Two Men Arrested for Robbery.
 About a month ago the Robinson Lathan Jewelry store was raided, over $300.00 in jewelry being stolen, the robbers leaving no clue. On Tuesday last, a boy, by the name of Fry, brought in a wrist-watch to find its price. R. M. Robinson recognized it as being one of those stolen, confirming it by comparing the number of the works of the watch with his invoice. The boy, being questioned, implicated two men, Will Richardson and Tom Stewart, saying that they had pawned the watch with him. The two men, being searched, were found to have in their possession the rest of the stolen goods. They admitted having broken into the place, entering by way of a transom. They were arrested and bound over to the March term of court.—Lancaster News.

According to Chicago experts the minimum amount required to supply a woman with a complete outfit is $332.75.

As a result of violations of the selective service act, 4,812 men have thus far been convicted by the United States Attorney General, chiefly for failure to register for the draft.

REGULAR EVE-Y-DAY AFFAIR
Most Mothers With Small Sons Will Recognize This as Strictly According to Schedule.
 Aw, mother, not yet! Just lemme stay out a little longer—just five minutes. Just one minute? Aw, gee!
 Get ready? Why ain't I all right to go this way? Why not? Aw, gosh, not my shirt! Yes, I see those edges on the cuffs, but I can keep my coat sleeves down over them. Gee whiz, you're pertickler. Why do you have to see my shoes? I did black them, just yesterday.
 Yes, I'm all done washing 'em, didn't hurry too much. Lemme alone—my neck's all right! Well, I'm sure I don't know why those dark places are on my hands; why, I just washed them. Ouch! Don't brush my hair so hard! Well, the place that sticks up is right over the bump, so that's why I couldn't brush it there. No, I haven't done my nails yet; I was just getting ready when you made me wash my hands again.
 I don't need anything. Well, then, just a sweater, not my overcoat. Aw, gee! No, I don't know where my gloves are; I don't need them, anyhow. Gosh, not my rubbers! Aw, mother! The mud isn't very deep, and it takes about a year to put the darn things on, Gee whiz.
 Well, g'by! Yes, I am hurrying. Well, I'm gonna start right off, soon as I speak to Bill a minute; he's right up at the corner, and he might be going my way. Aw, why not?
 Well, s'long!
 (Departs with the hug and smile that cancel all his sins, and a great peace settles upon the household.)—Life.

"RODEOS" FULL OF INTEREST
 Exceedingly Interesting Annual Exhibitions That Are Held North of the Arctic Circle.

In the vicinity of the Kobuk river, Alaska, 50 miles north of the Arctic circle, there are held annual "rodeos," which for picturesque, skill of exhibitions, and in popularity are comparable to the "roundups" of the western part of the United States—yet there is not a single horse or steer or saddle or "six-gun" within hundreds of miles of the scene.

These rodeos are conducted under the auspices of the United States bureau of education for natives of Alaska, for the advancement of the reindeer industry. There are 150,000 reindeer in the territory, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine.

At the fair all matters pertaining to reindeers are discussed, and the herders come to an understanding regarding grazing ground rights and similar matters. Government representatives give talks on reindeer breeding and offer scientific guidance for the development of an improved stock. Recently serious consideration has been given to a means of exporting the growing thousands of surplus deer to the United States.

Within the next year or two, it is anticipated, a market for distributing the meat will be established in the United States. It costs less than $3 per head to raise deer, which will dress 150 pounds of choicest meat.

Men Dodge Age Proposition.
 Service of women citizens on the registration boards leads to interesting personal revelations about their neighbors.
 A man who holds a position in the city government had always given his real age, now 48, before women sat on the boards. When his wife went in to register for the first time one of the women on the board said to her:
 "Oh, Mrs. Blank, isn't your husband an old codger?"
 "Why, no," said Mrs. Blank, "I don't think 41 is so very old."
 "But he registered as 47."
 Silence fell and Mrs. Blank entered the booth to fill out her enrollment ballot.
 Next year, when the husband entered the registration place and was asked by a man on the board his age, he replied, "42."
 The woman whose undue interest had evidently caused a family Bible meeting looked at him and her look said volumes. But he stared her down, and so the record stands.—New York Evening Post.

