VISITORS COMPLIMENTED

Mrs. Ralph Stevenson was a gracious hostess Saturday afternoon at her lovely luncheon on North Fair Street when she gave a tea in honor of her two visitors, Mrs. C. W. Adicks of Charlotte and Mrs. C. W. Hazelton of Oklahoma City. The table appointed with a beautiful floral and coffee service was of polished mahogany with a maderia center piece, on which was an artistic bowl of gold-daffodils. Coffee and tea were poured by Mrs. E. E. Sill and Mrs. T. Lee. Light and dainty refreshments, passed on the table, Mrs. Hazelton, who has recently returned from abroad where she engaged in relief work during the war, gave a recitation with a piano accompaniment that pleased the company to the fullest extent. Fifty-five or sixty lies called during the afternoon.

RS. VON TRESCKOW ENTERTAINS

In compliment to Mrs. S. K. Winkler of Mrs. Sherman Woodward of New York, Mrs. E. C. von Tresckow gave a delightful tea to a limited number of guests on Saturday afternoon. The room was flower-filled but the sunny glow of the daffodils prevailed. The table was lovely in a setting of sunny flow and the color scheme was carried out in detail. Tea was poured by Mrs. Albert Kennedy, Jr., and the refreshments served by Miss Willie Watkins. Mrs. Winkler and her daughter Mrs. Woodward have been spending the winter at Hobkirk Inn. A wide circle of relatives and friends make Camden, their home town, a pleasant place to abide. Mrs. Woodward, remembered here, Mrs. Betty Winkler, was married in Camden last year. Her husband is a rising and promising young lawyer of New York City.

RS. MULLER ENTERTAINS

In compliment to her house guests, Mrs. Dillake and Mrs. DeLong of Lexington, Ky., Mrs. Muller gave two charming teas this week, one on Tuesday afternoon and the other Wednesday afternoon, having a different guest on each occasion. The home-like and attractive rooms of the manse were room with the lovely tints of purple and gold—daffodils and violets, and the table had a center piece of white lace and a flower-filled bowl. White tapers in crystal candelabra gave additional touch of beauty. The cake and angel cake were served on Tuesday by Mrs. Ralph Shanna and Miss Lal Blakeney and on Wednesday by Mrs. John S. Lindsay and Mrs. W. J. Dunn.

Messrs. Albert Team and Charlie Hough left last week for Tyler, Texas, where they will enter a business school.

"Fair and Warmer" a sunny comedy with showers of laughter, showing at the Majestic Monday, starring May Allison.

Miss Dillake of Lexington, Ky., and Mrs. DeLong also of Lexington are the guests of Mrs. Edwin Muller.

Miss Eleanor Mitchell of Charleston, but now a student at Winthrop was the guest of Mrs. John S. Lindsay this week. She is now spending some time with her sister Mrs. Clarkson of Lugoff.

Robert Grant, the author, with his wife and daughter are guests at the Court Inn. He wrote "The High Priestess," "Unleavened Bread" and other popular novels.

BRIDGE PARTY

One of the largest and most enjoyable of the season's bridge parties was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kirkland. The rooms were brightened with daffodils and other beauties of early spring that the bright sunshine and soft winds from the South are blowing into full bloom in Camden's generous gardens. Tables were attractively arranged for the bridge devotees and the games resulted in the score prize a lovely china bowl going to Miss Retta Heath while Mrs. Robert Marye cut the consolation, a pot plant. Mr. Robert Marye was the fortunate winner of the gentleman's prize, a deck of cards. The hostess served a delicious salad course with coffee. The guests included quite a number of young people of the town and also those from the tourist colony and Camden has been especially fortunate this year in the personnel of that circle, they are particularly charming and attractive.

"A Daughter of the Sun"

In "A Daughter of the Sun", the story of an Hawaiian butterfly, the cast is a particularly capable one. The players are of recognized ability and among those whose splendid acting is conspicuous in the success of the drama are L. Fred Steen, Jean Clarendon, Bianch Cook, Florence Fields, Dave Manaker and others. The play will be seen at the Camden Opera House, next Thursday, March 25th.—adv.

PEPTO-MANGAN MAKES RICH RED BLOOD

Helps Restore Thin, Run-Down Men and Women to Vigorous Full-Blooded Health

Recommended by Physicians

Sold in Liquid or Tablet form—The Name Gude's the Guide to the Genuine.

It is a true saying that your health is only as good as your blood. Good, rich blood manifests itself in a healthy, natural complexion; clear, keen eyes; tireless energy and enthusiasm; and an abundant supply of reserve strength.

And just as positively does poor, thin blood directly influence the entire system. Pale, sallow complexions; dull eyes; a listless step; languidness; tiredness; worn-out feeling; general dejectedness and unhappiness—all are positive signs that the body is not receiving its proper nourishment through the blood.

