Sold at Public Auction Sale

Wednesday, October 22nd

At 10:30 A. M. :- Rain or Shine

This is a wonderful hay, grain, cotton and pasturage proposition. It is about equally divided between uplands and bottoms which are covered with a thick stand of Bermuda grass. The war department kept 1500 head of army horses and mules on these pastures all the summer without grain. The cotton lands are very productive. Don't miss this opportunity to buy this land in any size tract you want at bargain prices on easy terms. Terms: one quarter cash, balance one, two, three and four years.
