Baron DeKalb
At Hobkirk Inn we gathered round the light to hear discussion of the Camden Fight! Tell us the story of DeKalb, we cried. That noble soldier, for our freedom died. Who was the gentle Chevalier, his friend, Guarding the fallen Baron till the end. And, as he felt his Comrade's hand grow cold. Bowed low his head and wept, we have been told?
Baron DeKalb, the Major rose to tell. In Camden, South Carolina, fighting fell! In seventeen eighty, dead the Baron lay. His memory stirs our grateful hearts today. Ah, brave DeKalb, though gallantly you led. The field was lost, and General Gates had fled!

Meeting of Hospital Auxiliary.
The Woman's Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. William Shannon Monday, February 22nd, at 4 o'clock p. m. A full attendance is requested.

Met With Mrs. Wooten.
Kirkwood book club had a delightful meeting last week with Mrs. Ernest Wooten. A list of twenty books were ordered, also a selection of "The Best Short Stories," to be read, as a part of the programme at each meeting. A delightful short story entitled "The Sunny Side," was read on this occasion by Mrs. J. Blakeney Zemp. The hostess served chicken salad, sandwiches, crackers and coffee. Mrs. John S. Lindsay will be the next hostess, on Thursday morning March 3rd.

Confederate Bazaar A Success.
The bazaar given by the John D. Kennedy, Chapter U. D. C., on the 18th and 19th, was a most gratifying success and the president of this organization desires to express her thanks and appreciation to Messrs. McKenzie and Trapp for the loan of their show rooms, to the city council and Mr. William Whitaker for efficient help rendered to the ladies of the county and city who were not members, but who generously contributed; to the absent ones who did not forget Camden, nor the Chapter they loved and served so well, and to the entire membership who gave their loyal aid and support. The bazaar was liberally patronized by the business and professional men, and also by a number of our tourist friends. We thank you!
Louise Nettles, president.

Celebrated Birthday.
Henry Lee Clyburn, the bright little son of Mr. and Mrs. James Clyburn was eight years old on the 23rd, and in honor of the occasion, around twenty-five of his little friends were invited to come in and make merry. As it came so near a National holiday, the color scheme of red, white and blue was carried out in detail. A huge cherry tree was pinned on the wall, and each little guest was given a hatchet and a prize given to the one who blind folded, pinned it nearest the place where the great George Washington cut the tree. Master Henry Lee Gregory won the prize and gallantly presented the box of candy to Miss Elizabeth McCaskill. The table was beautifully arranged, the cake twinkled with eight candles and the color scheme of red, white and blue, was carried out in the delicious refreshments.

Library Association Met.

The inclement weather seriously interfered with the attendance of the regular monthly meeting of the above association. However the meeting was called to order by the president, and some important matters duly transacted.

The association acknowledged with thanks the splendid gift from the Salmon family, of the bound papers, dating back a hundred years, of which mention has been made in these columns before.

Also gave a vote of thanks to Mrs. Franke, of New York, for a years subscription to "Bird Lore," and a valuable book on "Carolina Birds." We are anxious for the girls and boys to read, study and become interested in these, for it may awaken a love and interest that will assure the lives and welfare of the feathered tribe. We should all love and take pride in the beautiful birds of Carolina that fit from tree to tree with their happy songs and bright plumage. Boys, when you want to improve your marksmanship let us beg you to get something else for a target, the birds have a right to live.

The association is also indebted to Mrs. Todd for a number of beautiful magazines for the table; Mrs. Todd is a member of the association. And Mrs. Grace King Ingersol, of Connecticut, has also enrolled as a member. She has long been an interested friend, and made many contributions in books and magazines.

The librarian reported that the membership list was steadily growing, but had not yet reached the light-water mark, which she was ambitious to bring it.

A number of new books were put on the rent shelf, and may be read for 10 cents each. They include all of the most talked of books.

A committee was selected to meet with the other organizations on the afternoon of February 24th at the library to discuss and consider the Confederate reunion in Camden this spring. The following compose the committee. Mr. L. T. Mills, Mr. L. A. Wittkowsky, Mr. M. Baruch. — Owing to the lateness of the meeting, this committee was not mentioned last week. The association decided to join the other Federated clubs in extending a social courtesy to the State Federation which meets in Camden in April.

Hobkirk Hill Chapter to Meet.

The regular monthly meeting of Hobkirk Hill Chapter D. A. R. will be held Thursday, March 3rd, at 4:30 p. m. with Mrs. E. C. von Tresckow as hostess. Mrs. von Tresckow's home is two doors from the Country Club on Camden Heights, and she joins the Regent in extending an invitation to all visiting D. A. R. to attend this meeting. This meeting should be of special interest to visiting D. A. R. as it is on the battle ground of Hobkirk Hill. No other of General Green's battles has been so often refought by critics as that on Hobkirk Hill. The first shot of this battle was fired at 11:5 a. m., 1781. Alas! how many unknown dead "will rise at the last trump, from the soil that we daily tread in Camden.

"Had the beautiful custom of observing a 'Memorial Day,' and the patriotic societies of Sons and Daughters of the Revolution, originated half a century earlier, the names and graves of these men who gave their lives for right and country, might not now be forgotten."

