

Social and Personal News
By Miss Louise Nettles

Miss Ethel Yates Entertains
Miss Watkins was again complimented on Monday afternoon when Miss Ethel Yates entertained in her honor. The guests on this occasion numbered the guests of the younger set, and young members of the pleasure of the afternoon was marked by informality. The hostess served a salad course with hot tea.

Met With Mrs. J. B. Zemp.
The first meeting of the Kirkwood Book Club, after the adjournment for the summer was held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Zemp and was unusually large and interesting. The president, Mrs. John S. Lindsay presided, and the members were quite enthusiastic and were quite sure that the meetings during the coming months would be both pleasant and profitable. Mrs. Ernest Zemp pleased the company with her beautiful voice giving one or more vocal selections. The hostess served sandwiches, hot tea and cake. Mrs. Muller will be next hostess.

The Misses Taylor Entertain
One of the largest and loveliest of the recent functions was the afternoon reception last Saturday with Misses Margaret and Virginia Taylor as the attractive hostesses, and Miss Willie Watkins, a bride elect as the charming guest of honor. The rooms were simply but beautifully decorated for the occasion and electric lights gleamed softly through shades of sunny yellow. The honor guest wore a lovely afternoon dress of brown. Kitten-ear Satin with hat and accessories to match. Miss Virginia Taylor wore a becoming dress of brown-georgette, and Miss Margaret Taylor was very attractive in black satin trimmed in satin roses. Black ice cream and pound cake were served from a table that was quite artistic in its arrangements, having as a center decoration a tall vase of yellow roses and carrying out a color scheme of yellow and white in detail.

Engagement Announced.
A beautiful reception was given Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Schlosburg in honor of the engagement of their young daughter Miss Esther Schlosburg to Mr. Michael Kaplan of Macon, Ga. The rooms were beautifully decorated in flowers, and growing plants, while blue birds were in evidence everywhere. "Blue birds for happiness," and they occupied every available space hanging from the chandeliers, and spanned the arches; perched on the place-cards and gracefully hovered on the great bowls of chrysanthemums, and tall vases of roses. Delicious bride cake, ice cream and other ices were served during evening. Miss Schlosburg is a very attractive young woman. She attended Converse College last year, and did not return this term on account of her coming marriage. She was quite handsome Monday evening in an exquisite gown of brown silk lace. Out of town guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Kaplan, Miss Therisa Kaplan, and Mrs. R. Babbes, Macon, Ga., Mrs. A. J. Heilman, Chester, S. C.

Such a woman, a Satanic beauty—a she-fox of the orient. See Anita Stewart in "The Yellow Typhoon" at the Majestic Monday.
See Alice Lake in "Should a Woman Tell?" at the Majestic today.

Majestic Theatre
PROGRAM

Today, Friday, Oct. 22nd.
"Pick of the Plays"
Bob Daniels, "The Good little bad girl in
"YOU CAN NEVER TELL"
Don't be anything short of a cyclone stop you from seeing this Saturday October 23rd.
Starting Ruth Roland's Greatest Serial Success.
"RUTH OF THE ROCKIES"
Also a Buster Keaton Comedy
"ONE WEEK"
And a Fox Sunshine Comedy.
Monday, October 25th
The fastest hour and a half you ever spent
Anita Stewart in
"THE YELLOW TYPOON"
Harold McGrath's most thrilling tale
Also a Screen Magazine
Admission 25c Children 15c
Wednesday, October 27th
William S. Hart in
"THE TIGER MAN"
A special return Engagement.
Also "HIDDEN DANGERS"
Admission 25c Children 15c
Thursday, October 28th.
The Paramount-Artcraft Star
Lillian Gish in
"A LITTLE MISS REBELLION"
Also a Rollin Comedy and Topics of the Day.
Admission 25c Children 15c

BEAUTIFUL CHURCH WEDDING

Miss Willie Watkins Becomes The Bride of Mr. Steve L. Perry.

On Wednesday evening, October 20, the Baptist Church was the scene of a brilliant and beautiful wedding when Miss Willie Lucile Watkins became the bride of Mr. Stephen Lewis Perry.

The church was beautifully decorated in fragrant pine-tops, smilax and bamboo, with white and yellow chrysanthemums mingling with the green, and the altar gleamed with white and yellow candles in silver candlesticks. Long before the appointed hour the church was filled with admiring friends of the young couple and while the guests were gathering Mrs. McCorkle, the accomplished organist of that church gave several beautiful organ selections and also played the march.

