

College Girls Baro Their Ears, Doff Nets

Norton, Mass.—Puffing the hair at the ends will disappear at Whouton college if the campaign, just begun by the second year girls succeeds. Hair nets, too, but this for the sake of economy.

At dawn the rest of the student body was awakened by the sound of beating drums and blaring wind instruments to find the sophomores parading about the quadrangle, all wearing their hair "old style," and with their ears bared to the breeze, many pairs for the first time in months.

Banners explained that the campaign was twofold—for reform in hair dressing and economy in the interests of the endowment fund. Later the freshmen endorsed the latter purpose by hurling from the roof of the dormitory building an effigy of the stacker who does not do her bit for the fund.

CLERK WINS SCIENCE PRIZE

Mr. L. Bolton, a London civic clerk, who won the $5,000 prize arranged by the Scientific American for the clearest explanation for lay readers, of the theory of relativity propounded by Professor Einstein of Berlin. The prize money was contributed by Mr. Eugene Higgins of Paris, an amateur enthusiast in physics and mathematics. Mr. Bolton beat many distinguished competitors.

There was wide-spread astonishment that a clerk buried in the British patent office was able to express a clearer idea of what is considered the greatest discovery in physics since Newton, than leading physicists themselves.

The photograph shows Mr. Bolton, winner of the prize.

HITCHES WIFE TO CULTIVATOR

She Sues for Divorce and Produces Predecessor to Support Charge.

Scranton, Pa.—That she was harassed to a cultivator and forced to work for hours daily in the fields of their farm in the sweltering summer heat and that she was fed on dried crusts and "rutabagas" all last winter, was the story told in divorce court by Mrs. Edith May Wardell of Moscow, Pa., in her divorce action against Ambrose Wardell, a farmer.

She was married to Wardell four years ago, and is his third wife. The first Mrs. Wardell is dead and the second Mrs. Wardell obtained a divorce.

Court and spectators were given a big surprise when Attorney Frank E. Boyle, appearing for the libellant, called Mrs. Wardell No. 2, who testified that she was forced to obtain a divorce because Wardell also harassed her to the cultivator and fed her food not fit for pigs.

G. W. Swarts, a neighbor of the Wardells, called as a witness, said that Wardell is known to the people of Moscow as "Bruiser."

SCHOOL BONDS SOLD.

Original Bids All Rejected—Apparently No Competition.

The following sealed bids were received by the School Trustees, District No. 1, Monday morning the 11th at 12 o'clock for the $160,000 school bonds advertised for sale:

Well Roth and Co., Cincinnati, O., bid $150,400 and accrued interest for 20 year bonds, they to furnish bonds.

The Hanchett Bond Co., Chicago, Ill., bid $149,040 for 15 or 20 year bonds.

Seasongood & Mayer, Cincinnati, O., bid 148,800 for serial Bonds, averaging 20-12 years maturity.

Breed, Elliott and Harrison, Cincinnati, O., bid $148,625 and accrued interest for 20 year bonds.

Sidney Spitzer & Co., Toledo, O., bid $160,000 for 25 year bonds—commission, etc., to be agreed upon.

Finding $11,200 was wanted as commission on 20 year bonds, this bid was only an offer of $148,800.

Believing no real competition had entered in the bidding for the bonds the trustees rejected all of the above bids and stated to buyers present they could not make sale at so great a discount. They also stated they would sell the bonds at following prices:

Bonds 15 years maturity at $98.00
Bonds 20 years maturity at $97.50
Bonds 25 years maturity at $97.00.

Legality of issue to be approved by buyer's attorney and bonds to be furnished by buyer without expense to Trustees.

After considerable "haggling" and proposals and counter proposals, the trustees finally made sale to Sidney Spitzer & Co., Toledo, O., at $95.00, bonds to be dated May 1, 1921, delivery to be made on or before May 10, 1921, and if later than May 10, 1921 accrued interest after that date to be paid to trustees.

Several sealed bids contained certain conditions favorable to buyers which is unnecessary to state here.

Child Run Over by Motorcycle.

At the corner of the courthouse N. J., Jr., the four-year-old son of Mr. N. J. Laney, was run over by a motorcycle ridden by Mr. Eugene Bradley, and right badly hurt, although it is thought that no bones were broken. The little fellow was on his way home from his father's stables in company with a larger brother, and had been taken to the middle of the street by his father. He was within about two feet of the curb when struck by the machine, and the impact from the blow threw him against the curb his face striking the sharp edge. Medical attention was immediately rendered and the little fellow was taken home. At last reports he was resting easy and it is hoped that he will soon be out again.—Bishopville Vindicator.

Law Held Unconstitutional.

Sustaining the contention that the state law prohibiting carnivals from showing in certain counties is unconstitutional because it is special legislation, Judge George P. Prince today signed an order restraining the sheriff from executing warrants issued yesterday for the arrest of 104 members of a carnival company in continuing its exhibitions near this city.—Lancaster News.

WATEREE MILL NEWS

Waterree's first clinic was held at the Camden Hospital last Friday when Dr. Young of Chester removed the tonsils and adenoids of seven children. Mr. Hallett also underwent an operation for tonsils. All the patients are doing finely and the children seemed to take the matter more as a frolic than a disagreeable operation. Waterree's crusade against sickness and disease is bearing fine results and we are sure to have happier, healthier children. Another clinic will be held in the near future.

The baseball game Saturday between Waterree and a picked team from the High School resulted in a victory for Waterree. The Waterree team showed flashes of fine form at times and some sterling plays were made. The feature of the game was a fine running catch by Kershaw deLoach of Waterree, while Benny Smith and Dodgin did the best work for the scrubs. Next Saturday Waterree will play Hermitage and a close, fast game is expected. Both teams will be strengthened and the rivalry of last year games will be renewed. This game will be played at the fair grounds at 4 o'clock.

The plans for the May Day celebration are developing rapidly. Each day the girls are rehearsing their songs and dances and the boys are showing a keen interest in the relay races. Nearly all the mothers have made known their desire to enter their babies in the Baby Parade so a fine contest is looked for in this event and proud will be the mother whose baby is chosen as the best. Two prizes will be awarded in all the events.

A baseball game between Waterree and the fast-going Wimsboro team has been arranged for this day also and this will be a fine attraction for the baseball fans.

For the first time since last December, Waterree Mills is running at full capacity. Every spindle is turning and the installation of the new Draper looms is practically completed. The erectors have set a mark for competitors to reach, erecting over twenty looms per day for over two weeks.

The interior of the bath house is being painted this week and a large new float is being built which will be anchored a short distance from the shore. The platform and chute will be repaired and a new spring-board put in for those who enjoy water sports. The K. O. K. A.'s have consented to co-operate with Waterree Mills in keeping the bath-house clean and a pride to the community.