Missionary Society to Meet.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Camden Baptist church will hold a special meeting for Home Missions on Wednesday afternoon March 2nd at 3:30 o'clock in the church. An interesting program has been prepared for the occasion. Refreshments will be served, also a special collection will be taken. Members are urged to be present, and a cordial invitation is extended to all visitors.

Home Demonstration News

(By Miss Blanche Tarrant.)

Beginning on Friday, February 25, the Community Market which has recently been held at the office of the Home Demonstration Agent, will be held in the display room of the Ker-shaw Motor Company. For some time people interested have desired a more suitable place to hold this market, and the Secretary of Chamber of Commerce was instrumental in securing such a convenient location. The Chamber of Commerce will have tables placed there, and a bulletin board on which the articles for sale may be listed. All people of the county who have produce for sale are asked to bring it there every Friday at eleven o'clock. These market days have meant much to the farm women, for at the present time, it is the only means of getting ready cash for the family needs. After the sales, the money taken in is often spent before going home in buying sugar, coffee, or shoes for the children.

The kinds of articles which have been sold are: pork sausage, liver pudding, hog-head cheese, country lard, smoked ham, turkey, dressed chicken, eggs, butter, celery, water ground meal and hominy, home-made candy and cakes, pickles, preserves, cream for whipping, strained honey, canned vegetables, turnips, sweet potatoes, etc.

An interesting meeting of the Tim-rod Home Demonstration Club was held at the school building on Tuesday February 8, at 2:30 o'clock. The teachers had prepared a nice program which was well carried out by the school children and was quite an entertaining feature for the afternoon. Mr. Sanders, the Farm Agent gave an instructive talk on the care of the Orchard, and the subject of demonstration by Miss Tarrant was the school Lunch. There were about fifty people present which proved the meeting a success and worth while to the community.

The meeting of the Home Demonstration County Council was held on Saturday, February 12 in the office of the Home Demonstration Agent. The clubs were well represented. A heart to heart talk was given by Mr. McDaniel, Secretary Chamber of Commerce on Co-operation and told some thing of the plans of the Chamber of Commerce. The Council expressed their wish for a County Fair in the fall. If this could not be held, then they would hold an Exhibit Day from the Home Demonstration Clubs.

Thanks Their Friends

GAIN IN FARM WAGES

Pay for Labor Has Tripled in the Last Twenty Years.

Hired Men Get Four Times as Much for Their Services as They Did in 1879.

Washington.—Wages of hired men on farms have more than doubled in the last ten years, tripled in the last twenty years and were more than four times higher last year than they were in 1879. These changes are shown by statistics of the Department of Agriculture.

Wages paid by the month, without board, averaged $64.95 for the country as a whole last year; ten years ago they averaged $27.50 and in 1879 they were $10.43.

Day labor at harvest time last year averaged $4.36, without board, and at other than harvest time $3.50. Ten years ago harvest-time labor was paid $1.82 and at other than harvest time was paid $1.13 and non-harvest-time labor 81 cents a day.

California and Nevada farmers paid their labor the highest prices without board, the average in those states last year having been $107 a month. The lowest average was in Mississippi, where $41 was paid. The average for the country as a whole was $46.95; the northern Atlantic states averaged $75.54, the south Atlantic $50.56, the northeast central states $70.03, the northwest central states $79.79, the south central states $51.94 and the far western states $39.43.

For harvest-time labor, without board, North Dakota paid the highest rate with $7.40 a day, while at other than harvest-time South Dakota paid the highest rate with $5.90 a day.

FUTURE INDIAN BELLE

Preparing for the days when she will undoubtedly be the belle of the valley, this maid of India is undergoing first stages of ornamentation. Note the odd palm leaf roll stuck through the lobe of the ear and the metal ornaments on the nose. As the girl grows older larger rolls are substituted, gradually enlarging the hole in the ear lobe.

FLAGS TRAIN, AVERTS WRECK

Unidentified Hero Disappears After Saving Fast Train From Being Thrown in Ditch.

Casper, Wyo.—Westbound Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train No. 30 was narrowly saved from a serious wreck by an unidentified man who flagged the train as it was approaching a part of the track a few miles east of here that had been torn up. The train was traveling fifty miles an hour at the time and railroad officials said that the train would have been ditched completely had it struck the torn-up track.

Who was responsible for the attempted wrecking of the Burlington train is still a complete mystery, according to police and railroad officials. It was thought possible that the person who flagged the train was originally one of the party intending to wreck it, for when the train stopped and its crew made an investigation no one could be found.

The spikes had been pulled out of the ties and the rails torn up completely for nearly 100 feet, only four miles from Casper.

"NO POCKETS" AID TO THEFT

Tacoma Probation Officer Says Boys Steal From Women, Rarely From Men.

Tacoma, Wash.—Because women's clothing is not provided with pockets stealing is increasing among the juvenile population, in the opinion of S. S. Healy, county probation officer. Having no place in which to stow away her money and valuables the average woman flaunts them in the faces of youths too weak to resist, and careers of crime are started, he says.

Mr. Healy reports that almost every day complaints are made of boys stealing money from women, but that very rarely does a boy steal from a man.

Activities of Women.