Promptly at 8:30 the wedding party filed down the white-carpeted aisle. The ushers were Messrs. Leonard Schenk, Nettles Lindsay, Kennedy Blakeney and John K. deLoach. Groomsmen were Messrs. Kershaw deLoach, H. Bissell Kennedy, Clyburn Taylor, Harry Porter.

A lovely color scheme of white and yellow was carried out in the exquisite gowns of the bridesmaids and the maid of honor. Miss Perry Belle Bennett, of Lancaster, and Miss Ethel Yates of Camden, wore yellow taffeta and carried white chrysanthemums. Misses Mamie Allen, of Greenville, and Miss Virginia Taylor, of Camden, had dresses of white taffeta and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Ned Watkins, the young sister of the bride as maid of honor was charming in unbroken yellow—dress and flowers.

The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Jack Watkins, who gave her in marriage. Her handsome wedding gown of white satin and rosepoint lace was well suited to her stately bearing—the long court train hung from the waist and her veil fell from a coronet of pearls. She carried a bouquet of brides roses, showered with valley lilies. She was met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Mr. Lewis Lee Clyburn, and the Rev. M. M. Benson united them with the beautiful ceremony of the Church of England.

A large and brilliant reception was held at the Watkins home on Laurens street. The entire lower floor was thrown en suite and converted into an autumn garden—forest greens mingled with white and yellow chrysanthemums, the queen of autumn flowers.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Mrs. Bratton deLoach, Mrs. A. D. Kennedy, Jr., and Miss Louise Nettles, and the receiving line, composed of the entire bridal party and Mrs. H. L. Watkins formed in the east parlor.

In the dining room Mrs. Jack Winkler and Mrs. John Lindsay received, and a bevy of young girls passed baskets of brides cake. The brides table was a dream of beauty, having as a center decoration a silver vase filled with white cosmos and these dainty flowers were scattered over the polished table. White tulle fell from the chandelier and the brides cake was of unusual beauty.

The three punch bowls were presided over by Mrs. Margaret C. Miller, Miss Mary Villepique, Misses Katherine Wallace and Margaret Taylor, Miss Phoebe Oswald and Nancy Carroll. The presents were numerous and handsome. Miss Celeste Mumford had charge of the gift room.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry have gone to Florida on a wedding trip. Quite a number of out of town guests attended the wedding.

Meeting of Library Association.

The Association met at the Library Monday afternoon, October 18th, with the president, Mrs. E. C. vonTresckow presiding, and the association secretary, Miss Louise Nettles read minutes of last meeting, and Librarian's reports.

Mrs. vonTresckow, and Miss Minnie Clyburn both gave short, but interesting accounts of the District Conference at Winnsboro and told how proud they were of the reports sent in by the Camden Civic League and Camden Library Association.

"Camden to the front!" always brings great rejoicing to the hearts of her loyal daughters. They also spoke of the charming hospitalities of the quaint old town of Winnsboro. The Association went on record as favoring the Library Commission Bill that came near passing in 1920, and is to come up again in the next meeting of the South Carolina Legislature. Mr. L. T. Mills and Mrs. G. G. Alexander were appointed on a committee to see our representatives, Messrs. Massey, Alexander and Johnson and enlist if possible their sympathy and favorable votes. This committee was also asked to act in the same capacity in regard to the proposed appropriation for a Woman's Building at the University of South Carolina, and there by give the daughters of Carolina the same opportunities that are given her sons.

The Association decided to give 12 books to the school for delinquent girls and boys. Miss Minnie Clyburn consented to be a committee of one to collect these books and anyone desiring to contribute to that worthy cause will please phone Miss Clyburn.

Mrs. vonTresckow reported for the room committee that she and Mrs. Dunn had made arrangements for the furnace pipes to be thoroughly cleaned, and also that they would have the chairs covered in the near future. They hope to have the painting done the first week in December.

A motion was made by Mrs. William Shannon and seconded by Mr. L. T. Mills that the Librarian's salary be increased. Mr. William Shannon amended the motion by naming the amount. A discussion of the Association followed and Mr. Shannon insisted upon this amendment being voted upon regardless of present finances. The presiding officer put the motion as amended and it was unanimously carried. An increase in the expense budget means that there must be an increase in Association membership, and we feel sure that this will come. The Library is a culture center and a mighty factor in the cause of education. The Librarian is at the service of every school girl and boy in Camden and glad to impart any information if she is able to do so, and has never to her knowledge turned one down. She is in the Library every day except Sunday, from 9:30 to 12:30 in the morning and from 3:30 to 5 in the afternoon. If you think the Library is worth anything to your town, show it by adding your name to the membership roll, for the amount given by the city is not sufficient for its up-keep. Remember, that this plea is not to discourage free readers—you are as welcome as the flowers in May—whether you belong to the Association or not. The Library belongs to Camden, and the people are cordially invited to use it.

