Reception to Miss Halle.
The Music Club will combine with the Red Cross in giving a reception in honor of Miss Halle, at the club house Tuesday evening, June 1st at 8:30 o'clock P. M. She has recently returned from over seas and will give an interesting talk on Serbia and will show some of her relics.
All members of the Red Cross of 1920 are cordially invited to meet with the members of the music club. All members of the Camden Country Club are invited to attend.

The Juvenile Dance.
On Friday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Devant Bostick presented a gay and lively scene, as Devant Jr., and Miss Sarah were entertaining at a dance. The lads and lassies tripped the light fantastic from 7 o'clock to 9:30. Ice cream and cake were served during the evening. On Saturday quite a number of the same little folks had a delightful outing at Pine Grove, the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Boykin. Master Dixie Boykin was the special little host on this occasion, and fishing, swimming, and a picnic dinner were among the pleasures of the day.

Hospital Auxiliary to Meet.
Members of the Hospital Auxiliary are requested to meet Monday afternoon, 5 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Shannon.

A Beautiful and Unique Entertainment.
The unusual always pleases. And so the lovely reception given by Mrs. W. H. Halle on Thursday afternoon, attracted and pleased a hundred and fifty guests because it was quite out of the ordinary. The rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of red roses mingling with clusters of snowy white and introducing the color scheme to be used for the occasion, the patriotic colors of red, white and blue. The guest of honor Miss Elizabeth Halle has just returned from over-seas, and was brimful of interesting information, which she most graciously gave out to the guests who greeted her, and proving herself to be a model of patience in answering questions. Miss Halle brought from the far-countries many beautiful and costly souvenirs, and trophies, each with an interesting history of its own, the telling of which made every minute of the time interesting and passed too quickly for the lovers of history and those who liked to hear of the quaint customs of the people in those far-away lands. The refreshments carried out in detail the color scheme of red, white and blue. And the pretty maids representing the different countries, Miss Sue Halle as Serbia, wore the original costume brought over by Miss Halle from that country, Miss Emily Wooten represented France, and Miss Martha Workman, Belgium; Miss Elizabeth Workman was fine as America, and Miss Betty Halle appearing as Italy. Misses Agnes Shannon and Agnes DePass were lovely as Red Cross nurses. This entertainment was not only one of the prettiest, but one of the largest of the summer season, having a number of guests from the Boykin neighborhood, as well as a large town attendance.

Commencement Sermon.
On last Sunday night at the Presbyterian Church, Dr. Humphries preached the Commencement sermon to the High School graduates. The church was beautifully decorated in the class colors, yellow and white. And the daisy the class flower was used in profusion. The music had been selected for the occasion, and of especial note was the vocal solo by Mr. Clifton McKain. Dr. Humphries took as his subject "The Sowers," and gave his young hearers a splendid practical sermon that is likely to stay with them and bring forth much fruit. Dr. Humphries is a fine speaker, and an instructive preacher.

Mrs. Ralph Shannon Was Hostess
The Tuesday afternoon bridge club had a charming hostess in Mrs. Ralph Shannon this week. The rooms of this handsome home were flower-filled, and formed an appropriate setting for the many beautiful new gowns and hats, worn by the club members. After cards, ice cream and cake were served.

A Wonderful Machine

The Chronicle this week installed in its job department a Miller Automatic Press Feeder which is a great addition to our already well equipped plant. This machine is one of the latest inventions and they have been placed in only about half a dozen towns and cities in South Carolina. It takes the place of unreliable press feeders and is especially convenient in long runs. You simply place your paper stock in the machine and it goes on with its work. Our friends are invited to call and see this wonderful invention in operation.

Lady Died Suddenly.

Mrs. Goff, wife of Mr. W. L. Goff, a Main Street grocer, died very suddenly Thursday morning about eleven o'clock. She was in her yard at her home on the street leading to the Water Mill Village, when she dropped to the ground and expired immediately. Before her marriage she was a Miss Baker of the Antioch section, and is survived by her husband and four children, the youngest being a babe of only about three weeks of age. The funeral and burial will take place at Antioch Church this morning at eleven o'clock.

A Mystery.

"Luther Tarry went to town last Saturday," related the blunt Missourian, "and along about ten-thirty or eleven o'clock that night his folks heard a snoring out in front of the house and when they went out to do a bit of investigating they found his old Hootin' Nanny car standing there with the engine running, but Luther was nowhere around. They made search, and about five miles up the road they found him lying beside the track in a daze with his pockets turned wrong side out. Of course, it may be that somebody looked over the hood and robbed him and then threw him out. But it don't seem likely that they would have driven his car home."
"I sorter think, myself, that he got bone-tired on something or nuther in town—Luther used to tiddle considerable on the sly—and then either drove the car home and walked back and lay down where they found him, or else he fell out there and the faithful old car came home by itself to get help. You can believe either of them theories you want to; one is just about as good as the other. But it's no use to ask Luther—he don't know; which is pretty totable smart in Luther, if only you look at it right."

The officers of the South Carolina Equal Suffrage league have addressed a pointed letter to former Senator Christie Benet, of Columbia, demanding that he produce proof to substantiate the charge made on the floor of the democratic convention Wednesday night that the leaders of the suffrage cause in South Carolina have been paid workers. They state that they consider it unthinkable that a man who has sat in the United States senate should make such a statement.

Cavalry from Fort Meyer, D. C. was called out late Sunday night to disperse a mob of more than 1,000 persons which surrounded the jail at Alexandria court house, 12 miles from the limits of the District of Columbia, attempting to obtain possession of William Turner, a negro. Turner is accused of having shot to death T. Morgan Moore, an employe of the naval torpedo plant at Alexandria Va., and of having attempted to attack a young woman of Washington. The negro was arrested early today, about two hours after Moore was killed. Turner later confessed, according to the authorities. Moore and the young woman, according to the reports made to Virginia and Washington authorities by the latter were seated in an automobile near the Virginia end of the Potomac river bridge connecting Washington and Virginia, when the negro approached them. Pointing a revolver at Moore, the young woman said, the negro demanded money. When Moore refused she said she became frightened and jumped from the machine and the negro started after her. Then Moore according to her, seized the revolver from a door pocket of the automobile and fired. In an exchange of shots, Moore was shot through the heart and negro struck in the leg and hand. According to the young woman he continued to pursue her until she had given him some jewelry. Turner, who is said to answer the description given by the young woman of the assailant, was captured in the vicinity of Arlington national cemetery. Police say that Turner bore two wounds, one in the hand and the other in the leg, when arrested. Arrival of the cavalry, which had been resorted to by the sheriff of Arlington county, scattered the mob which had formed during the afternoon, threatening to lynch the negro. The troops took up their station about the jail and quiet was restored.

Barber services will be given at the Majestic Theatre tomorrow when "Father's Close Shave" on of the Geo. McManus "Bringing Up Father" comedies is shown: Lathered with laughter, "Father's Close Shave," with Johnny Ray as Jiggs, is a massage of merriment, a shampoo sunshine and a tonic of joy. Real comedies acted by real actors. Not cartoon comedies.

Trial Postponed.

The trial of the Messrs Horton of the Boonetown section, who are being prosecuted by the Reverend W. S. Walters, for an alleged attack upon him at a church in that section several weeks ago, which was set for hearing yesterday before Magistrate Nicholson, was postponed until next Thursday. A large array of witnesses and spectators from the Boonetown section were here yesterday in attendance upon the trial. The reason for the postponement was the absence of a witness for the defense.

Card of Thanks

We desire to cordially and sincerely thank the many friends and acquaintances who so kindly helped us and tendered their condolence in our recent bereavement.