Pepto-Mangan helps restore vigorous health, because it contains the very elements so much needed by the blood—to enable it to perform its functions and supply the body with nourishment, energy and strength.

For your convenience, Pepto-Mangan is prepared in tablet as well as liquid form. Both possess exactly the same medicinal value.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan, and that is "Gude's." If the name "Gude's" is not on the package it is not Pepto-Mangan.—adv.

KERSHAW NEWS NOTES

Interesting Items Gathered From The Era of That Place.

Mrs. Ray Thomas, who is taking the census in Buffalo township, last week ran across Peggy Perkins, who lives with her daughter, Harriet Freshly, and claims to be 103 years old. She is still hale and hearty and has movements that befit a far younger person.

Bertell Baker, a tenant on the plantation of J. H. Crow in the Abney community, died Saturday February 28th, and was buried at Sand Hill graveyard Sunday, February 29th, with Woodman ceremonies. He was about 40 years of age and left his wife surviving.

Two of the little children of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Williams were claimed by death during the latter part of the month of February. First their infant son, aged only five months and two weeks was taken on February 21st and was buried at Bethany church at Westville on Sunday, February 22nd. Then their little son, Clyburn Williams, aged two years, after an illness of three weeks fell a victim of influenza followed by pneumonia, on February 25th, and was buried at Bethany church the following day, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Owens.

Harold Beckham, who was injured in an automobile accident several days ago is still at Pennell Infirmary but is improving very rapidly.

John and Lewis Truesdel visited their father, F. L. Truesdel, at the Pennell Infirmary in Rock Hill last Thursday night. We are glad to note that Mr. Truesdel is getting along as well as could be expected.

James H. Clyburn, Kershaw County's popular and efficient Clerk of Court, was a visitor in Kershaw Tuesday.

L. C. Shaw and family, of Camden, visited Mr. Shaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shaw, Sunday.

W. H. Tiller, of the West Waterree section, and his son, H. B. Tiller, were in Kershaw yesterday to get prices on cotton.

On Monday morning as C. H. Truesdel and his little son, Charles, Jr., were coming to town one of the wheels of the car ran into a mud hole in the road near the cemetery and broke down, overturning the car, and the left leg of Mr. Truesdel's son was broken just below the thigh. Mr. Truesdel escaped without any injury whatever. Mr. Truesdel took his little son to the Pennell Infirmary on Rock Hill on the early morning train to have the broken limb set.

The Civil Service examination of applicants for appointment as postmaster at Kershaw is being held at Camden today. The following are the applicants, so we have been informed: Hazel E. Seebright, E. V. Truesdale, W. H. Gay, L. B. Kirkley, Paul K. Cauthen, Charles B. Kirkley and J. S. Elder.

On Monday, William Lowry was driving Mrs. Carson's car and accidentally ran it into a tree, one of the injuries to the car being a broken wind shield. Fragments of the glass struck the face of Miss Mary Welsh Carson and inflicted cuts that, while they were not so serious, were more or less painful.

CITATION

State of South Carolina, County of Kershaw.

By W. L. McDowell, Esquire, Probate Judge.

Whereas, E. H. Shanklin made suit to me to grant his Letters of Administration of the Estate of and effects of J. A. Shanklin.

These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said J. A. Shanklin, deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Camden, S. C., on March 19th, next after publication thereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand, this 5th day of March, A. D. 1920.

W. L. McDOWELL,
Judge of Probate for Kershaw County.

Published on the 12th and 19th days of March, 1920, in the Camden Chronicle and posted at the Court House door for the time prescribed by law.

FINAL DISCHARGE.

Notice is hereby given that on Friday, April 20th, 1920, I will make to the Probate Court of Kershaw County my final return as Administrator of the estate of George W. Crosby, deceased, and on the same date I will apply to the said Court for a final discharge as said Administrator.

All parties having claims against the estate will present them duly attested on or before that date or be forever barred.

J. C. CROSBY,
Administrator.

Death of John Belk.

On Thursday morning of last week the remains of John Belk, son of J. B. Belk, of Camden, were brought to Kershaw from Columbia, where he died at a hospital the day previous, for burial in the Kershaw cemetery. The remains were accompanied by a sister of the deceased, Mrs. Minnie Traylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Belk, their daughter Miss Annie Mae Belk, Rev. M. M. Benson and his father and Mr. and Mrs. Jones, of Camden, came by automobile in advance of the train. The body was taken directly from the train to the cemetery where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. M. Benson, assisted by Rev. A. D. Woodie. The health of the deceased broke down about four years ago while he was a student at a business college in Columbia and he was taken to the State hospital for treatment for pellagra, which was thought to have been his ailment. He never experienced improvement, however, and had to remain under treatment. His death resulted from pneumonia following an attack of influenza—Kershaw Era.