For sheer entertainment, "The Yellow Typhoon," at the Majestic Monday, Oct. 25th.

A Marriage of Interest.

The following invitations have been received in Camden:

"Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ernest Gerald request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Miriam Crober, to Mr. Carl LaCoste Kirven, on Wednesday morning, November the third, at half after ten o'clock, First Christian Church, Augusta, Ga." The bride-to-be has often visited Camden, as it is her father's old home, and where he still has many warm friends. On those visits she won many warm friends and admirers for her own sake, by her beauty and personal charm. The prospective groom is a son of Mr. James Kirven, of Darlington, who also has many friends in Camden.

Well, our old friends are greeting us again. Mutt and Jeff are scheduled to appear at the Opera House, October 28th. This season the ubiquitous and irresistible twain will be seen in a brand new Gus Hill musical comedy in three acts entitled "Mutt and Jeff at the Races." A large and capable cast and a beauty chorus of young misses are promised.

Smith-Sibert.
Sumter, Ct. 16—John Sibert and Miss Lucia Smith were married last Sunday at the home of the bride's father, W. E. Smith, near Spring Hill. Only the immediate members of the families were present at the ceremony, the news of which was a surprise to the friends of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Sibert left for McCormick to visit the bridegroom's family and then will spend two weeks at the North before coming to Sumter to make their home.

Look Out! The Yellow Typhoon is coming to the Majestic Theatre, Monday, October 25th.

Tiller-Wray.
York, Oct. 17—Miss Janie Elizabeth Wray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Quilla Wray of this place, and Mr. Harvey Wilson Tiller, of Bethune, Kershaw County, were married here Wednesday evening, the Rev. J. L. Oates, pastor of the Yorkville A. R. P. Church, officiating. The bride is a well known lady of this town, who for a number of years past has been teaching in the public schools of the State.

See the latest Ruth Roland Serial, "Ruth of the Rockies," starting at the Majestic tomorrow.

Marriages.
Married by Probate Judge W. L. McDowell on Saturday, September 11th Mr. William M. Sanders, of Westville and Miss Beulah Bass, of Cantey Hill.

On Sunday, October 17th, 1920, Mr. John Samuel Munn and Miss Stella Blanche Mangum, both of Bethune, were married at the home of Probate Judge W. L. McDowell.

On Tuesday night, October 18th, Mr. Rufus Chester Ross and Miss Josephine Swearington, both of Southern Pines, N. C., were married by Probate Judge W. L. McDowell.

"Mutt and Jeff at the Races" is the title of this season's offering of the ever popular Mutt and Jeff series of musical plays. This splendid attraction will appear at the Opera House Thursday, Oct. 28th. Original songs, novel features, mirth-provoking situations and wholesome comedy are promised along with a capable cast of well known musical comedy players.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Addie Roberts has gone to Blaney where she will teach this session.

Miss Katherine Blakeney was in Charlotte Wednesday where she was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Jeanne Douglas Spang to Mr. Richard Cameron Price which event took place at the church of the Holy Comforter in Charlotte.

Miss Evy Roberts has gone to Timmonsville, S. C. where she has accepted a school and will teach this session.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hallett leave tomorrow night for a visit of two weeks to Mr. Hallett's parents in St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. N. B. Goodale attended the Central District Conference of Federated Clubs in Sumter last Wednesday.

Mrs. W. D. Wilson of Paxville, S. C., has returned to her home after a visit to Miss Jennie Roberts.

Mr. Ralph V. Wray of Asheville, N. C. is visiting friends here this week.

Mr. P. S. De Villbiss of Cleveland, Ohio spent Sunday in Camden.

Mr. R. G. Zetrouer of Gainesville, Fla., spent several days here the past week.

Mr. Bissell Kennedy, of Atlanta, was a visitor in Camden this week.

Starting at the Majestic Saturday, Ruth Roland in "Ruth of the Rockies."

Meeting of Cotton Association.
There will be a meeting of the Cotton Association at the Court House Saturday at noon in the interest of the American Products Export and Import Corporation. Everybody interested is urged to be present.
L. W. Boykin,
Ch. County Branch Cotton Assn.

