who won't lend is the Kaiser's friend.

A distressing accident occurred in Bennettsville late Thursday afternoon when little Coke Breeden accidentally shot little Joe Reynolds with a shotgun, resulting in a short time afterwards in the death of the latter. The two boys, each with a shotgun, had been out in the pasture and swamp joining the home place of Mr. Breeden, and in some way the gun was accidentally discharged, the lead taking effect in the side of little Joe.

The casualty lists released for publication Saturday morning include three men from South Carolina. They are: Privates Felix Dinkin, of Meyers Hill, died of wounds; John W. Cumbee, of Huger, wounded severely; Herman L. Coffman, Providence missing, in action; Charles Reid, Greenville, missing in action; Bruce A. Price, Buffalo, wounded severely.

"The Reason Why."

B. A. Thomas Stock Remedies are the best, they are scientifically made and all medicine. They keep the bacteria up, and the feed bill down. There is a cause for every effect, remove the cause and the effect removes itself. The Poultry Remedies are especially made to relieve all the diseases in the fowl family such as Cholera and Bronchitis and makes the Hens lay.

The Hog Remedy will positively keep off the Cholera, and if given in the first stages, will cure 90 per cent. Don't forget to keep on hand a bottle of Farris' Colic Remedy for Horses. It is so simple with dropper, that a child can give it. Also a bottle of Farris' Healing Remedy for Cuts and Bruises on man or beast. They never fail.

These remedies are all guaranteed to you by your dealer, to give satisfaction, or your money back.
