Civic League Meeting.

The meeting of the League on Monday next, is of more than usual interest and a full attendance is urged. Things of great moment for the beautifying and betterment of the town will be discussed and there will be more work planned for than can be undertaken by the faithful few who gather each month at the High School park, without the cooperation of the other League members. There is such a surprising lack of civic pride and interest in the majority of Camden's citizens, as well as such a woeful lack of the "get-together" spirit, for the common good, that it is most discouraging to those who have worked so faithfully all these years with so little help from the many who should feel the same pride in the town as they do and be just as willing to do their share of work. This fact has been spoken of before with no great results, and it is hoped this reminder will not fall on dulled ears, as usual but will arouse the interest of a few anyway. If not convenient to attend the next meeting, become a member of the League right now and send your yearly dues. Membership fees are now fifty cents. Men specially invited to join. A most important League undertaking in the near future will be the improvement of the grounds around the Southern and Northwestern station. The committee who is in charge of this work is in communication with railroad and town officials as well as the Chamber of Commerce and have been promised their cooperation and financial aid. It is hoped work will begin soon and instead of incoming passengers being greeted with the sight of neglected grounds, with a background of ugly length of warehouse, ornamented with tattered remains of circus posters, they will see attractive flower beds and well kept hedges and maybe a brand new warehouse.

Picnic For Returned Soldiers.

We have been requested to announce that there will be a basket picnic given in honor of the returned soldiers at R. L. Smyth's spring just north of Cantey Hill on Tuesday July 15th. Everybody is invited and requested to bring well filled baskets. There will be speakers for the occasion and a good time is anticipated.

A DELIGHTFUL DANCE FOR THE JUVENILES

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Coleman presented a festive scene on last Wednesday evening, when their young son, George, was a genial host to half a hundred of his girl and boy friends. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, ferns and cut flowers being used in profusion, with daisies the flower of youth predominating. Yellow, green and white formed a pleasing color scheme, and tall vases of black-eyed-susans nodded a merry welcome to the coming guests. The porch had been artistically converted into a greenery, with ferns, flowers and forest greens and here the crystal punch bowl was embedded in mossy green ferns and filled with a delicious icy beverage that was most acceptable on this warm evening. The color scheme of white and yellow was carried out in detail in all the dainty refreshments and the lights shone softly through shades of sunny yellow. The merry dance continued until 12:30 and was voted a great success by all the happy young participants.

Misses Willie Belle Mackey and Dorothy Burns of Sumter accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Mackey and Mr. and Mrs. Burns North.

Miss Ned Watkins has returned from a visit to relatives in Cheraw.

Mrs. Eva Smith Dead.

It will be a matter of regret to many to learn of the death of Mrs. Eva C. W. Smith, who passed away Friday morning at 2:30 o'clock at her home on Calhoun street, after a lingering illness of several months. Mrs. Smith was the daughter of the late Nathan B. and Kate L. Williams and was born in Ocala, Fla., March 27, 1861. Early in her childhood her father moved to Bishopville, where she was reared. In 1878 she was married to W. H. Smith, of Camden, who died in 1901, leaving her alone with five children, all of whom she has reared and who are now living to mourn her death, as follows: Katie W. Smith, Florence May Smith, Jake L. Smith, W. Harry Smith and C. M. Smith of Summerton.

Mrs. Smith was a lovable character and had many friends. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock at Ebenezer cemetery near Camden, and were conducted by the Rev. M. M. Benson, a former pastor, and the Rev. Mr. Morrison.—Sumter Item.

"YOU CAN DO IT"

The tying run waiting on third—"three and two" on the batter—an anxious moment for the fans as they and the coaches shriek their confidence in him.

Zest for the national game is an age leveler. Father and son alike share the thrill of its tense moments, plunged into despair as their colors droop, then suddenly leaping to heights of "delirious joy," cheering and waving colors, as a hero shows them he "CAN do it."

In the stands or on the campus, are youths and men "who stay young", distinguished by their air which better clothes give them.

"YOU can do it," too—you can wear the better kind of clothes, the kind with a distinctive style, built to suit your taste, to meet your individual requirements—if you select the SOCIETY BRAND kind.

There's a wide variety on display here now—the new double breasted coats, the waist-seam—for tall and short men, for boys and youths, in many textures and patterns.

And most moderately priced, considering their wearing value and the smart styles.