DeKalb Church
Rev. J. B. Shiver of Rock Hill will preach Sunday morning at DeKalb. All the congregation will be expected.
J. S. Sturgis.

Judge Grants Bail.
Judge Wilson granted bail to Heyward Gay of Kershaw yesterday in sum of $2,000. Gay is charged with being an accessory to the murder of LeRoy Faulkenbury several days ago. Allen B. Murchison, graduate of the university and recently nominated for superintendent of education of Kershaw county represented Gay in motion for bail before Judge Wilson. Tuesday's State.

To Put on Big Sale
H. L. Schlosburg has a page advertisement in this paper today announcing a sale to begin at his store today. He has been making vast preparations for the event and has employed one of the foremost interior decorators and merchandise specialists in the country to assist him. Mr. T. L. Johnson has charge of the sale, and Schlosburg's sales always draw large crowds.

Sumter Knights Visit Camden.
The Sumter Knight Templars were well represented at the meeting and banquet held last Tuesday night in Camden. They report a great time and very successful visit. The banquet was rather an elaborate affair, and was heartily enjoyed by all visiting Sir Knights.

W. B. Burns, Jr., Ryan White and E. B. Compton received the Knight Templar degree were constituted and knighted.
Knights from Sumter to make the trip were J. H. Guthrie, J. C. Holford, I. E. Parker, J. B. Duffie, M. M. Platt, M. L. Parley, W. E. Parley, W. F. Burton, J. E. Workman, R. J. Alexander, F. B. Sreech, H. W. Sholer, J. O. Staley, W. H. Flowers, David W. Cuttino, A. M. Currie and W. Shaw. Grand Commander Bryan E. Miot had charge of the Meeting. Wednesday's Sumter Item.

Mutt and Jeff at the Races.
What promises to be a genuine treat and surprise is slated for The Camden Opera House where that famous pair of fun-makers, gloom destroyers a har-binger of joy and happiness, "Mutt and Jeff" will hold merry and undisturbed sway Thursday, Oct. 28th with the usual matinee. The title of their new entertainment is, "Mutt and Jeff at the Races." It is in three acts and wedded to hitting and tuneful music, novelties, screams, wit and unstinted joy, plus youth, charm and fascinating women. Mutt and Jeff this time will be the heroes of a number of brand new adventures. They will once more engage in their proverbial feud, get into all sorts of hilarious escapades woo, love and find trouble for their pills and wit to all this with but one aim in life—to create laughter for the nation. If you have enjoyed the rest of the Mutt and Jeff series of situations, melodies and complications you are bound to endorse their latest. At any rate, from all accounts, it is the best production Manager Gus Hill has offered in seasons.

Automobile Burned.
An automobile belonging to Dr. J. F. Workman caught fire last Wednesday morning about two o'clock near Carrison's Mill when Dr. Workman with a number of friends were returning to Sumter from Camden where they had been attending the Knight Templar banquet. The car was a Patteson Six. The fire, it is stated, was probably due to a short circuit in the electrical wiring. The fire started so suddenly and spread so rapidly that the car could not possibly be saved. The car was fully covered by insurance.

CAMDEN OPERA HOUSE
Thursday, Oct. 28th
ABSOLUTE NEW EDITION THIS VISIT OF BUD FISHERS BEST AND FUNNIEST OF ALL MUSICAL COMEDIES MUTT & JEFF at the RACES
YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO MISS IT THIS VISIT IS ONE BIG LAUGH FROM START TO FINISH
30 PEOPLE AND A STUNNING PARISIAN BEAUTY CHORUS ALL UNDER 20
Take the KIDDIES TO SEE MUTT AND JEFF AT THE RACES—THEN TRY TO STOP THEM FROM LAUGHING—IT CAN'T BE DONE—SEE THE FUNNY FINISH
Three Acts That Are a Riot of Fun and Popular Music
Prices $1.00, and $1.50
Seats on Sale at W. R. Zemp's

HEAVY DEMANDS
P-KEEP MINIMUM
DURABILITY BEST
SERVICE BEST
ORDERS
NOW TAKEN
VERY SERVICE EXTENDS TRA SERVICE
A. K. BLAKENEY, DEALER
DEKALB ST.
PHONE 221

The Cornallias Family of European Robots Who are Making Their Initial Tour of America With Sparks Three Ring Circus Which is due in Camden on Wednesday, October 27th.