Fill Fountain Pen Without Dropper.
 How can the fountain pen be filled without having a dropper handy? A man does not usually carry a dropper with him. But in the crowd at hand there is likely to be someone who has a self-filling fountain pen. If he can be induced to lend it for a moment the trick is done, says the Popular Science Monthly.
 Take the self-filling pen and strip it in ink until it is full. Assure the owner that no damage will be done to the point of his valuable self-filler and permit him to watch the following performance:
 Press the lever of the borrowed pen, and through its point discharge its contents into the barrel of your own pen. Then refill the borrowed pen and return it.

Retired to Private Life.
 "What's become of Congressman Twobble, who used to pose as the man of the hour in this part of the country?"
 "He met the usual fate of sixty-minute men," said Spire Whitelee.
 "How was that?"
 "A lot of his constituents got together and decided his hour was up."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

LIKE ENOCH ARDEN
Soldier Will Find Body Buried and Wife Married.
 LaFayette, Ga., Feb. 23. Fred Williams, who went away to war in 1917, will return home in a few days to find his "body" buried here, his war insurance policy paid and his bride the wife of another.
 This was the situation disclosed today when Mrs. Grace C. Roberts received a brief telegram from New York, signed by her first husband saying he had landed and was coming home as soon as possible. There was no explanation of his long silence.
 The war department reported Williams killed in action soon after he went to France, paid his widow his insurance and then sent a soldier's body here as his, Williams' wife, whom he had married, but a few months before he left, mourned him and then married a former sweetheart, Joseph Robertson.

In response to the inquiry of many telephone subscribers: "What can I do to help my service?" this advertisement is published.

"My Bell Rang"
"Excuse it, Please"

Hundreds of times every day telephone subscribers start a call and abandon it before it is completed. They hang up the receiver before getting an answer.

In some cases the person called is slow in answering. In many cases the person calling decides the call is not desired.

The result is that annoying report, "My bell rang," and needless answering and waiting at the telephone.

Almost every one who is disturbed in this way naturally blames the operator for the inconvenience.

We instruct the operators to say "Excuse it, please," to avoid an argument.

Care in this matter will greatly reduce the number of unnecessary calls and assist the operators in their efforts to improve the service.

SHOT IN HOLDUP
Man Refuses to Throw up Hands And Gets Bullet.
 Greenwood, Feb. 24.—Refusing to hold up his hands when confronted by two armed men last night about 9:30 o'clock while on his way home from his shoe repair shop, W. T. Saxon, about 50 years of age, was possibly fatally shot in the shadow of a church in the Greenwood mill village where he lives. According to Chief of Police M. D. Chandler whom Saxon asked to see after being carried to a local hospital, he identified one of his assailants as John Burnett, a mill employee. Hack Fuller, another mill employee, is also under arrest.
 When accosted by the holdup men, Saxon says he recognized them and laughed, thinking they were playing a joke on him. Burnett, he claims, told him if he did not hold up his hands he would shoot. Saxon replied that he did not have the grit to shoot. It is said, and received one bullet at close range. The bullet apparently was an explosive bullet. It ranged downward through the abdomen, tearing jagged holes in the intestines. Physicians say Saxon has no chance of recovery.
 The tragedy last night was the climax of a series of robberies and hold ups. Two Bailey Military Institute cadets were robbed of a small amount of jewelry a few weeks ago, and two other cadets, by refusing to hold up their hands, bluffed three bandits into flight last Friday night.
 There are forty-eight battleships in the United States navy which are named for the States of the Union.

WILL YOU HELP SAVE ONE LIFE?
 For humanity crushed, enslaved, bleeding, we plead exiles wandering in the desert, children orphaned, Christian girls prisoners or slaves in Moslem harems, a stricken nation amidst implacable foes, its ancestral territory, made sacred by the martyrdom of fifteen centuries, seized by others, homes in ruin, hopes crushed, lives imperiled, this prostrate Armenian nation, still the battleground of contending armies for two years after the close of the world war, its crops repeatedly stolen, 2,200,000 of its citizens massacred or starved to death, begs of prosperous happy America for food enough to sustain its life till the promises embodied in the terms of the armistice are fulfilled. Will you help save the grief-stricken survivors, or will you, through indifference, let them die? America alone can save them.

 How many churches in Kershaw county will adopt one of these little orphaned Armenians? How many Missionary Societies will adopt one? How many Sunday Schools will adopt one? You hold the school of life or death for these little orphans.
 Five dollars per month will feed them—wont you adopt one for the year?
